There has been a committee appointed to investigate the influences used to attempt the passage of the Riot Bill. The committee resolved to examine each member. Last Thursday evening Rev. Doyle protested vehemontly against this action, but Wolfe carried his point and consequently every member will be interviewed. There is quite a nervousness among some of the members who prefer to be "let alone." The Bounty Bill for your county has been decided to be in conflict with the constitution, as a special law interfering with the affairs of counties. If the decision is sustained your county with several others will have to go without their bounties, as they can only be provided by a general law that should apply to all counties of the State.

Our Washington Letter. Special to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24, '79.

The Republicans having agreed not to filibuster against the wild schemes of the Greenback Democracy, on Monday the communists had their day. The better policy for our party is to antagoniza these scherues on their pass-age and expose the unwisdom of them before the country. Ample justifica-tion was provided by the Democrats for this conclusion. The door being The better policy for our party is to opea, they flooded the calender with the most foolish and dangerous projects. They literally aim to give which to their offices appertain to be done, everybody everything at the public expense to sink down the public credit, they be then and there expense to sink down the public credit, to destroy confidence in business cir-against them as shall be just. Given un-der my hand and seal this 22th day of eles, and in various ways to injure the affairs of the country. It is well to let them go on in their wild career SCing.
