LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The first quarterly meeting of the year will be held in the M. E. Church on Saturday and Sunday next. Rev. J. F. Perry, of Cochranton, Pa., will conduct the exercises.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterial Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

Four inches of snow this morning. Mr. Ab. Grove, of Bradford, is home on a visit.

The first sleigh bells of the season greeted our ears on Monday. Communion services were held at the Presbyterian Church last Sabbath.

It's getting about that time of year when we may expect a spell of weather 'most any minute.

A gentleman found a pocket knife on election day and left it with us. The owner can have it by calling at this office.

Ben Caldwell, Jim Swales and Dan Black, started for the 'happy hunting grounds' on Salmon creek this morning.

Mrs. C. M. Ball of Fredonia, N. Y., and Mrs. J. B. Alden of Franklin, Pa., are the guests of Mr. J. S. Hood's family this week.

Mr. Ad. Shriver, of Tionesta township, killed a fawn on Monday which beats anything brought to this place for some time. It weighs over 70 pounds dressed.

Paste this in your hat: The river at this place froze over on the night of Nov. 3, 1879. An occurrence which is beyond his recollection.

A flock of 20 or 30 ducks in the river yesterday morning were severely bombarded by some of our citizens. Whether any of them (the ducks) succumbed to the siege we did not learn.

As will be seen elsewhere in today's paper, President Hayes has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. A shooting match for turkeys would now be in order. Who'll take the initiative step?

Four holidays will come on Sunday in the course of the year 1880: February 22d, Decoration Day, July 4th, and Christmas. There are five Sundays in February, which will not occur again till 1905.

The National debt was reduced $10,352,906, during the month of October, according to the official statement of the Treasurer. And still the fanatics cry that the debt is daily increasing.

The pigeons are feeding in the oak woods beyond Meadville. So say those who have been there for the purpose of netting. They are said to be receiving a warm reception at the hands of the gunners of that section.

Dr. Coburn will please accept our thanks for a very choice piece of venison, of his own killing. Doc, if you intended that for a bone for us to gnaw on the Republican defeat, we fear you left too much meat on it.

Prof. Brockway informs us that the teachers' institute will convene on the 15th of December this year. New features which will be introduced promise to make this one of the most interesting sessions ever held in this county.

Jamieson & Copeland's mill at Tubbs Run steamed up on Monday. They are now sawing out enough hemlock to board up and roof the building. In the course of a week or ten days business will be booming in that locality.

Andrew Saltgiver, the boy who was so badly injured by the accidental shooting by his brother, an account of which we gave last week, is still alive, but no hopes of his recovery is entertained, and his death can only be a matter of a short time.

A new mill is being built on the headwaters of Salmon Creek, near Russell's mill, in this county. Mr. John Shoup is the owner, and has let the contract of building the mill and manufacturing the lumber to some Ohio parties whose names we did not learn. The material is all on the ground, and the mill is nearly completed. Its capacity for turning out lumber will be from 20,000 to 25,000 feet daily.

We have delayed publication somewhat in order to give the official vote of the county. Of course, there is very little comfort to be drawn from the result by the Republicans, but we always try to give our readers the facts, let them be for or against.

Gen. Joseph Hooker, "Fighting Joe," as his soldiers loved to call him, died in New York on Friday Oct. 31, very suddenly. The news of his death was received with sorrow all over the country, and his memory will long be cherished in the hearts of the American people.

A first-class tracking snow fell on Sunday and Monday nights, and several deer have already met an untimely death on account of it. Pat Black brought in a fawn Monday evening, and wounded another big buck. He says he saw no less than ten deer, but his old gun "snapped" too often.

Mr. F. E. Mable of the Commercial Hotel, Erie, spent Friday and Saturday of last week in town. Frank's avoirdupois has increased about 20 pounds since he went to Erie, from which we'd suppose the bracing lake breezes agree with him. He reports business flourishing, and the family enjoying good health.

Tidioute is again agitating the tannery business, and Brother White of the News is indefatigable in his efforts to arouse the citizens to a proper appreciation of the peculiar advantages that place possesses for an enterprise of this kind. If Tidioute can accommodate one tannery Tionesta can accommodate a half dozen.

Last Saturday, Ed. Kiser of Dutch Hill came near cutting his "be-gosh head off." He was working on a timber job on Lemantion creek, and while walking along with his ax on his shoulder, he slipped and fell striking with the back of his neck on the sharp blade of the ax. He suffered considerably from loss of blood, but is all right now.

The boys were out in full force on Hallow E'en, but no very serious mischief was committed. A few signs were removed, some old gutter rubbish was piled on the sidewalks, a few empty beer bottles were suspended to the latch-strings of some of the citizens' doors and one or two buildings were laid on their backs; further than this we heard of no depredations being committed.

We will esteem it a favor if our citizens will keep us posted regarding the arrival or departure of friends and visitors. It is impossible for us at all times to learn who arrives or departs, and thus we frequently omit these little personal mentions which are of much interest to our readers. It will be an assistance to us, and prove interesting to friends and visitors. Remember, it is as easy to contribute as to criticize.

Musings on the first snow: On Nov. 3d fell, "the beautiful snow," as I would have every patron know; and note in his book, for a future look, that on this day, the driver did out with his sleigh, for "over the hills and far away;" and the little bells, of winter tells, while the hunter shoulders his gun and goes to the woods to have his fun; While in summer he did snap, his piece 'round a Bogardus trap, and a glass ball, in pieces did fall, to the shot gus click; oh! 'twas quite a trick; but now, ho! for the woods, when the game is good, and fat, you may bet your hat, under a winter sky "when everything is lovely and the goose hangs high."

Parker City has met with another most disastrous fire. Last Thursday morning at 3 o'clock flames were discovered in the Smullen building situated on River avenue, and before the fire could be extinguished eighty-seven buildings were consumed, the most prominent of which were the Mead House, Frisbee Hotel, Spain's Hardware Store, Krosskop's Drug Store, and the Parker Weekly office owned by Mr. G. A. Needle. Very few of the contents of these buildings were saved. A great many families were rendered homeless. The total loss will amount to nearly $200,000. The surrounding country has been appealed to for aid, and the call is being responded to quite liberally. Considerable of the burnt district will be rebuilt, but by no means will the town fully recover from this great disaster.

Wooden Wedding.

Our Wooden Wedding occurs on next Monday evening, Nov. 10. We would be pleased to see all our friends at our home in Tionesta, Pa., on that evening. We trust all who see or hear of this notice, will consider themselves personally invited.

Election Notes.

Election is over and everybody breathes easier. How does the result strike you? It was the quietest election held in this place for many years.

Not a drunk man could be seen on the streets. Something which has not happened "within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant." The greenbackers are by all odds the boss "button-holders," as witness the returns.

Several voters lost their votes by removal and non-payment of taxes. Hence a good deal of grumbling and profanity. Sam. Irwin was a real "Toby" man yesterday. He went around all day with his pocket crammed full, and was not in the least stingy with them.

Several citizens who tried them very soon, "cast up accounts." We were among the "sea-sick." Sam., where on earth did you get "them stogies?" One man stepped up to the window and said he would "vote as he shot," whereupon a bystander suggested that he turn his back to the window.

Quite a number of the "regulars" missed it by not getting their bottles filled the night before election. A man with a bundle of ready-made button-holes would have done a thriving business yesterday.

J. L. Rohr, editor of the Cochranton Trigon, has established a department in his paper in which he agrees to answer all communications asking for information. The following is one of them in his last week's issue: "A. H. D." of Deckardsville writes; "I am a farmer, pretty well-to-do, and would like to take your paper, and will, if you will guarantee my investment safe. What shall I do?"

Ans. Do! you idiot, why keep your money and borrow your neighbor's paper. We don't want your subscription. If salvation was offered you to-day, you would want a stronger guarantee than the crucified Christ nailed on the cross, as a guarantee that his dying was what he meant it to be. You are deep in the roots of prejudiced ignorance, old buckwheat, and all the light that the intelligent 19th century has been throwing around in the world, not a ray has yet reached you. When you can furnish us satisfactory proof that the Lord died for such as you, we will guarantee for you a year's subscription to this paper.

The following challenge from Jim Kerstetter, of Beaver City, to Bogardus, appears in a recent number of the Chicago Field: BEAVER CITY, PA. Editor Chicago Field:--Having noticed a challenge from Captain A. H. Bogardus to shoot any six men a match in New York, breaking one thousand balls to their eight hundred, if Captain Bogardus will shoot me a match at Bradford, McKean county, Pa., on these conditions, I will meet him in a match for one hundred and fifty dollars a side, allowing captain Bogardus to name the date.

JAMES KERSTETTER. Kribbs Farm P. O., Clarion Co. Pa. The captain has accepted the challenge, but the time has not yet been agreed upon.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The following proclamation was issued by the President on Monday, Nov. 3, 1879: At no recurrence of the season which the devout habit of religious people has made an occasion for giving thanks to Almighty God and humbly invoking His continued favor has the material prosperity enjoyed by our whole country been more conspicuous, more manifold or more universal. During the past year also unbroken peace with all foreign nations, the general prevalence of domestic tranquility, the supremacy and security of our great institutions of civil and religious freedom, have gladdened the hearts of our people and confirmed their attachment to their government, which the wisdom and courage of our ancestors so fitly framed, and the wisdom and courage of their descendants have so firmly maintained, to be the habitation of liberty and justice to successive generations.

Now, therefore, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November instant, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer; and I earnestly recommend that, withdrawing themselves from secular cares and labors, the people of the United States do meet together on that day in their respective places of worship, there to give thanks and praise to Almighty God for His mercies, and to devoutly beseech their continuance. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[Seal.] Done at the City of Washington this third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fourth. RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

WM. M. EVARTT, Secretary of State.

Worthy of Attention.

We advise all our readers, whether they own a foot of land or not, to supply themselves with that treasure of useful, practical, reliable information, the American Agriculturist, so named because started 38 years ago as a rural journal, but now enlarged to embrace a great variety of most useful reading for the Household, Children included, for the Garden, as well as the Farm--for all classes. Each volume gives some 800 original Engravings, with descriptions of labor-saving and labor helping contrivances, of plants, fruits, flowers, animals, etc., including many large and pleasing, as well as instructive, pictures for young and old. The constant, systematic exposures of Humbugs and Swindling Schemes by the Agriculturist are of great value to every one, and will save to most persons many times its cost. THE Alpine Silver Mining Company, OF COLORADO. Capital, $2,000,000 - 200,000 Shares, PAR VALUE, $10 PER SHARE. UNASSASSIBLE.

Daniel J. Spilane, Pres. J. L. Thompson, Sec. The property of this Company consists of twelve mines and mining locations, located in Lake County, Colorado, in the vicinity of Leadville, upon all of which extensive work has been done, in all cases exhibiting true fissure veins, good pay streak, and well defined lodes. Three of the leading mines are well opened up and have at the lowest computation over ten thousand tons of ore in sight; by May 1st, the Railroad now under construction will be within a short distance of this property. The Company proposes to sell a portion of its stock at $1.50 per share for the purpose of more completely developing its mines, and for the erection of works for the treatment of its ores. Application for the stock may be made to the office of the Company, 61 Broadway, New York. N. B.--The Mining Record, of New York, the highest mining authority in this country, says Feb. 1st, 1879. The principal owners in this company are hard working men, who by their own labor have uncovered large bodies of ore which they now wish to extract and send to market. Our readers will do well to make a venture with these worthy men, this money will probably be returned to them twenty fold. The business management has been placed in the care of Mr. J. L. Thompson, an officer of high standing in one of the largest and best banks in the city. A Prospectus giving full particulars sent free, on application to the Secretary. 23m.
