LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening. M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 2 o'clock p. m.

—Shoot the man who predicted an early winter.

—Poor mother Earth is getting so dry that she's "spitting cotton."

—Mr. S. J. Wolcott of this place is putting down an oil well near Sugar Grove, Warren County, Pa.

—Will Clark of Tidoute quietly slid into town last evening, on insurance business.

—The woods are again being fired, and in several places throughout the county have burned over considerable territory.

—Geo. Hunter is having a new overshoot wheel built for his grist mill. The water is so low now that no grinding can be done.

—The thermometer on Monday afternoon ran up to 93° in the shade; but a few degrees less than the hottest days of July and August.

—Next Saturday will be lively on Dustin Island. Two games of base ball will be played there on that day; one between Tylersburg and the C. O. D's, and the other between Dutch Hill and the Second Nine of this place.

—Peach and plum trees are beginning to blossom once more. Mr. Sloan has a plum tree in his yard which is coming out in regular spring attire.

—The six day's walking match now going on in New York for the O'Leary belt, bids fair to become almost as interesting as the one just completed for the Astley belt.

—We received a marriage notice yesterday, and from the post mark on the envelope we see it is from Newmansville, Pa.

—The New Bethlehem Vindicator, a new paper published at New Bethlehem, Clarion Co., Pa., by Messrs. H. B. & H. L. Hastings.

—The river is lower at present than it has been for many years. Our oldest settlers say they have not seen it so low since their recollection.

—Yesterday morning a horse hitched to a buckboard, belonging to Messrs. Holeman & Hopkins, of Pleasantville, was left standing in front of the Central House.

—The following officers of Tionesta Lodge, I. O. of O. F., were elected for the ensuing term, and will be installed next Friday evening:

—Talk about your big apples, Mr. Dingman comes to the front with two of the largest we have yet heard of. One measures 14 1/2 inches, and weighs 18 ounces.

Saturday's Hunt.

The match hunt of which we spoke last week, came off on Saturday last, and was a success all round. True, there wasn't a great deal of game killed, yet very fair bags were made by nearly all.

—The weather remains so very dry that the wells, springs, small streams, and even the cows are going dry.

—The woods are again being fired, and in several places throughout the county have burned over considerable territory.

—Mr. Geo. M. Kepler, of the Millersburg Oil Co., had one of the members of that company here with him last week, looking over the field.

—Below will be found the appointments made by the Erie Conference for the Franklin District:

St. Petersburg—J. W. Crawford. Tidoute—J. M. Bray.

—Mr. Lewis Widmer started with his family for Nebraska, on Monday morning last. Lewis' future prospects look very bright.

—Last Sunday as Mr. Otto Malsch was driving over Dutch Hill, in the direction of Panther Rock, and when within a few rods of Mr. Ikenburg's house, about five miles from town, his horse became frightened and ran off.

—Last Saturday a gentleman about 50 years of age, named R. A. Corbet passed this place down the Allegheny River, en route, as he said, for Texas.

—A fellow lounged into our office yesterday afternoon, and seeing our editorial chair unoccupied dropped lazily into it.

—The above we would remark, is true of this section. It has all the sound of the chapters of "Cobb's First Readers," a book well known several years ago.

—The church at this place is now in process of erection, and the fact that your townsman, and skilled carpenter, Mr. G. W. Sawyer, has the job is a guarantee that it will soon be completed.

—Our Post Office was opened on Tuesday for the first time, and hereafter we will not be obliged to go to Newtown for our mail.

—Politics don't seem to worry our populace much this fall, which we think is a happy state of affairs.

—Mr. Klinefister is building an addition to his residence, improving the appearance and convenience thereof very materially.

—The acorns in the woods where cattle are in the habit of pasturing are creating sad havoc with some of them, and several of our Dutch Hill farmers have lost cows.

—As I am about to remove from Forest County, permanently, and as there are a number of persons who want to get a Remington Sewing Machine, I would respectfully refer them to Mr. Geo. Osgood, of our Township.

NEW TOWN MILLS, PA., Sep. 29, '79. As I am about to remove from Forest County, permanently, and as there are a number of persons who want to get a Remington Sewing Machine, I would respectfully refer them to Mr. Geo. Osgood, of our Township.
