LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

No Paper Next Week.

Next week is our week off. We want to celebrate a little on the Fourth; take in the glass ball shoot; bag a few woodcock on the opening of the season; attend the dance in the evening; play ball at Tylersburg on Saturday; take in the camp meeting next week, and attend to several other things, too numerous to mention.
Notwithstanding all this, however, we will be right on hand ready to meet all our friends and patrons who may favor us with a call. Should any one happen around anxious to leave some money for the benefit of the poor, and find us out, they can shove it through the broken window of our office door, but will please not pile it in so thick that we can't get the door open. Our readers will now have a rest until the 16th of July, the date of our next paper.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Where are you going to celebrate the Fourth?

—June-berries are plentiful and almost a drug on the market.

—The days are growing shorter again, but as yet the difference is impreceptible.

—Miss Cora Wallace of East Brady, Pa., niece of Mrs. Derickson, is paying her a pleasant visit.

—The wife of Congressman Dick, of the Meadville District, died at her residence on Sunday morning.

—Sorry to say that a tip-top news letter from Stewarts Run arrived too late for insertion. Write again,
"Fax."

—Parties liable for school taxes in this borough can save 5 per cent. by paying the same before Sept. 1st, according to notices posted about town.

—Mr. Samuel Clark returned last week with his newly wedded bride, and has gone to house keeping in his building late occupied by Prof. Brockway.

—The stumps and trees along the Beaver Valley plank road, at Hickory, we understand, are being taken out, and the road being very much improved generally.

—Hon. N. P. Wheeler favored us with a pleasant call on Thursday last.
He was looking and feeling well. We are indebted to him for valuable documents left with us.

—The shooters of Pleasantville will be over on the Fourth, sure. Although our sports have had little or no practice for some time, they will probably take a hand in the shoot.

—The North warders are giving their sidewalks some attention of late.
Mr. Cobb has just finished a new walk in front of his residence, and the lot just above has recently been fronted by a new and substantial one.

—Senator J. W. Lee of Venango county, and Miss Laura Kinnear were last week united in matrimony. The entire oil region will wish Senator Lee and his bride abundance of happiness and prosperity.

—Mr. Carpenter, the veteran photographer, was in town last week looking over the ground, and preparing to do business here during the camp meeting. He will shortly remove to this place to remain permanently.

—Go to Jenks township if you want good wages for work. We are informed that they are paying 25 cents per hour for working on the roads up there. It would seem from this that the citizens of that township are not suffering much from hard times.

—Don't forget the dance at the Lawrence House on the evening of the Fourth. Arrangements are all completed for a most brilliant time.
Those wishing to attend who have not received invitations will be as welcome as the flowers of May.

—Monday of last week one of "Mr.
Isaac Russell's sons, Willie, aged about 12 years, was severely injured in attempting to jump on a loaded car, while under motion. His hold slipped and he fell under the car, and one of the wheels passed over his left arm, inflicting injuries which may yet necessitate amputation. Besides this one of the fingers of his right hand was taken off.

—On Thursday last Russell Brown of Trunkeyville, accompanied by Charlie Hill, came to town in search of a couple of chaps who had visited their spring houses and extracted therefrom several crocks of butter.
The thieves traveled by water, in a small canvass-covered boat, and were accompanied by a woman who claims to be the wife of one of them. Messrs.
Brown and Hill found the boat anchored in front of Mr. Craigs house, and when the thieves discovered their pursuers they weighed anchor, and crossing the river took to the hills, leaving the woman in the lurch.
A warrant was immediately issued and placed in Constable Hilands' hands, who searched the boat and found the missing butter crocks, some still containing butter. Upon further examination it was found that one or two crocks had been thrown in the river near where the boat had first landed.
A close watch was kept for the felons during the day and night, and Friday shortly after noon one of them was caught in the following manner while trying to make his escape down the railroad track: Geo. Albaugh shouldered his carpet bag and started down the river on the wagon road; after going about a mile he struck the railroad track and came back, while the constable walked down the track and chased the culprit into George's embrace, so to speak. He was brought back and lodged in jail to await a hearing next day. In the meantime Detective Hall, of P. T. & B. R. R., appeared and had the man arrested for burglarizing the depot at West Hickory. Quite a number of the stolen goods were found in his possession, and he afterward confessed to having aided in the burglary. He was brought before Squire Brennan on Saturday morning, and waiving a hearing, was bound over in the sum of $200 on the first charge, and $400 on the charge of burglary. He gives his name as Wm. Westen, and claims to be making a living by tight rope walking, but from the above facts it would seem different. He says his pal's name is Charles Stanford, whom it seems is the worst of the two, having, it is said, already served a term in the penitentiary. Westen now languishes in jail, while his wife still remains in town.

—The National of last week, after the very commonplace observation that "the glorious Fourth of July occurs on Friday next, and should be observed by all the American people as a National holiday"—true remark, but rather hackneyed—says: "We suggest that every friend of the National, and every earnest Greenbacker"— this would imply that there were greenbackers who are not friends of the National—"will spend a portion of the day in soliciting subscribers for our paper." This is ingenious advice; it modestly asks the patrons of that paper to turn news agents on the 4th of July. It is a remarkable suggestion, truly, and "takes the rag off the bush" in the way of increasing the circulation of a paper. Further on it says: "If every one who now takes the National will interest himself and get just one subscriber it will double our list." Wonderful mathematical calculation! vastly fine indeed! truly!
As good as the ancient case of the man who was knocked down in a row by a pole, when a consoling friend told him he ought to be thankful to Providence, for if the man who had wielded the pole had been twice as strong, and the pole twice as long, he would have been just twice as badly mashed as he was. Very astute article, that.

—The well on Selden Whitman's farm is still pounding away. We heard the other day that they had struck the sand, but have been unable to glean any particulars. Hope they may soon strike such a spouter as will throw the oil across the creek and "swamp" Mr. Kelley's Oldtown farm.

—The school board of Tionesta borough will meet on the first Monday in August next, for the purpose of taking into consideration applications of teachers for the borough schools. They have decided on having three schools.
Teachers who intend to apply should make a note of this.

—Prof. Monday was in town the other day, and we understand secured several scholars in music. He will, after the 4th inst., visit Tionesta every Friday and give instructions. The Professor says if there are any who desire it he can still accommodate a few more.

—There is a man in our jail called Ross Fitzgerald, who was some two months ago sent to prison by the justice of one of our townships. We think it a mistake. He remained in jail until about 3 weeks ago, and his father came and bailed him out and took him to his home in Clarion county. The charge on which he was committed was one of the minor criminal offenses,—viz: making threats against a man. The man was returned to jail by his father last week, as he was insane; and there has been no doubt of his insanity all the time; and such being the case it is wrong to keep him in jail, as we have humane institutions for such men, where they are treated in a manner befitting their demented condition. He should be removed to Dixmont,—for surely he cannot be convicted, as he appears to be incompetent to harbor any intent,— and the place where he belongs be adjudged to pay his expenses at the institution. P. S.—Since writing we are pleased to hear that proper steps are being taken in the matter.

—The strawberry and ice cream festival in progress at our last issue, was a decided success. The evenings were pleasant, and warmly suggestive of ice cream; the Committee ladies radiant and remarkably ready to hand out the viands to all who clinked down the cash, and Rev. Stone went home with fifty-five dollars more in his cash-box,—the net proceeds of the affair. The strawberries were Mr.
Hazeltine's own growth, at Warren, and through his influence the Committee were furnished with the cheapest and best berry of the season. The ice cream was managed by Mrs. T. J. Van Giesen and Mrs. T. B. Cobb, and was one of the richest treats of the occasion. Then there was the floral committee who decorated their stand a la mode, which was very interesting, especially when the ladies themselves were selling the fragrant and delicate bouquets. In short it was a success of the most successful kind; and many thanks are due the good citizens who patronized the affair so liberally.

—The woodcock season opens on the 4th of July. We see by the Forest and Stream that the York State legislature has shortened the season for these birds one month, taking off July. This is a commendable step, and one that should be followed by Pennsylvania. The 4th of July is too early to commence shooting woodcock, as the young birds are barely old enough at that time to hunt food for themselves, and the old ones, just getting through hatching are very poor, as every sportsman who has given the subject any attention well knows. It is scarcely a month since we saw a neat with the old bird still sitting on the eggs, and, surely, these young ones would not be fit to eat yet.
An effort should therefore be made to have the month of July taken off the season, and we hope the sportsmen of this State will take proper steps in this direction at the next sitting of the legislature. We would have more and better woodcock.

—The question whether liquor can legally be sold on election days—before and after the closing of the polls, has been carried to the Supreme Court and Judge Sharswood delivered the opinion of the Court that it could not, as the law declares that liquor shall not be sold on any day on which an election is held. The decision fixes the time when the sale of liquor is forbidden to include the whole twenty-four hours—from 12 o'clock in the morning until 12 o'clock at night on election day—and any sale of liquor during that time will make the seller liable to the penalties as provided in the Act of Assembly.
This is very important to hotel keepers. It settles the question beyond dispute and appeal.

—Geo. Huddleson congratulates himself that he is the boss fawn catcher of the season. He recently captured two, which are thriving nicely. They were asleep when he caught them, and he says if the deers do not wake up in his section he'll soon catch 'em all.
Geo. Haslet and Conrad Ikenburg also caught one last week, up on the headwaters of Queen.

—We are pleased to learn that our old time-honored friend, Papa Baldwin, of Tidioute, has concluded not to leave this country for the West, as he had contemplated a short time ago.
He has re-purchased his old stand, the gun store of Mr. Horace Jones, and will carry on the business as in days of yore. He has a large and well selected stock of all goods pertaining to the sporting line, and will be pleased to meet all his old customers who may call upon him. Just what point Mr.
Jones proposes to launch out for we have not learned, but wherever he may cast anchor may the prosper abundantly, as he deserves.

—Mr. J. H. Wentworth has reason to feel happy. He recently received his pension arrears, and was around last week squaring up with the world. Some time last winter he purchased the Vought farm on Tylersburg road, about 2 miles from this place, and the other day he got the deed thereof, removed from all incumbrances.
He now has a nice farm, near the scenes of his childhood, and we hope he may live many years to enjoy the benefits thereof.

—Judge Ross, of Norristown, Pa., has called the attention of Justices of the Peace to the new vagrant act, known as the Tramp law, which was approved April 13th, 1879, and goes into effect August 15th, 1879. The Judge said that, under his reading of the law, Justices would no longer have power to commit as vagrants, as they have been doing, but will be required to commit to jail for trial, leaving the final disposition of the case to the Court.

—On account of certain reasons I will, for the next 30 days, make the biggest reduction in custom clothing ever known in this country. Suits at former prices $25.00 now for $20.
Fine dress suits at $30, and all other goods in proportion. Call soon and get your suits made to order by Morris the Tailor, Oil City, Pa., opposite the Post Office.

Base Ball.
The Tylersburg club came in last Saturday, according to announcement, and played the C. O. D.'s of this place a match game on Dustin Island. The weather in the morning showed up unfavorably, and in the afternoon a drizzling rain set in which developed into hard showers, which kept up all afternoon, only ceasing at short intervals; but, notwithstanding this unfavorable weather, the boys had met to test their skill, and were bound to have it out, regardless of the storm.
The game was called about 1:30, and on account of having to stop for rain lasted three hours. During the first three or four innings it kept dry and the game progressed nicely, but after that it was disagreeable work, and the scores ran up much higher than they otherwise would. The ball became like a sponge, and a great deal of "muffing" was done on both sides.
