LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening. M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m.; and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—A young man named Charles M. Fox was drowned at Fair Point, Chautauqua Lake, yesterday.

—Mr. Kelly is inclosing his property with a new picket fence, adding much to the beauty of the same.

—Judging from the stained hands and mouths of some of the street urchins, butternuts must be "gittin' good."

—There will be Free Methodist preaching, by Rev. Garrison, in the Universalist Church this (Wednesday) evening.

—Mr. Geo. Morgan is engaged fencing the side-hill comboh, near the school house, and will put in a crop of some sort or other there this fall.

—Free Methodist camp meeting commences at Forestville, N. Y., today and will continue one week. Several from this county will attend.

—Miss Georgia Stow and Miss Clara Roberts, of Cincinnati, are enjoying a short season of recreation in Tionesta. They are the guests of Mr. May's family.

—The list of criminal causes set down for trial at the next session of our courts is unusually large for this county. Some important cases will be tried.

—The annual reunion of the 83d Reg., P. V., will be held at Greenville, Sept. 10. Veterans of other regiments in this vicinity will be invited to participate.

—The new tramp law takes effect next Friday, 15th inst. Our citizens are nearly all acquainted with it and can, if they wish, rid themselves of these nuisances.

—Bass fishing is said to be good at the rocks below the Dithridge dam. We noticed some gentlemen carry a fine string one day last week, which had been taken from there.

—The Messrs. Grove & Hart are home for a short time. They report business dull in the Bradford region, and whole rivers of oil running to waste for want of tankage.

—We hear rumors of a slight frost on the hills last Friday night, but can learn nothing definite, from which we judge there is nothing of it. 'Twas a pretty close shave however.

—Mrs. M. W. Tate and Mrs. T. J. Van Giesen are spending a few days at Chautauqua Lake. We believe they are the only representatives Tionesta has at the lake at present.

—Have you a talent for teaching? Improve by study at the State Normal School. The State aids teachers. Opens Aug. 19. Address, for circulars, J. A. Coper, Edinboro, Pa.

—The dance at Partridge's Hall last Friday evening, gotten up by the young men, was well attended and a complete social success. All who were present expressed themselves highly pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

—For Boots and Shoes go to Robinson & Bonner's. Men's strong shoes at $1.25 to $1.75; Men's good boots from $2.25 to $4.00. Ladies, Misses and Children's proportionately low.

—Pat. Joyce, having recently dug a cellar under his house, is now engaged walling the same up, and putting his house upon a solid foundation, so that "the winds may beat upon it" with very little or no effect.

—Zip. Guiton and some more of the boys, on Monday night, near the river bridge, speared a spoon sturgeon which measured five feet in length, and weighed 25 pounds. The largest fish that has been caught here for several years.

—The Auditors of Harmony township publish their Report in this issue. In doing so they not only comply with the law, but give non-resident land-owners and taxpayers a chance to see how the financial affairs of the township stand. An act which is commended and appreciated by all good citizens.

—From the Titusville Herald we learn that our former townsman, Mr. A. H. Steele, sailed for London England, last week. He goes to see James McHenry, on business connected with the Atlantic & Great Western Road. He is accompanied by Col. Roberts, of Titusville, who expects to introduce into Europe his new invention, the double-exhaust engine.

—We have nothing new to report regarding the Balltown well, except that they have erected a tank on this side of the creek, and are piping the oil across. The well is situated just below the breast of the old Balltown dam, and is less than 200 feet deep. It is not known to a certainty how much sand there is, as they didn't go through it, but stopped after drilling into it ten feet. It is of a very porous nature. The oil has been tried on the machinery at the well and found to go ahead of anything ever used by the parties in the way of a lubricator. Mr. D. W. Clark, who came from there on Monday evening, brought a sample of the oil with him, which can be seen at Mr. Davis' office. Also some of the sand. This oil will no doubt bring from six to eight dollars per barrel in market. Our readers will be furnished with additional facts as we learn them.

—In these days of tramps, vagabonds and outlaws one hears of some very low thefts and crimes, but the lowest, most contemptible and dastardly piece of felony that we have heard of for many a day comes from the vicinity of Newmansville. Last Saturday night some party or parties, who would disgrace the name of villain, tore away the corner stone of the Lutheran Church, situated about a mile beyond Newmansville, and stole the contents! They get a bible, some old manuscripts, perhaps a dollar or two in old coin, and a bottle of wine. These articles were placed there nearly thirty six years ago, according to the recollections of some of the older inhabitants. The good people of that neighborhood feel justly indignant, and are doing all in their power to bring the perpetrators to justice, and it is fervently hoped they will succeed.

—It is with pleasure that we direct the attention of our readers to the new advertisement in this issue of E. A. Baldwin, Esq., manufacturer of rifles, and dealer in sportsmen's goods of all descriptions. If there was ever a man whom we could conscientiously recommend to the public as one of strict integrity and fair dealing that man is Papa Baldwin, of Tidioute. He has lately re-purchased the business of that veteran gunsmith, Horace Jones, and will take pleasure in serving his friends in his usual urbane manner. He keeps everything that a first-class sportsman wants, and you can't go amiss if you call for anything in that line. Give him a call when in Tidioute, if for nothing else than to get acquainted and enjoy an hour's pleasant chat.

—Last Friday a slight accident occurred at Knoxes mill which might have been much more serious in its results. Geo. McManigal was standing near the "edger," and not knowing that it was running, he leaned back against the carriage, and his right arm came in contact with the saw, inflicting a gash about 3 inches long in the fleshy part of the fore-arm. Dr. Blaine dressed the wound, and George is nearly ready to go to work again. Shaking hands with a buzz-saw while in motion has never been successfully accomplished, and is always attended with damaging results, more or less. Don't try it again, George.

—The following in regard to our Presbyterian minister we find in an Irvineton correspondence to the Warren Ledger: "Rev. Elliot preached a very good discourse last Sabbath at the Sulpher Spring. His text was in Acts; 26 chap., and 16 verse. He handled the subject with evinced and profoundness." If the writer could hear Rev. Elliot every Sabbath he would find that whatever subject he chooses is handled in a like manner.

—In a conversation with Conductor Evans who had been talking of getting up an excursion from Oil City and intermediate points to Niagara, he said he had been unable to make satisfactory terms with the R. R. Co., they wanting more for the cars than he would be able to pay and give the people such rates as would insure a sufficient number of excursionists to make him safe. The company may be induced to come down some on their rates, and in such case the excursion may be expected to take place.

—From a Dutch Hill letter we cull the following: "It would please some of the folks at Star P. O., just as well if those men in Tionesta would discontinue the sending of greenback papers, as we only burn them. We haven't become so poor yet that we can't afford a good, sound Republican paper, and if you have any of these spare send them along. O. G.

Base Ball.

Last Saturday, as we intimated in our last issue, the Tylersburg boys came in to play the boys of this place the last of the series of games. The day was cool and delightful,—just right for playing base ball. The boys had an early dinner, and the game was called about one o'clock, with Tionesta at the bats. After three runs were made the side went out, and the Tylersburg boys went to the bats and scored five runs. The next inning was a white-wash for Tionesta, and four runs for Tylersburg. The third inning resulted in another goose egg for Tionesta, and nine tallies for Tylersburg, leaving them eighteen to three. The aspect was very gloomy for our boys at this stage, yet they didn't seem in the least disheartened, but played all the harder, and with better effect. The game took a turn at the beginning of the fourth inning, and our boys gained rapidly on their opponents from this on, but were too much behind to make up the loss. The last inning was wound up with a fine tripple play by Tionesta: D. E. Reyner knocked a liner to third base, which was nicely taken by Dick Davis, who touched his base and threw the ball to second—in mistake; it was taken and thrown to first, however, in time to put out the third man, and the game was ended. This play received deserved applause. On account of the absence of two of their principal men our home club were obliged to substitute two others, who had had very little practice; in fact, none of the club were in good trim, having had little or no practice since the last game with Tylersburg, which fact, in a great measure, caused their defeat. Mr. P. M. Clark acted as umpire, and while he made one or two mistakes, his decisions were fair and gave general satisfaction. The Tylersburg boys left in excellent spirits, and thanked our boys heartily for the hospitable manner in which they were treated while here. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen were down to witness the game. Following is the Score table showing runs, hits, and errors for Tionesta and Tylersburg across multiple innings.

EAST HICKORY, PA., Aug. 7, '79. News items with us are a scarcity, but perhaps a few words from this section will not come amiss to some of the numerous readers of your much esteemed sheet.

We, along with others, had, during the past two weeks, our share of rain, which has somewhat delayed harvesting.

We also note with pleasure that Mrs. Lewis Keister who was severely injured some time since, by being thrown from a buggy while en route for camp meeting in your town, is again enjoying her usual health.

Daniel Brecht, Andy and Adam Emert, are busily engaged clearing their new farms purchased recently from T. D. Collins. They are good farm sites, which, with the usual expenditure of time and money, can be converted into pleasant and desirable homesteads. You have done, and are doing well boys. We hope there are yet others who will, in the near future, go and do likewise.

Rev. Jerry Barnhart and Rev. O. A. Stone preach for us on alternate sabbaths; so that we have services every Sabbath. You see our spiritual wants are well supplied. Rev. McMichael will occupy the pulpit during Rev. Stone's absence, he having gone to Chautauqua to attend the Sunday School Assembly.

Since the consolidation of the Church Hill and Alabaugh schools has become a fixed fact, the directors have resolved to build a new house. It being a most lamentable fact that we have generally very poor buildings—poorly finished, and badly ventilated—I would respectfully advance to directors and patrons, a proposition that we build a house so furnished and equipped that it will be an honor to us, furnish it with patent seats, wall maps, books of reference, etc. Friends, the increase of comfort, and the pleasure your children will take in going to school will repay you doubly in a years time. I realize the fact through experience. We hear some one, who probably has never been inside one of our school houses, say, present accommodation are good enough. Kind friend, please step into the stocks and there remain an hour and a half; if at the end thereof you do not change your mind I am no judge of horseflesh. CAMEO.

Doctor Coburn,

I have just read your article in the National with satisfaction. Last fall I was a Greenbacker, but seeing the fallacy of their principles I extricated myself and returned to the Republican party. I did write to Mr. Davis, and as a Republican, I have a right to support Mr. Cook, a former student of mine, and a very efficient surveyor.

The prominent democrat is safe to wager money on my supporting him; as he is a very warm friend of mine and one whom I promised years ago to support if he ever became a candidate for any political office, and I will.

I ask you to give your proof of my promising to attend the Greenback primary. You also say in the article that I talked of running on the Greenback ticket for County Surveyor, which you know is a lie; for I told you in your own office, when asked to become a candidate for nomination for that office that I would not run for any office this year on any ticket. I told Mr. H. A. Zuendel and others the very same thing. I am not so hungry for office as you have shown yourself to be.

Now, Dr., last fall you told Mr. Elias Albaugh, Mr. Fulton and myself at Mr. Albaugh's that you would not be a candidate for nomination for any office to be filled on the Greenback ticket last fall. The very next day you got one of your friends to propose you as a candidate for Prothonotary &c., and got him to do his level best to have the Boro., and Twp., instruct for you—then tried to bulldoze the delegates to support you in convention, for being one of the delegates myself, I have a legitimate right to know this. You did not lie at Albaugh's did you?

At the last Greenback convention "ye editor" proposed that the party pay him for publishing Greenback speeches and when they refused he proposed to turn the National into a Democratic organ. Now, which of us is the political Benedict Arnold, I who individually leave the party, or you who try to sell their fortresses? You call me an "educated fool," which you can not boast of; you are the fool true enough, but certainly lack the education.

If I am too smart to live long, there is a hope of my dying; but the earth will be forever cursed with you, insensably lying, idiotic vagabond, if your assertion is true that smart people die young.

The gentlemanly editor makes a very moderate comparison between us, by saying that it would require 999 years in the bottomless pit, to cleanse me, along side of the 15 eternities, were that possible, fully exposed to all of the powers of Darkness combined, which would be required to singe the bristles off this animal sufficient to be seen with other animals of the same species.

You say I wish to become popular by shooting a hole through my hat. If that would make a man popular, you would have long since riddled your hat with bullets from top to bottom, advertised the same in 20 newspapers, and blowed it around among all the others in the State.

You also say that you will deal gently with me; I would advise you to "go in" and you will find me at your elbow. It is not a very pleasant affair for me to unearth your misdeeds and rob you of the little bit of jackass reputation that you have left. Yet if it becomes necessary, I can in a short time obtain from certain parties your history from the time they know of your first hen roost affair to the present time.
