LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Have you heard the news from California? Likewise from Maine?

—See Holeman & Hopkins advertisement in to-days paper. They'll be here court week.

—Mrs. Elliot and little Sammy of Sagar Grove, Pa., spent last week in town visiting friends.

—Mrs. G. A. Hunt, of Bradford, has been the guest of 'Squire Brennan's family for several days past.

—Mrs. H. G. McKnight, of Oil City, is visiting her father's family, Mr. S. J. Campbell, at present.

—Mrs. S. W. McConnell of Steubenville, Ohio, is making Tiononeta a visit, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Clark.

—Court convenes one week from next Monday. It will probably be the busiest court held here for some years.

—Charlie Bonner and Frank Newell took in the Strattonville camp meeting last Sunday, and report it immense.

—Mr. Kelly's father and mother arrived in town on the seven o'clock train this morning. They will make him a few day's visit.

—The Millerstown Co., started the drill on the Hill farm Monday, and with no mishaps will finish in about ten days or two weeks.

—A game of ball between the Warren and Bradford clubs yesterday for $300 a side, resulted in a victory for Bradford by a score of 16 to 6.

—Genesee Valley Clawson Seed Wheat for sale at Oiltown. Samples of this wheat can be seen at the Bank, Tiononeta, Pa. 23-3t.

—The boro council had a meeting on Monday night. Among other business they passed an ordinance prohibiting the throwing or playing of ball on the streets.

—A press of advertising this week crowds out our usual amount of reading matter. After court week we'll not be so crowded and will try and make up the deficiency.

—The place to learn to teach is at the State Normal School, three hundred earnest students now in attendance. For circulars address, J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Pa.

—Mr. John Kinnear of Truakville has the contract for putting down Geo. Hunter's new well. They had a break-down one day last week which put them back several days.

—The next thing in order now is to pay your taxes if you expect to vote in Nov. The day for registering may have past with some of you, but don't let the tax-paying business slip your memory, or you will lose your vote sure.

—Will Hulings, who has spent the summer in Ogallala, Nebraska, arrived home last Thursday morning, looking hale and hearty. He is much pleased with the country, and expects to return either this fall or in the spring.

—Mr. Adams having completed his contract of manufacturing staves for Messrs. Derickson & Co., the firm let the contract to Mr. Geo. Scott, who was the lowest bidder. Mr. S. is now running the mill, and sawing up the bolts as fast as they can be had.

—Whig Hill and Dutch Hill had a match game of base ball on Saturday last, but were obliged to quit at after 7 innings had been played on account of darkness. The score stood 118 to 70 in favor of the former. It is thought that if it hadn't got dark the boys would have bankrupted themselves wearing out shoe leather.

—Quite a runaway took place on the river beach opposite town on Monday last. Two gentlemen drove down the hill with a single top buggy, and for some reason or other,—no doubt to save 15 cents toll—undertook to cross at the "fording," a short distance below the bridge. Just as they had got fairly started into the water, their horse took fright and began to rear and kick, and turned back for the shore on the run. After running up the beach some distance the buggy was up-set, throwing its occupants out and tearing off the top. The horse was finally caught, after he had badly demolished the buggy. Neither of the men sustained any injury.

—From several parties we learn that pigeons have been seen in quite large flocks in different parts of the county. They have been seen in the beech woods within the past two weeks, and a man who is shantying near the old roost on Little Tiononeta, has seen several large flocks in that neighborhood. That pigeons will be here this fall there is no doubt, but in what quantity remains yet to be seen.

—One of the most welcome visitors to our office is the Lancaster Intelligencer. It has just entered its sixteenth year of existence, and celebrated the event by a new dress and other typographical improvements. Although Democratic in politics it is nevertheless conducted with great ability. We wish it abundant success in everything but its confounded politics.

—A valuable cow belonging to J. E. Hood was found in the river last Friday unable to get up. Upon examination it was found that she had been shot with a ball through one of her hind feet, so crippling her that she had to be killed. It is supposed to have been the work of some malicious miscreants, and such being the case an effort will be made to bring the perpetrators to justice. Such hellishness should meet with the severest punishment.

—"Hump" Stewart, of Oil City, who was tried at Franklin last week for committing a rape on a young lady named Ray, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Judge Taylor pronounced several other pretty heavy sentences on criminals, but none too heavy when the evidence brought out at the trials is taken into consideration. A few more such examples will have a tendency to put a check to some of the hideous depredations of which we daily read about in the papers.

—A correspondent of the Titusville Herald writes quite a lengthy letter from Tiononeta to that paper, and among the items we find the following: "The editor of the REPUBLICAN refused a fat political appointment in Washington, so at least the rumor goes." Dame Rumor, we fear, is not well acquainted with the editor of the REPUBLICAN, else she would never have said he refused. It is the first intimation we have ever had that a fat, or even a very lean, hank, position awaited us at Washington, and if such be the case we must look it up instantly. Let no man offer us a position or anything else with the hope that we will refuse.

—Report of Plank Road School, East Hickory, Forest Co., for the term ending Sept. 8, 1879: Whole number enrolled 52; males 22, females 30. Per cent. of males 82, females 82. Those present every day during term are Louie and Nellie Henderson, Annie and Effie Siggins, John and Effie Taft, Lester Bowman, Wm. E. Witherell, and Robert Hillard. Besides these already named, Mira, Alfred, and Lucy Anderson, Aona Taft, Leona Bowman, Rilla Ball, Myrtle Hall, Mary Koister, Herbert and D. Green, and Plummer Siggins were present every day during the last month.

MARY PAUP, Teacher. Cochranton Fair.

The fair to be held at Cochranton, Pa., September 16th, 17th and 18th, by the French Creek Valley Agricultural Society, promises to be one of the largest of the season. The officers take great pride in trying to make everything pleasant for their visitors and exhibitors. May their third annual fair be a grand success, is the wish of all, and the reputation gained by this society heretofore justifies us in the prediction that it will be a success in every respect. All who attend will be delighted. None should miss the Baby Show the second day of the fair. Go and see the sights and get your dinner at the dining hall on the grounds.

Lecture.

Hon. S. C. T. Dodd, of Franklin, Pa., will lecture at the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, Sept. 22d, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church of Tiononeta. Subject: "A Summer Across the Sea." Mr. Dodd is an interesting, able and instructive lecturer, whom all will hear with pleasure and delight. This lecture has been highly spoken of by the people and the press in other sections of this country where it has been delivered.

A Republican Mass-Meeting Will be held in Tiononeta during Court Week. Further announcement in our next.

Score Another for Tiononeta.

Last Saturday our boys went to Tylersburg to have one more hitch with the ballists of that place. They arrived in good time, had a good dinner at the Weber House, and the game commenced about two o'clock, with Tiononeta at the bat. We understand the best of feeling characterized the game, and a good deal of interest was felt by outsiders. As will be seen by the score our boys came off victorious, over which they felt duly elated, and returned home with heads erect and colors flying.

For fear of creating any ill feeling on either side we will refrain from making any comments. Suffice to say neither club played worth a continental. Following is the Score: TIONONETA vs TYLERSBURG. Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. Tiononeta: 8 2 1 0 0 11 9-25. Tylersburg: 4 2 1 0 0 11 9-21.

Another game was arranged for tomorrow, (Thursday) but the Tylersburg boys sent in word that they couldn't come on that day, so our boys have sent them an invitation to come Friday. Whether they will be in or not we cannot say at present writing.

—We have just received the Los Cerrillos Prospector, a small but gritty paper published at Carbonateville, Santa Fe Co., New Mexico, in the new and prosperous mining district of Los Cerrillos. In it we find the following, which will interest many of our readers who were acquainted with Mr. Sam. Bonner:

The following is from the FOREST REPUBLICAN, an enterprising sheet published at Tiononeta, Penn:

"From a private letter from our young friend and former townsman, Sam Bonner we learn that he is located at a mining camp called Los Cerrillos, about 25 miles from Santa Fe, New Mexico. He writes that he, in company with half a dozen young men, are developing some mines there which promise a rich thing. He confidently thinks that $200,000 is a reasonable estimate of what their interests will be worth to them when they once get thoroughly under operation. Shake, Sam, may you fully realize your fondest hopes."

And they shake, discovering valuable leads every day—they are practically demonstrating the advantages of association when compared with insulated individualism; within which, most of the miners sadly labor. Let us hope that the rest, in or out of this mineral district, will study the advantages of socialism (at least as regards business and money making concerns,) and following the salutary example set out by the St. Louis and the Essex companies, will form new co-operative unions.—"Harmless popular association is the main force in modern civilization." An association of four persons are apt to accomplish more in ten years of harmonious labor, than eight isolated individuals will do in a long life-time toil; a truth repeatedly demonstrated. Will the FOREST REPUBLICAN, advise every young man out of employment in Tiononeta, to come together, and organizing an association, start for Los Cerrillos? The inclemency of Winter's weather, unknown here. Richest mines probably not discovered.

[The St. Louis company spoken of in the above is the one in which Mr. Bonner is interested.—ED. REPUBLICAN.]

OBITUARY.

DIED, at Howarth's Corners, Venango Co., Pa., Aug. 28th, 1879, Ira Copeland, in the 78th year of his age. Thus it is said of one of our old and respected Pioneers.

He came on foot from the State of Vermont with his father in 1819; settled on Stewart's Run and married Lydia Thompson in 1832. They raised a family of 11 children, 8 of whom survive him, and attended his funeral. His first house was built in the primitive style, as saw mills were scarce, and a shingle mill unknown. His neighbors were John Jones, Jos. Allender, Jos. H. Dawson and Rob't Green. Mr. Green is the only one now living, and he is now quite feeble. Uncle Ira was the most active man we ever knew of his age. One year ago he could lay out the frame of a barn; could climb to the top of a roof and do a good day's work. Although nearly 80 years old his mind was clear and unclouded. His usefulness can be seen all over this section by the many barns he built; you see them on nearly every farm, and the Wesleyan church would not have been built but for his labor and influence. In politics he took no active part, but quietly voted as he thought was right. During his illness he bore it with christian patience, not longing to be released, not repining over his affliction, but he showed what a firm faith in God could do for him in the hour of affliction. Uniting with the Wesleyans when the first society was organized here he lived a consistent member to his death. His life was one of every day piety—not Sabbath on the mountain and all week in the valley, but honest, simple and devoid of all outward boasting—an honor to the church and an ornament to the community.

His companion Aunt Lydia, now feeble, who for 47 years shared with him the joys and sorrows of life, feels lonely, but looks forward to that glad day when they will meet on the other shore.

To Pensioners.

Delay makes success more difficult to attainment. The particular attention of claimants for pension, whose applications have not yet been filed in the Pension Office, is called to the fact, that under the Act of Congress approved January 25, 1879, pensions will commence from the date of the discharge or death of a soldier; but only a few short months are allowed claimants in which to avail themselves of the benefits of said law, and failing to file their applications within the prescribed period, pension can only commence from the date of filing the application. The importance to this class of at once completing their claims is apparent, as Congress may at the next session lessen the period within which claimants may avail themselves of the pecuniary benefits of said law. Under the law above referred to, a soldier discharged in 1863, and who should be rated in 1879 at $8 a month, would draw about $1,500 at first payment; but if he allow the limited prescribed time to pass by without filing his claim he loses that amount. Do not delay, and your case shall receive prompt and thorough attention at my hands.

Very respectfully, J. B. AGNEW.
