LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Has that new leaf got any bad finger marks yet?

—Well, this is Leap Year; now what are you going to do about it, girls?

—Quite a number of Tionesta boys were home from Bradford to spend the holidays.

—Miss Maude Davis returned home yesterday from Warren, where she has been making rather an extended visit.

—An old-fashioned watch meeting was held at the M. E. Church on New Years Eve. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

—Pigeons are once more roosting in their old stamping ground on Little Tionesta creek. They are quite numerous, but very few are being brought in.

—Miss Carrie Moore, of Lock Haven, Pa., spent the holidays in Tionesta with her cousin, Mrs. D. W. Agnew, returning to her home on Saturday last.

—Mr. Hood Siggins has been doing duty at this station for a day or two, while Mr. Craig was away. Mr. S. returns to his studies at Allegheny College to-day.

—The F. M. revival at Hunters Station has drawn to a close. Upward of twenty converts were gathered into the fold, and the brethren feel duly elated over their success.

—The County Auditors and Commissioners are in session settling up the accounts of the Treasurer and county officials generally. The report will be published in February.

—A breastpin, oblong shaped and minus the pin, was found near the school house at Hunter Station during the revival meetings, and handed us recently. The owner will please call and get it.

—The National appeared on the 25th, ult., enlarged to six columns. The editor will please accept our congratulations upon this evidence of prosperity. First subscribe for the REPUBLICAN and then for the National.

—The Union Express Company publishes a card in another column of this issue by which it will be seen that its rates of transportation have been greatly reduced. For promptness and reliability this company is second to none in the world.

—Owing to a press of other matter our local columns don't "show up" as well as we'd like them to, but we'll try and avert that hereafter. Several matters which were written up have been crowded out, besides a couple of communications.

—Mr. Ben. W. May of Louisville arrived in town on Monday, and will spend a week or two with his parents. Although a little tanned by the southern atmosphere he is looking the picture of health and happiness, and still retains his avoirdupois.

—Free Methodist Quarterly meeting will be held at East Hickory, commencing on Friday, 9th inst., and continuing over Sunday. Rev. Hawkins presiding. Owing to this fact their services will be postponed in this place next Sunday, and our citizens are cordially invited to attend the exercises at East Hickory.

—Some friend at Leadville has sent us a very fine specimen of gold quartz. No name was attached and we are at a loss to know who to thank for it. We wouldn't object to owning a half interest in a mine which pans out like this specimen, and if the party who sent this will forward us a few shares we'll endeavor to learn his name and give him a puff.

—During Institute week Miss Arvilla Painter lost, somewhere between the Lawrence House and the Court House, a black leather pocket-book, containing $13 in money, and a school certificate bearing her name. If the finder will leave it at the Lawrence House he will receive the thanks of the young lady and be suitably rewarded.

—The hunting season for all kinds of game is now over and those who indulge in the sport now will be subject to severe penalties. A few days ago we heard of quite a number of black squirrels having been seen and several killed in this vicinity. They'd better not get too "fresh" about here or our sports might enact a little hunting season of their own and slay some of the blood-thirsty cusses.

—On Sunday morning the 28th ult., Rev. Elliott preached the funeral sermon of Harlem Adams, whose death occurred in Bradford on December 1st. It was one of those beautiful and touching sermons for which he is so famous, and was listened to with profound interest by a very large congregation of the friends of the deceased.

—We cheerfully direct attention to the new card of S. H. Haslet & Sons, dealers in General Merchandise, which appears in another column. This firm has just started a new store in the fine large room lately occupied by Derickson & Co., and known as Haslet's corner.

—For the past five or six weeks Mr. Jas. Huddleston, who lives on Jamieson Run, about three miles from this place, has been suffering untold agonies from what is termed a "blood cancer," which commenced in the nose, and is rapidly spreading and working into the throat.

—The B. O. Sullivan died very suddenly on Saturday Dec. 27th. Her husband went West some time last spring to seek a location, leaving her with several children. Shortly after his departure one of his creditors to whom he had given a note sold nearly all his household goods, together with some grain and articles of food which had been left for the sustenance of the family.

—Mr. L. Agnew retired from the management of the Central House on Jan. 1st, and Mr. T. C. Jackson assumed control. Mr. Agnew will remove to Oil Creek Lake, near Titusville, in the course of a few months, where he has rented a hotel. The place has gained quite a reputation as a summer resort, and next season endeavors will be made to bring it still more into public notice.

—The Maude Oswald troupe are to be here to-morrow night, (Saturday, 3d inst.) and play Kathleen Ma Vourneen. It promises to be a rare treat. Yours, JONES.

—The Derrick's Calendar Supplement is a good thing. Besides the large figures giving the day of the month it has small figures indicating the day of the year. It contains a synopsis of the postal laws, rates &c., the price of oil each day during the year 1879, and other good information.

—If you are bilious you will find positive relief by using "Sellers' Liver Pills." Sold by all druggists. For sale by Boward. 40 2t.

—Go to G. W. Bovards for Mrs. Freeman's New National Dyes. For brightness and durability of color they are unequalled. Color 2 to 6 lbs., price 15 cents. 33-ly.

—The Holidays passed off very quietly in this place. There were no unusual demonstrations, and what is particularly gratifying, there was very little if any drunkenness. The dance given by Mr. Agnew, at the Central House on Christmas Eve, was well attended and a complete success.

—While in Oil City during the holidays and having considerable time on our hands we took occasion to look into some of the principal business houses of the city, and among them the dry goods establishments. We found them all busy and apparently reaping good harvests; but the Queen of them all was the establishment of G. W. Milford.

—The warm wet weather is good for sawing at the mills but not very favorable for timber jobbers, who would rather see fine sleighing for their business. VERITAS.

—The school has had an average attendance, for the year of '79, which is a pretty good average when you consider the bad weather and long distance for many to come.

—The Free Methodists also have a Sabbath school in their church near by which is well attended by young and old of their congregation.

—"Vick's Floral Guide" is before us, and those who send five cents to James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., for it will be disappointed. Instead of getting a cheap thing, as the price would seem to indicate, they will receive a very handsome work of 100 pages, and perhaps 500 illustrations—not cheap, but elegant illustrations, on the very best of calendered paper, and set off to the whole, an elegant Colored Plate that we would judge cost twice the price of the book.

Christmas at East Hickory.

The Holidays passed off pleasantly in this valley. The M. E. Sunday School, Mr. George Wardeu Supt., Mr. Phil Long Assis't Supt., Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, Mrs. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Teachers, gave a Christmas Tree entertainment on the evening of the 25th, which proved to be an enjoyable affair, judging from the bright faces and happy looks of the children.

this week. Rev. White, of Pleasantville officiates.

The Enterprise Dramatic Association gave an entertainment on Thursday evening in the M. E. Church at that place. From parties who were present we learn that sitting room was hardly obtainable; also that the acting and music were both first-class.

Mr. Frank Griffin is concerting some this winter; those who have attended his concerts say they are what everybody expect—good. We see by bills that he sings to-night at Fagundas.

Mr. Joseph Machesney has purchased Mr. J. Burchfield's stock of goods and now waits on his customers in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Burchfield. We are not advised as to what enterprise Mr. B. proposes to embark in now but no doubt he has something in view.

We are reminded by reading in your last issue of the big "porker" killed by Mr. Cropp that we are yet ahead in that line, as Major Woodcock some time ago killed a "pig" (less than 14 mos. old) that weighed 471 lbs, as can be testified to by Mr. Wm. McCaslin who "bossed" the killing.

School Reports. Barnett District, Greenwood School No. 4, for month ending Dec. 24: No. of pupils enrolled 41; average attendance, 28; per cent. of attendance 80. Charley Black, Michael Black, Frances Black, Agnes Zents and Katie Zents were not absent from school during the month. L. W. SHAWKEY, Teacher.

Report of Huddleson school for the month ending Dec. 26, 1879: No. of pupils enrolled 30. Average attendance, males 13, females 10. Per cent. of attendance 83. No. of visits 12. Names of pupils who have not been absent during the month: Mary, Charles and Jacob Korb, Sesie Korb, Charlie Harger, John Zuck, Rachel and Leah Allio. Names of those who have excelled in spelling, Mary Korb and Francis Houser. EMMA SHRYVER, Teacher.

MARRIED.

JAMIESON—THOMPSON—On Jan. 1st, 1880, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Stewart's Run, Pa., by Rev. A. O. Stone, Mr. Quintain Jamieson and Miss Mary Thompson.

With the many friends of the happy young couple we heartily congratulate them, and wish them happiness and prosperity all the days of their lives.
