—Merry Christmas!
—Mr. J. T. Dale returned home from Bradford last evening, intending to spend the holidays here.

—A nice neck-tie, a silk handkerchief, or a book are suitable presents for a gentleman.—Ex. Abem!

—It is safe to predict that we will not have a "green christmas" this year.
But we come "peaky" near it, though.

—Mrs. Ann Stow, of Cincinnati, is here on a visit to her daughter, and son-in-law, Dr. Blaine. She is looking well as usual.

—Are you going to the party at the Central House this evening? It's going to be a very pleasant affair, and those who attend will have a gay time.

—Messrs. Orion and Hood Siggins were in town on Monday. Allegheny College must agree with Hood, he was looking so well. His brother, Jim, is also home on vacation.

—The Week of Prayer begins on the first Sunday in the New Year, being the 4th ult. Whether or not it will be observed in this place we have not learned.

—The unabridged $1.00 edition of Cruden's Concordance, some time since announced as in preparation by the American Book Exchange, New York is just ready.

—To-night the little folks must hang up their stocking if they expect Santa Claus around. The maiden with a hole in her stocking will darn it now if never before.

—Just a little more snow and we'd have tip-top sleighing. Even now it is fair in some places. What a nice thing 'twould be to have a nice run during the holidays.

—Mr. Dithridge's public sale in the Partridge building is in progress every afternoon and evening. It's the place to go for bargains. Read the advertisement in another column.

—The revival meeting in the M. E.
Church at this place, and at Hunter's Station, we understand, are attended with very fair success for the short time they have been in progress.

—Mr. J. C. Dayton, of Troy, N. Y., who is quite largely interested in Forest county real estate, and who is stopping in town for a few days, paid us a very pleasant call yesterday.

—Surveyor D. W. Clark with a posse of chain carriers was engaged all last week running the line of the D. C.
Spooner tract near Bear Creek. It's quite a job and will probably take another week to finish.

—The Library Magazine of select foreign literature is to be increased to 192 pages monthly, and the type enlarged, for 1880. American Book Exchange, New York. $1.00 a year.

—One week from to-morrow and the gents will be at perfect liberty to ask the gents to go sleighing, to accompany them to balls, dances, &c., pay all bills, and do the honors generally. It's leap year, you know.

—Sunday afternoon, Cora, youngest daughter of George and Julia Dimond, of Siverlyville, Pa., fell into a tub of scalding water and was so terribly burned that she died Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

—President Judge Wetmore, with Associates Dale and Kerr, held an Argument Court on Monday of this week. Nothing of general importance was transacted. The regular February term, it is thought, will be a large court.

—A large boat is moored a short distance above town, containing five families bound for the west. They are from Forest county.—Emmenton Register. Must be some mistake about this.
We have heard of no families leaving this county in this way.

—We have received a very hand-somerly gotten up book entitled "On the Road to Riches," published by J.
Fred Waggoner, Chicago. It contains many valuable hints and suggestions to young men just starting out in business, and would be an excellent book for every young man in the country.

—We had a pleasant call from Mr.
A. W. Cook, of Cooksburg, this county, and Sam. W. Calvin Esq., one of the legal lights of Clarion, who is a partner of Hon. Wm. Corbet, well known to our citizens. They were accompanied by Mr. R. S. Macbeth, Judge Cook's book-keeper. Call again gentlemen.

—Mr. Joo. Hart, of the firm of Grove, Hart & Co., returned from Bradford last Saturday, smiling all over. They have just finished their fourth well in the Tram Hollow district, and it was spouting at the rate of 55 barrels when he left. Their many well-wishers in this place will be happy to hear this.

—Probably the largest hog ever killed in Forest county was brought to town last week by C. F. Cropp; it weighed 446 pounds dressed. Another weighing 375 pounds was killed by Fred.
Lomyer, of Dutch Hill. These are fine specimens, and no doubt would take the premium at the county fair—if we had the fair.

—A counterfeit $20 legal tender note of series 1878, letter c, is in circulation. The following description will guide you when such bills come to you. The engraving is blurred, and words Register of Treasury, under Allison, are crooked. The words Treasurer of the U. S. are irregular.—Clarion Republican. The editor talks as though he had seen lots of twenty-dollar bills.

—Business must be booming on Bates Run these days. Mr. Avery has a large contract of getting out bolts for the new stove mill of Derickson & Co. He has sub-contracted part of the job, and about 30 men are now at work and are creating sad havoc with the white oak timber. Messrs.
Noble & Carson have several men at work on a job near the same place, and some eight or ten men are bossed by H. E. Moody. When these parties get through with that tract of timber there will be hardly enough left to tell the story.

—The time table of the P. T. & B.
R. R., will be found corrected in this issue, and can be relied upon for accuracy. The present schedule is the most convenient for parties in this vicinity that we have ever had.

—The Nursery for January is out with its usual store of good things for the children. No family with small children should be without this beautiful and instructive magazine. Published by John L. Shorey, 36 Bromfield St., Boston, at $1.50 a year.

—Volume three of the "Library of Universal Knowledge," recently issued contains 864 page, covering topics between the words Birs and Caterpillar.
The publishers announce that it has already reached a sale of nearly 10,000 copies. American Book Exchange, New York.

—"The Life and Words of Christ," by Geikie, heretofore published at $6.00, is just brought out in a handy volume, good type and handsomely bound, for the price of 50 cents, by the American Book Exchange, New York. A fine edition, wide margins, half Russia binding, gilt top, is sold for $1.00.

—The January number of Ballou's Monthly Illustrated Magazine is a marvel of beauty and goodness, filled to repletion with the best of engravings, stories, poems, and essays,—a remarkable combination of all that a first-class magazine should contain.
The new type and new form of the magazine are aiding it to force its way right direct into the hearts of the people; and, when it has secured a lodgement there, it will remain, for no one can read it and not like it. It is a library itself, and yet the price is only 15 cents a copy or $1.50 per annum, postpaid. Published by Thames & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass.

OBITUARY.

Of the late Capt. Alexander Smith, father of the wife of Hon. N. P.
Wheeler, the Cincinnati Daily Gazette has the following sketch:

Capt. Alexander Smith, of Smith's Landing, Ohio, died December 9, at his winter home, in Mayport, Fla., where he had gone four weeks ago for his health. He was born in Perthshire, Scotland, December 28, 1811. At an early age he came with his parents to this country, settling in Belmont County, Ohio. He grew up to be very active in business. He and his brother, Capt. Joseph Smith, built several steamboats, running them in various trades. Before the war he was Superintendent of the Maysville, Portsmouth & Big Sandy Packet Company for four years. His duties were ever discharged promptly, and he was known to be an honest man. The poor never failed to receive his assistance. Although his sickness lasted over a year, he was never heard to murmur, and endured patiently the most intense suffering. His family were with him as he peacefully passed away. He left a wife, the daughter of the late Capt. John McClain; two daughters, Miss Belle Smith and Mrs.
N. P. Wheeler, and one son, Alex.
Smith, jr. He lived wisely and died in the hope of a blessed immortality.
His remains were brought North by the sorrowing family and placed in the vault at Spring Grove Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

a special telegraph line to this place for their own special use. They never do things by halves. One of their witnesses regretted on Sunday evening that they had not hired a church and brought a preacher with them.—Clar-

Minutes of the Institute.

The sessions of this Institute were all held in the Court House. The attendance was larger, and greater interest was manifested by teachers and others than any ever held in the county.

Tuesday evening the Court House was filled with a very select and intelligent audience to hear Prof. G. A.
Langley's lecture, subject "The Teacher." The Prof., whose name is so familiar to a number of our teachers, lectured for the first time in Tionesta. The lecture was a practical, common sense talk, and was listened to with good attention and received many words of commendation.

On Wednesday evening a very interesting lecture was delivered by M. W. Tate Esq. The subject was "Practical Education," and was very ably treated by the lecturer, who had evidently given it a careful study.
Mr. Tate proves himself a strong advocate of Practical Education.

Thursday evening, Supt. Geo. R.
Dixon lectured on the subject, "The Female Teacher." Mr. Dixon is a pleasant and fluent speaker. His address was listened to with the greatest attention, and at its close was loudly applauded.

Others acquitted themselves hand-somerly, but space prevents further comments.

Wednesday morning session.—
Method of teaching, by Mrs. Debbie Clark. Objects of recitation, by Prof.
Langley. Music. Language, Prof.
Dixon. Theory, Prof. Langley.

Afternoon session.—Music. Study, Prof. Langley. Spelling Bee, by Prof.
Dixon. Is the object of school to make brilliant scholars, by Miss J. E.
Copeland; discussed by the teachers.
Natural history, by D. F. Billig.
Farewell talk to Institute, by Prof.
Langley.

Evening Session.—Music by D. F.
Billig, accompanied by Mrs. Waterman. Lecture by M. W. Tate Esq., subject, "Practical Education." Song by Prof. Peck. Select reading by Prof. Dixon, subject, "The Teacher." Music by Messrs. Miller, Sallada and Billig. Adjourned.

Thursday morning session.—Music.
Talk on Astronomy as applied to Geology. Music. Language by Prof.
Dixon. Music.

Afternoon session.—Music by the teachers. History by D. F. Billig.
Reading by J. E. Hillard, and discussed by other teachers. Election of Members of Permanent Certificate, resulted in the election of F. E. Whittekin and W. O. Fulton. What is the relation of the teacher to the pupil? discussed by Miss J. E. Copeland, Prof. Dixon, Rev. Stone and others. Arithmetic, by F. F. Whittekin. Adjourned.

Evening session.—Music by Mrs.
Waterman and Mr. Billig. Lecture by Prof. Dixon, subject, "The Female Teacher."

Friday morning session.—Supt.
Brockway appointed Misses Clara Hunter and Emma Arner, and Mr.
J. E. Hillard a committee on resolutions. After some discussion as to the practicability of holding monthly Institutes, and upon other subjects the Institute adjourned sine die.

The following resolutions were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, The 13th Teacher's Annual Institute of Forest Co., has convened, entered upon and discharged, so far as practicable, its duties as a promoter of sociality and friendship among teachers, pupils, superintendent, parents, and all friends of education; as a reformer of the errors now practiced in the common schools; as an awakener of thought on the important educational questions of the day; as a developer of new and better methods of teaching and government, &c., &c.

Resolved, 1. That we believe in the County Institute as a power for good.

2. That we ask the directors of the County to allow the teachers of their respective districts the time for attending the Institute.

3. That we highly appreciate, and are thankful for the instruction given by the educators, both imported and domestic, present with us.

4. That we are highly grateful for the generous welcome extended to and enjoyed by the teachers present during the week.

5. That we return thanks to those who have assisted in furnishing music during the Institute.

6. That with sorrow we remember our departed friend and teacher, Mrs. Dorcas Walters, whom it has pleased God in His all-wise providence to remove from us. It can well be said she was a faithful and earnest worker in her profession.

7. That we thank the County Commissioners for the use of the Court House.
