LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Elliot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening.
M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Huskin' bees and pumpkin pies will soon be in order.

—Pay your State and county taxes before next Saturday, Oct. 4, or you will lose your vote.

—Mr. A. A. Hulings, formerly of the Emlenton Register, and son of Marcus Hulings of Kinross fame, spent a day in town last week.

—The Courtney-Hanlan race at Chautauqua has been postponed until October 16th. Both are at the Lake now, training for the race.

—Wm. Steiner, of Tylersburg, got caught in the horse-power of a threshing machine, on Monday last, and had his right leg broken just above the ankle.

—Jas. Swales has purchased the house near the site of the old stove mill, below the Lawrence House, and will shortly begin fixing it up, and move in.

—Hon. N. P. Wheeler will please accept our thanks for a copy of the pamphlet laws passed at last winter's session of the legislature, also other valuable pub. docs.

—Mrs. Walters, who has had charge of the primary department of our school, is suffering with a severe attack of typhoid fever. Her school is being taught by Mrs. T. B. Cobb.

—Mr. Chas. M. Cott, who spent a week or ten days here recently, writes an interesting letter to the Columbus, Ohio, Daily Dispatch, giving an account of his sojourn in the wilds of Forest county.

—Jimmy Davis is rapidly recovering from his severe injuries received by falling from a chestnut tree last week, and is able to be out. His left ear, however, is of no use to him now, except as an ornament.

—Hereafter, under a new law passed at the last session of the legislature, sheriff's inquisitions will be composed of only six men, instead of twelve, and the same will be the case on writs of partition of real estate.

—The many friends of Rev. J. Barnhart, Free Methodist, will be glad to learn that he has been re-appointed to this circuit, which comprises the charges of Tionesta, Hickory, Panther Rock and Red Brush.

—The season of county fairs is at its highest, and our neighboring counties are putting forth their greatest efforts to out rival one another in popularity. We hope before many years to see Forest county have its annual Fair.

—Quite a number of prominent lawyers were in town last week. Among them were Hons. J. H. Osmer and S. C. T. Dodd, of Franklin; Lieut. Governor Stone; Maj. Reid of Clarion; S. T. Neill, of Titusville, and Judge Johnston, of Warren.

—The deer and pheasant season opens to-day. The latter species of game is not so plenty as in former years, owing to the severe winter and the destructive fires last spring, yet a reasonable number can be bagged by a reasonably good hunter in a reasonable length of time, we guess.

—Free Methodist Quarterly meeting will be held in this place commencing Friday evening, 3d inst., and continuing over Sunday. Rev. Hawkins, assisted by other able ministers, will conduct the services, and all are cordially invited to attend.

—Geo. Hunter's new well was finished on Saturday, but up to the present it has not been tested. We did not learn the exact depth, but think it is something like 400 feet. George thinks the well will be a paying one.

—A subscription paper was circulating in town last week to assist the citizens of Whig Hill to build their new M. E. Church, to which our citizens subscribed quite liberally. The work will be commenced immediately, and be finished in a short time.

—By posters printed at this office we notice that Mr. Jas. Gillfillen of Nebraska, this county, will sell his household goods, etc., preparatory to leaving this county in a short time. Mr. G.'s many friends and neighbors will be sorry to learn of his intended departure from their midst, and will wish him and his family happiness and prosperity wherever they may settle.

—Sheriff Randall and Deputy Highlands departed on the 8:03 train, Monday evening, in charge of Westen and Sanford bound for the penitentiary. They were in good spirits when they left, and sang several songs for the edification of the large crowd which had gathered at the depot to see them off.

—We are indebted to many of our subscribers for the "substantial" manner in which they interviewed us during court week. Also for quite a number of new subscribers. We congratulate ourselves that we have as fine a lot of names on our list, when it comes to paying up, as any paper in the State. Accept our thanks, gentlemen.

—Mr. J. R. Chadrick, who has been at work in the Bradford oil fields for several months past, returned home for good on Saturday last. He reports work very scarce up there. He says if a man has a job of work to let out at living wages he gives it to a brother or cousin, and that second cousins stand no show whatever.

—Mr. J. W. Wafel is here delivering the portraits for which he took orders last month. We have examined some of his work, and from our knowledge would say that the portraits are, if anything, much finer than the samples he exhibited here while taking orders. That all will be suited we have not a particle of doubt.

—The second nine of this place went to Dutch Hill last Saturday and played that club a game of ball, defeating them by a score of 51 to 24. Our boys say if the Dutch Hill club had understood the rules of the game thoroughly, it would have given them a pretty "tight hussle." A return game will be played here a week from next Saturday.

—The match hunt next Saturday will be a "go," the sides having already been chosen, and all seem anxious for the time to come, each one expecting to bring in the largest count. We hear of several black squirrels having been seen lately, and the indications are that they are getting plentier every day. If the day is pleasant a good time may be expected.

—The Grand Jury was discharged last week before it had made the usual report of the public buildings &c. We understand, however, that the Foreman and several of the jurymen, expressed themselves well satisfied with the late improvements, such as the new roof, fence &c., and considered the money judiciously expended, and had they not been discharged so soon would have made a report accordingly.

—One day last week while out spearing, Bruce Crawford saw a pike which he avers by all that's good and great, was five feet long if it was an inch. He threw his spear and hit the fish, but, fearful that it would escape, he plunged in after it, thinking to jab the spear in farther, but was too late; the pike was too badly frightened at the terrible hole which Bruce made in the water, and disengaged itself from the spear, thus making good its escape. Bruce was obliged to crawl out and return home with the usual "fisherman's luck."

—Mr. Aaron Elliott, will, in the course of ten days or two weeks, remove from Newtown Mills, this county, to Weston Mills, Cataaugus county, N. Y., where he has secured a situation with Messrs. S. H. Cotton & Son, large contractors and builders. Mr. Elliott has for ten years held the position of head-sawyer on Wheeler & Dusenbury's mill, and has always given the best of satisfaction to his employers, and by his straightforward, honest, industrious and gentlemanly habits has made hosts of friends throughout our county who will regret to hear of his departure. He has repeatedly been elected to several offices in his township, and has discharged the duties thereof with fairness and the best of satisfaction to all parties. In his departure Forest county loses one her very best citizens, and the place in which he may locate will gain one of which it may well be proud. We hope Mr. Elliott will meet with that happiness and prosperity in his new home which his many excellent traits of character deserves.

—Twenty-eight persons graduated at the Normal School in June, all are now teaching and doing good work. For circulars of the school, address, J. A. Cooper, Bthnboro, Pa. 28 2t.

—It matters not the age of sufferers from colds, coughs, or croup, "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup is good for all alike. Price 25 cents. 1t.

—Last Saturday night about 10 o'clock, as Mr. John Mealy was starting for home, his horses, which he had left standing in front of the Lawrence House for a minute, took fright and ran away. There being no one on the street to stop them, they continued their flight up the creek until they reached the boat scaffold, about three miles from this place, where they were caught in the middle of the creek. When Mr. Mealy arrived and found there was no damage done he returned home a much relieved man. The horses passed several narrow and dangerous places on the road.

—The Republican meeting at the Court House last Wednesday evening was a success in every way. Chairman Davis called the meeting to order, and Mr. Peter Berry was elected President, and one or two gentlemen from each township elected vice presidents. Messrs. J. E. Hillard and F. F. Whittekin were elected secretaries. Mr. Berry after thanking the audience for the honor conferred upon him, introduced Hon. J. H. Osmer, who came forth amid rounds of applause and addressed the large audience which had assembled to hear him. He spoke over an hour and was listened to with profound interest by all present. While Mr. Osmer is not one of those loud, blustering stump speakers, yet he hits the nail square on the head every time, which, with the thinking men, has much more weight than the ranting and howling of the average political demagogue. He showed conclusively and to the satisfaction of any fair thinking man that the Republican party is and always has been the friend of the poor man, and cited many acts passed in his behalf; among them the free homestead law, whereby any citizen of the United States can provide himself with a farm of 160 acres of fine rich land, without money and without price; the pension act, and many others were named, which cannot be denied as being directly in the interest of the laboring classes. Altogether the meeting was an enthusiastic one, and the Republicans can congratulate themselves that it was not without its good effects.

Court Proceedings.

Following is the list of cases tried and disposed of at last week's term of Court:

T. J. VanGiesen vs. J. M. Kepler; Judgment for plaintiff for $17.50.
Thos. Irvine vs. W. C. Coburn; settled.

S. T. May vs. E. C. Dale; ejectment; verdict for plaintiff.
Thos. Rutter & Co. vs. J. H. Derickson; Judgment for plaintiff for $98.43.
Eli Berlin vs. John A. Stewart; settled.

COMMONWEALTH CASES.
Commonwealth vs. Wm. Guiton; not guilty. The watch which Guiton is alleged to have stolen, was returned to John Crellin, prosecutor in the case, the Court believing it to be his property.
Com. vs. Wm. Felton; assault and battery; on oath of Bernard Bush; sentenced to pay the enormous sum of six and one-fourth cents, and costs.

Com. vs. G. W. Dithridge; false pretence; nol. pro.
Com. vs. S. Metzgar; rape; nol. pro.
Com. vs. J. Berlin; larceny; defendant held in his own recognizance to appear at next term of court.
Com. vs. Wm. Westen and Rob't Stanford; larceny; true bill, but not tried; Russell Brown prosecutor.

Com. vs. Wm. Westen and Rob't Stanford; burglarizing the Railroad Depot at Hickory; guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, costs of prosecution, and undergo an imprisonment in Western Penitentiary, at labor, for a term of two years and eight months each.

In the Hickory township school case, the School District was ordered to pay the costs.
Samuel Campbell was appointed Tipstaff of the Court, at a compensation of $2.00 per day.

D. I. Ball Esq., of Warren, Pa., was admitted to practice in the several courts of this county.
The Grand Jury made returns of several roads throughout the county, but we were not furnished a report of their proceedings.

Forty-five petit and seventeen grand jurors answered to their names.

—A swindle is being practiced on farmers in certain localities as follows. A sleek fellow calls at a farm house for dinner, and on paying for it asks the host to sign a receipt—so he can show his employers what the expenses have been. The receipt is prepared in such a way that the signature is made on a paper underneath the thin paper on which it is written, and the lower sheet of paper is a note for a hundred dollars or some such matter, which the swindler sells before he gets out of the neighborhood, and thus a piece of thin transfer paper, and that principle of law which holds the innocent purchaser harmless, are used to deceive very successfully. Farmers should sign nothing presented to them by a stranger.

—The time of year has arrived in which the sportsman most delights. A few more days will usher in the season for grouse and deer shooting, and those fond of the sport look forward to the coming day with the fondest anticipations of enjoyment. The gun and keen scented setter, long idle and useless, will now be brought into requisition, the one to find and the other to slay the fleet-winged pheasant and the timid deer. To the expert gunner this season is of all seasons the most glorious and charming, as it leads to the woods, the fields and the thicket, and gives opportunity for indulging the desires of his heart restrained during the non-hunting months. To him the woods are a place of delight; he loves its rugged paths, its rippling brooks, its beautiful variegated foliage decked in autumnal grandeur. From early morn till sunset he will plod miles and miles with no companion but his trusty dog in pursuit of game. Take the fleeting pheasant in its winged flight and strike it dead in mid air, or with well-directed rifle ball stop the wild deer as it bounds through the forest. No exercise is so exciting or gives so much health and pleasure as that indulged in by the hunter. No sluggard either is ever a success at the sport, as it takes a man of energy and perseverance, possessing a fair knowledge of the gentle science of woodcraft to find and bag game in any quantity.—Derrick.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that by order of the Committee I will, on TUESDAY, October (21) Twenty-first, A. D. 1879, at 11 o'clock, expose to sale and sell at public auction, at the Court House, in the City of Pittsburgh, all of the right, title, interest and claim of Alexander McClure and Wm. H. Ewing, bankrupts, in and to, and out of, all the following described property, with all the rights, powers and privileges thereto annexed, in all those certain parcels of land situate mainly in the township of Farmington, in the county of Clarion, and State of Pennsylvania, and partly in Forest county, in said State, surveyed by James Caldwell, in November, 1870, and described as follows:

Beginning on a line dividing Clarion and Forest counties, running thence east into Forest county ninety-nine and a half (99 1/2) perches to a post; thence south seventy-seven and eight-tenths (77 8/10) perches to a fallen hemlock; thence south thirty-five (35) degrees west one hundred and seventeen (147) perches to a hemlock; thence east sixteen and six-tenths (16 6/10) perches to a maple, now post; thence south thirty-four and a half (34 1/2) perches to a post; thence west eight and six-tenths (8 6/10) perches to a white pine; thence north thirty-four (34) perches to a white pine stump; thence north fifty (50) degrees west one hundred and six (106) perches to a hemlock; thence south fifty (50) degrees west seventy-three (73) perches to a white oak stump; thence south one hundred and twenty (120) perches to a white oak; thence west fifty-two (52) perches to a white oak; thence south fifty-two (52) perches to a post; thence west one hundred and forty-four (144) perches to a post; thence south fifty-two (52) perches to a post; thence west one hundred and twelve (112) perches to a white pine; thence north one hundred and twenty-eight and a half (128 1/2) perches to a post; thence east one hundred and twelve (112) perches to a post; thence north sixty-one and eight-tenths (61 8/10) perches to a beech stump; thence north seventy (70) degrees east one hundred and sixty-seven (167) perches to a post; thence north fifteen (15) degrees west one hundred and six-tenths (106 6/10) perches to a white oak, now post; thence north seventy-two (72) degrees east two hundred and two (202) perches to a fallen hemlock, in the place of beginning, containing fifty-one and thirty-eight and two-tenths (51 38 2/10) acres.

Also another tract of land situate in said township of Farmington, county of Clarion, described as follows: Beginning upon the said map at a white oak in the northwest angle and running thence east two hundred and ninety (290) perches to a white pine; thence south four (4) degrees east one hundred and ninety-six (196) perches to a service berry; thence south one hundred and thirty-nine (139) perches to a post; thence west fifty-six (56) perches to a white pine; thence south fourteen (14) degrees east one hundred and ninety-five (195) perches to a post; thence seventy-two (72) degrees west one hundred (100) perches to a white oak; thence north sixteen (16) degrees west one hundred and ten (110) perches to a pitch pine, thence south seventy (70) degrees west one hundred and ten (110) perches to a post; thence north fifty-eight (58) perches to a post; thence west one hundred and twenty-six (126) perches to a post; thence north thirty-nine (39) perches to a post; thence east seventy-four (74) perches to a maple; thence north one hundred (100) perches to a white pine; thence north fourteen (14) degrees east one hundred and thirty-five (135) perches to a white oak; thence north fifty (50) degrees west one hundred and seventeen (117) perches to a white oak; thence south forty (40) degrees west twenty-six (26) perches to a maple; thence north fifty (50) degrees west eighty-seven (87) perches to a white oak; thence north forty (40) degrees east ninety-two (92) perches to a white pine stump; thence north ten (10) degrees east sixty-one (61) perches to a white oak; thence south forty (40) degrees east one hundred and seventy-seven (177) perches to a post; thence north sixty (60) degrees east one hundred and five and a half (105 1/2) perches to a white oak, now post; thence north eighty-eight (88) perches to a post; thence east one hundred and two and one-tenth (102 1/10) perches to a white pine; thence north eighty-four (84) perches to the place of beginning. The above described tract of land contains one thousand three hundred and one and fourteen one-hundredths (1301 14/100) acres. See deeds recorded in Clarion, vol. O, 20, pages 230, 231 and 232, also vol. P, 25, pages 406, 407, 438 and 439.

Said interest being as per deeds on record as above, the one undivided half interest.
Terms of sale: One-third (1/3) cash the balance in equal installments in 6, 12 and 18 months, with 6 percent interest to be secured by 20 days time mortgages.
