

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR STATE TREASURER, Hon. SAMUEL BUTLER, of Chester County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, LEWIS ARNER. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, S. D. IRWIN, ESQ. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR, JACOB COOK, FOR CORONER, JOHN HUNTER.

Important to voters.

The next election held in Pennsylvania will be held on Tuesday, the 4th of November.

Voters must be assessed two months preceding the election, that is, on or before Thursday, September 4th.

Voters must have paid a State or County tax one month preceding the election, that is, on or before Saturday, October 4th.

Members of the County Committee should see to it that every voter of our party has complied with the law.

Failure to pay tax in season deprives the voter of the privilege of suffrage. An elector can swear in his vote, though he be not assessed, but the neglect may cause him much trouble.

THE Ohio campaign was formally opened yesterday by Secretaries Sherman and Schurz and Judge Taft, and from this time till the October election the fight will be red hot. Already it has ceased to be a question of victory and become only one of republican majorities.—Meadville Republican.

So great is the demand for American gold in England and France to send over to fill our gaping money bags, that the supply in France is already exhausted, future shipments of the precious metal must be in the form of bars and Napoleons. It does seem as if we were especially favored in our immense crops and the ready market for them. The United States is entering, or rather has already entered on a career of unexampled prosperity and we shall soon hear no complaints of want of work or scarcity of money.—Derriek.

COL. SNOWDEN, the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, in a recent speech before the Wholesale Grocers' Association, illustrated in a practical manner the difference between coin and paper as medium of exchange. He said:

"I had recently two pieces of money handed to me—one a Roman gold coin, nearly 2,000 years old, the other a Continental piece of money, nominally of the value of fifty-nine pounds, based upon the wealth of this nation. The latter note, signed by my great grandfather as Commissioner under Congress, representing the infancy of the grandest and most wealthy nation on earth, is literally worth nothing, preserved only as a curiosity. The former I threw into a crucible and subjected it to the white heat of the furnace, and it came out all aglow with value that time or fire could not efface, and with the stamp of any government upon it, it would still represent wealth, and be a true medium of exchange, or a basis of value upon which to rest the issues of promises to pay."

Our Washington Letter.

Special to the REPUBLICAN. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 21, '79. Prof Grever, of Howard University, goes North to-day by invitation to attend the Social Science Congress. The University in which the Professor is an honored teacher receives hardly the support it should from benevolent people in the North, but it is surely, though slowly, gaining strength, and gives promise of prominence among the educational institutions of the country. There should be and I doubt not will be a successful effort made in due time to give the colored men the same opportunities for improvement at this school that others have in other institutions. Something is being done. Much more should be done.

In the purchase of silver yesterday by the Government it appeared that the prices demanded were higher at San Francisco than in London, and all San Francisco bids were therefore declined. The cause of this is a great demand from China, to be supplied from California. Secretary Sherman said before leaving here the other day that he believed this condition of things would be permanent. It does not require the eye of a prophet to see that this is only an incident in the great change in the world's commerce. Westward the Star of the Empire takes its way.

Mr. Tilden, if his friends are to be believed, wishes to be the Democratic and "Reform" candidate for Governor of New York. If he wishes to be he will be, but the voters of the State will bury him under such an adverse vote as never was known before.

Secretary Evarts is wise in seeing that no haste is made in selecting a Minister to England. Such questions as those of the fisheries and the relations of silver to gold in the coinage of the world require the best ability we have. I doubt not that the right man will be sent.

They have now killed the man Dixon, in Yazoo County, Miss. Dixon was one of that original bull-dozer in that section, and his neighbors presented him with a watch and other tokens of gratitude for his success in extinguishing Republican voters. This year he attempted to head an "Independent" movement in Yazoo County, was himself bull-dozed, and retired from the canvass, but afterwards returned to it and was killed, as above stated. It may be said in this case that the man deserved all that he received, for it was what he had meted out to others. But what kind of civilization have they in solidly Democratic Yazoo County.

DE SOTO.

[As our readers are no doubt tired of the "war of words" between Mr. Whittekin and the editor of the National; as we can discover no good accruing from the debate to either of the parties concerned, and as their language is beginning to border somewhat on personalities, we deem it our duty to decline the publication of any more communications on the subject hereafter.—Ed.]

The King of Liars.

I have again the unpleasant duty of replying to the sorehead Benedict Arnold whose sin-ridden and lie-burdened conscience has, in its last struggles, led him to say that he doubts whether any G. B. Committeeman told me that he, Cuburn, proposed to turn the National into a democratic organ; and supposes that he told me so and so.

No, no, Doctor, he told me exactly what I published in the REPUBLICAN. You have not the hardihood to say that you did not.

In the last National but one, Cuburn says, "we have learned that he, Whittekin, is so ignorant that he cannot get a certificate in Venango Co."

In the last National he flatly denies the assertion and says I cannot get one on account of my moral character. When I proved you a liar in the first instance you dodge off on a second track where you think I can not catch you; but just wait a short time, Doctor.

Notwithstanding Mr. Voughts card to your readers and his offer to swear to the same, I never said that I had a strong desire to run for Co. Surveyor, and if the gentleman has any memory (no personality or injury toward Mr. Vought) he will recall that I told you I would not have it and did not want it as there was nothing in the office, when asked by yourself to announce my name for nomination.

I will be qualified to the above statement whenever required.

Mr. H. A. Zuendel asked me on the Fourth day of July whether I would be at the primary on the next day. I gave him no answer, and when asked the second time I told him I might if I were at home. As I was not at home on the 5th I did not break my word; neither did I promise to attend the primary.

In every instance where I promised prizes, except one, I can prove that I bestowed them on the last day of the term. At Hickory I left a term unfinished and I did not feel that I was bound to award a prize partially unmerited.

However, Doctor, you should not raise a point like that until you furnish the "Banner Township" with the $10 flag you promised.

Now, probably, the soreheaded Doctor liar will relish the following:

WHIG HILL, PA., Aug. 23, '79.

On Aug. 2, '79, F. F. Whittekin and I ate supper at Mr. James Henderson's, at Hickory. After supper I heard Mr. Whittekin offer to pay for our supper but Mr. Henderson would accept no pay. I will be qualified to the above at any time.

H. E. GILLESPIE.

WHIG HILL, PA., Aug. 23, '79.

On Sunday of the last M. E. Quarterly meeting, F. F. Whittekin and I ate dinner at Mr. Lewis Whitten's, at Hickory; after dinner I offered the gentleman Mr. Whitten, a dollar in silver, saying "for our diners". He would take nothing and after some further talk we left. I will make oath to the above.

W. S. GILLESPIE

I have eaten only these two meals at Hickory during an entire year, excepting dinner with Hon. N. P. Wheeler on the 28th of June, and that upon invitation of that gentleman. I was at the Republican primary at Hickory but did not vote nor attempt to as I can prove. I mention this to show the readers of the REPUBLICAN what an infernal liar Doctor Coburn is.

I had no idea old Payne charges so much for a diploma, but it was, probably on account of your advice that he did it. You probably did study three years at some work on "How to lie," for your proficiency in that is certainly good. I have known of several less than average idiots to complete the course as laid down in the curriculum of a good Medical Institute in less than three years and cost but $700.

But as you only have a skull filled with lies and disgraceful language, it would cost you more.

Now, Doctor, I never stopped and begged to be kept over night and then palm of quack medicines in the morning for my bill.

I can prove of meals that you never paid for, but that is beneath my dignity to speak of.

Doctor you have not the shadow of a character left, and your conscience no longer upbraids you for a lie, you are certainly to be pitied. If you had a soul you would sell that for the hope of an office and not refuse if asked for candidacy.

Doctor, you have in your own paper proven yourself a liar, I have proven you a liar, and your language has proven that you are the blackguard that all honest people call you and know you to be. The reason you are on earth is because the Devil has no cell so strong that you could not lie yourself out of.

I having proven you a liar, you having proven yourself a liar a disgraceful blackguard, and a vagabond beneath the dignity of the highwayman you so vociferously defend, an object of detestation, a liar of the vilest stamp, the King of liars who is incapable of telling a truth at any time or under any circumstances, is most certainly beneath my dignity, and until you can show up something that is worth refuting I bid you

Good-day.

F. F. WHITTEKIN.
