LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Elliot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening. M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—The Dutch Hill road is being put in excellent condition. —Mr. J. C. Cornwell and lady, of Stoneboro, spent a few days in town last week.

—An educational communication from Brookston, is crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

—Ferd. Weink raised his new barn, 50 x 60, on Dutch Hill last Friday. No accidents occurred, and every thing went off swimmingly.

—Mrs. Sharp has returned home after quite an extended absence. We believe she has fully recovered from her late severe attack of diphtheria.

—Beverly, the blacksmith, wishes to inform the public that he has made a great reduction in the price of horse-shoeing. See prices in his advertisement.

—A little girl of John Hood's, aged about two years died yesterday morning. We did not learn what the disease was. The child will be buried here to-day.

—The Bill allowing Titusville to hold courts, instead of going to Meadville, passed the Legislature at the last moment. The Titusvillians are very happy over the result.

—Most of the soldiers in this section have already received the arrears of pensions due them for injuries sustained in the late war, all of which they duly appreciate.

—The crowded state of our columns has made it necessary for us to "boil down" some of our communications this week, at which we hope the writers will not feel offended.

—By reference to the proper place it will be seen that Mr. J. Cook, of Barnett township is announced as a candidate for County Surveyor subject to Republican usages.

—It took just about 24 minutes to raise by subscription enough to put a new walk in front of the Presbyterian Church. Messrs. N. S. Foreman and A. O. Donovan do the work for nothing.

—Mr. Jackson, Street Commissioner, has commenced work on the roads, and it is hoped that the citizens will step up promptly and work out their taxes, or send on good men to do it for them.

—Trotting for bass is now the favorite evening pass-time, on the beautiful sheet of water between Swing island and Dustin riffle. In company with Walt Adams we hauled in four nice ones last evening in about an hour.

—The legislature adjourned sine die last Friday noon. Representative Wheeler has returned home, but we have not met him or had any talk with him yet, but presume he is glad to get through. He returns with a clear conscience and clean record. Hope he will call upon us when in town.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. May and Mrs. Dr. Blaine, left for Cincinnati this morning, to be present at the great Saengerfest, which commences to-day. They will without doubt be amply repaid for the trip, and we hope they may have a pleasant time.

—Having sawed up all the logs in the boom the May & Kelly mill has shut down. Knox's mill finished up yesterday, we believe. What a pity these mills could not be kept in stock during the entire summer, as they furnish work, indirectly, for thirty or forty men.

—We notice by a Greenville, Pa., correspondence in the Pittsburgh Leader, that Prof. Dolph Weber and Miss Sadie E. Cook were joined in matrimony, on the 31st, ult. Dolph's friends in this section will be agreeably surprised to hear of this important event, and will wish him and his much happiness.

—Will Clark, of Tidioute, came down on a little insurance business last Thursday, and missing the train, was obliged to stay all night, but he made enough out of a little transaction to fully cover all extra expenses and have a little left. He paid Charlie Congdon two dollars for an American dollar dated 1798, for which he expects to get two hundred dollars from a party in New York, who has been advertising for a piece of this particular date. Of course Charlie didn't rue the bargain, nor nothing, after he learned the real value of the piece.

The Camp Meeting.

The committee appointed to locate the grounds for the Free Methodist Camp Meeting was here on Thursday last looking over the field. The gentlemen composing the committee were Messrs. Lewis Keister, D. B. Tobey and Rev. J. Barnhart. It was at first proposed to hold the meeting in the grove back of the Court House, but the ground there was found to be too steep, and they selected a spot back of Mr. Scott's residence, better known as the Wm. Dimond house above Race street. This will make a very pleasant place, it being a large grove, and well shaded. Rev. Jeremiah Barnhart has made arrangements whereby he can furnish the Rochester tents at a cost of but three or four dollars during the meeting. These tents can be had either 14 x 15 or 12 x 17, and those wishing them must send their orders to Rev. Barnhart at East Hickory, Pa., before the 25th of June. The Free Methodist brethren extend a cordial invitation to all who wish to tent with them, and assist them in their efforts to do good and make the meeting a success.

—A serious collision occurred on the D. A. V. & P. R. R. four miles above Warren, Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Passenger train No. 4 going north collided with a Buffalo & Southwestern freight on a sharp curve at the above place. Both trains were under full headway when they came together. The engines reared on end and fell over on their sides, and they, together with the baggage and smoking car and eight or ten empty freight cars are total wrecks. The fireman, Crean Coston, on the passenger, in attempting to jump from the engine was instantly killed, while engineer Skidmore attempting the same thing was seriously if not fatally injured. The express messenger, A. J. Julein, and newsboy C. Vanhorn, were badly injured. Among the injured passengers were Chas. St. John of Titusville, and Mr. Herrick of Ackleys, Pa. Other passengers, some eight or ten in number were also injured but will probably all survive. No one on the freight was hurt, the engineer and fireman having been warned in time to jump from the engine. This is the first accident of a serious nature that has occurred on this road since it has been running, and no doubt the cause of the accident will be thoroughly investigated.

—We wish to return thanks to the managers of the Buffalo Chautauqua Lake and Pittsburgh R'y Co., of which Mr. J. L. Butman is the Superintendent, for an invitation to the formal opening of their road, which event was celebrated last Saturday by a grand excursion over the road and a trip on Chautauqua Lake. We should like to have taken it in had we been able to spare the time. This road, which was formerly the Cross-Cut, has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is now in a most excellent condition. We wish to mention in this connection that Mr. W. S. Baldwin, formerly Superintendent for the Wood's Heirs, has been appointed General Passenger Agent for this road, with office at Buffalo, N. Y., a fact which his many friends in this place will be glad to learn. The Titusville Herald, in speaking of the excursion, pays Mr. B. this handsome compliment: "W. S. Baldwin, Esq., the courteous General Passenger Agent of Buffalo, N. Y., was the President of the day, and well he showed his great executive ability in the management of all the details. Everything went off smoothly as clock-work."

—One day last week while Mr. Kelly was visiting his Oldtown farm, his team which was hitched to a fence became frightened at some object, and quite a runaway took place. The horses tore loose from the fence and started down the creek at full speed, up-setting the hack and demolishing it and the harness some what; they finally freed themselves from the vehicle and ran a distance about two miles, being stopped when within a mile or so from town. During the excitement two other teams at work on the farm took fright and started but were soon stopped. In his efforts to catch one of the teams John Wyant stubbed his toe and fell, striking on his arm and spraining his wrist badly. We believe none of the horses were injured.

—Wanted, by Robinson & Bonner 20,000 pounds wool, for which the highest market price will be paid. Goods sold at the lowest possible cash price.

—A letter written on a postal card came into our possession the other day, which is a curiosity. The writer starts out as any good wife ought to, but before she winds up her blood seems to curdle at the thought of his fickleness, and "lams" him in the following manner. We suppress the names: Dear husband I thought that I would write you a few lines to let you know that I can't forget you if you can't me. Well ——— I had a letter from your place and they told me that you was going to get married to ——— I suppose you think that if you can get in the ——— family you will be up in the World I wish to God it had been in that family in the first place instid of in the ——— family it would have ben a Gods blessing to me if it had ben I dont care so much for myself as I do for the ——— and dead husband I who was a man and not a thing but ——— I just dare you to get married and dont you forget it —The Howe murder, near Pioneer, of which we made mention last week, still remains a mystery, and there has been a great deal of speculation as to who perpetrated the dastardly crime. Some of the facts growing out of the investigation seem to point suspiciously toward some of the domestics and members of the murdered man's own family. Nothing definite, however, has yet been learned, and the authorities are earnestly engaged in ferreting out the guilty parties.

—Mr. Robert Hays, of Stewart's Run, Pa., died on Thursday last, and was buried on Saturday. His disease was consumption, with which he lingered at the point of death for several months: his sufferings are said to have been very great. He was about 28 years of age, and he leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

—Hon. Jas. B. Neale, of the Kittanning Free Press, has received the Republican nomination for President Judge of Armstrong County. We congratulate Mr. Neale upon this evidence of his popularity, and the appreciation of his sterling worth a legal abilities by the Republican voters of Armstrong, and bespeak for him a rousing majority in November.

—Pete Berry, Web Clark, Ben. Caldwell, Davy Hilands, and a Mr. Griffin of Fagundas, returned on Monday from a trouting expedition up in Jenks towaship. They didn't catch many trout, but say there was no end to the fun they had. They ran short of provisions, etc.,—principally ecteters—else they would have stayed a day or two longer.

—The frost on Friday night last, we understand, was not as severe as at first supposed. Potatoes through the country were quite severely nipped, but the fruit and other crops sustained comparatively little if any damage. Older inhabitants tell us that it was just 21 years ago last Friday night that the memorable frost occurred in this section.

—Mr. Fred. C. Laey, of Galenza Mills, Forest County, and Miss Lillian Klire, of Philadelphia, were married in the latter place on May 29th, 1879. Mr. Laey and his accomplished lady will receive the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends upon this happy event. May they ever be prosperous and abundantly happy.

—Some petty thieving has been going on at Judge Proper's farm on the Hill. A couple of coats, a vest, and other articles, which were left hanging on the porch of the house by some of the laborers, were recently taken. A careful watch is now being kept, and if caught the thieves will receive their just deserts.

—Col. L. F. Watson of Warren, L. R. Freeman Esq., of Franklin, and our townsman E. L. Davis Esq., left for the headwaters of Salmon, Monday evening, for a few day's fish. Davy Hilands went along to guide the party, and keep it in the straight and narrow path. If they don't have a good time it will be their own fault.

—Curling Irons and Hair Crimpers left in the shade by the U. S. Hair Curling Compound. This compound is a beautiful hair dressing and will curl the hair as soon as applied. Sold only by the U. S. Compound Co., Box 43 Litchfield, Illinois.

—The preliminary survey of the projected extension of the E. S. & C. and F. St. P. & C. railroads from Shippenville to Bradford, was completed last week. The new road will be known as the Foxburg, Kane & Bradford Railroad. The distance from Shippenville is about sixty miles. The engineers have found a route of easy grade, and one that can be built cheaply. Chief Engineer, B. E. Cutler, is now in Foxburg preparing the report of the same. The Directors will meet this week, when they will be likely to conclude on some definite action. We have good reason to believe that the road will be built without delay.—Clarion Republican, —Mr. H. Morris, the popular Tailor, will be in Tionesta on June 19th, with a full line of new samples. All those in want of suits for the 4th of July will do well to wait. Goods made lower than any Tailor in the State, and satisfaction guaranteed.

Whig Hill Letter. As I promised, I will now in fulfillment of the same, give you an account of the "fishing excursion" from this place last week.

On Monday morning the party consisting of Messrs. Frank, Ed. and Will. Gillespie, with Fred. Grove, started for the branch of Salmon creek, taking provisions with them to last a week.

On Wednesday the party was joined by Hons. "Cameron" and "Wallace" with Mr. R. Z. Gillespie and your correspondent. We found the boys all alive and camping at Gillespie's shanty, in Howe Twp., about one mile from Thos. Porter's residence, in a branch of Blue Jay run. Frank and Ed. Gillespie on that day (Wednesday) caught 205 trout in Blue Jay, with the number caught the two days previous making in all 550 caught by them. Somewhere in Blue Jay they heard several wolves snarling in the bushes near the run, but having no firearms did not try to drive them away or rout them.

On Thursday the party was further swelled by the arrival of Mr. C. F. Gillespie and Rev. J. Weikal, who remained until Saturday morning, and then started for home.

On Friday morning the party started to "fish down" the branch of Salmon to the mouth of Salmon creek, catching about 625 trout, quitting about five o'clock, and then making preparations for the night in the woods. On Saturday we finished up and upon counting "our fish" we found that we had lifted but a few more than 1,500 of the "denizens of the brook," making in all, when dressed, between forty-five and forty-eight pounds. Rev. Weikal took his "spoils" with him to his home, near Greenville, Mercer Co., Pa. Frank and Ed. came off the champions of the excursion.

Taking it all in and it was the pleasantest excursion that your humble servant ever participated in, and was highly enjoyed by all of the party. Lovers of the beauty in nature ought to, by all means, visit the extensive forests in Howe Twp., which are the most strikingly beautiful that I have ever saw. The tall, beautiful beech trees, with birch and cherry, with their fresh green foliage contrasting with the dark verdure of the hemlock, has a truly sublime and inspiring effect which words cannot describe and must be seen to be comprehended and enjoyed.

Mr. Thos. Porter, who lives in the section, is compelled to travel a distance of nineteen miles to the polls or for any township business. He told us that the township of Howe was about twenty four miles long, eight miles wide, and contains but four tracts of seated lands.

More anon. W. A. W.

Dutch Hill Notes. DUTCH HILL, June 7, 1879.

The farmers of this section, it would seem, were a little premature in planting corn etc., as many of them have been obliged to replant. Nevertheless crops, generally speaking look promising.

has on hand a large lot of Indian Blood-Root Pills, which he offers to sell 25 per cent. cheaper than any other establishment in Forest county. Should any of our citizens feel the need of anything in his line, they will confer a favor by calling on or addressing him at Star P. O.

Work on the roads has begun, and in the near future we expect to have our thoroughfares in better condition.

Considerable hail fell here last Thursday, but as far as we can learn no serious damage was done. Some trees and several rods of fence were blown down by the wind.

Andy Weller informs us that he and his boys have caught 1800 trout this season. Andy is a first-class trout-fisher.

Mr. H. Teiker, of Ogle, Butler Co., Pa., formerly of this place, is visiting his numerous friends on the Hill. He is looking well and hearty.

Have heard of but one rattle snake being killed this season.

Our Sunday School is very well attended, yet there are those who absent themselves who should attend, and by their influence and example aid in the good work. The parents, in particular should always be there, and we hope to note a better attendance on their part in the near future.
