The democratic fight over the finance question is serious. They find the soft money ground untenable, and are yet unable to take the conservative Republican ground against agitation. Of course they displease their greenback allies, and the greenback organ here makes a savage ouslaught upon democratic management, cutting oose entirely from it, and striking out independently for 1880.

THE Indiana Times has this to say of Jas. Mosgrove, the champion of the Greenback cause in this Congressional district last year, which proves what we were wont to have our people believe then, that Mr. M. was a Democrat in disguise, and that he was running in the interest of that party: "James Mosgrove, late Greenback With Mr. J. M. S. Quay, Chairman of the State Republican Committee, has issued the call for the State Convention as of your consideration, therefore I ask follows:

"The Republicans of Pennsylvania, and all others in favor of honest currency and the faithful discharge of National obligations, and opposed to communism and the restoration to power in the National Government of the influences which procured the rebellion of 1861, are requested to send delegates, apportioned accordingly to their representation in the Legislature, to a convention to meet at Harrisburg, to nominate a candiate for State Treasurer, and transact such other them. It is important to the success of the Republican party in this county that harmony should be preserved in the ranks, and that the organization should be cemented by the good feeling of the defeated candidates and their friends would do more to bring about this Republican voters-and none othersat the polls on the coming primary election. Therefore, let it be under stood by all that none but Republicans will be allowed to cast a ballot next Saturday, which is in accordance with the party rules laid down and published heretofore.
