Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania are requested to send delegates, appointed according to their representation in the Legislature, to a Convention, to meet at Harrisburg, at 12 m., on the 4th day of February next, to elect delegates to the Republican National Convention, to nominate Presidential Electors, to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and a candidate for Auditor General, and to transact such other business as may be brought before them.

F. C. HOOTON, By order of Chairman State Committee.

SAMUEL F. BARR, ] Secretaries. C. L. MAGEE,

POLITICAL.

The Republican County Committee will meet at my office on Saturday, Jan. 17th, 1880, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention, and to transact other business that may come before it. It is desirable that each township be represented. Following is a list of the members of said committee:

Tionesta boro., L. Agnew. Tionesta twp., Quint. Jamieson. Barnett, Charles Compbell. Green, Henry Ledebur. Jenks, J. J. Parsons. Kingsley, W. B. Heath. Hickory, James Green. Upper Harmony, Charles Griffin. Lower " John A. Dawson. Howe, B. D. McClure. E. L. DAVIS, Chairman.

Tionesta, Jan. 5th, 1880.

GOVERNOR GARCELON thinks that after the legislature has been once stolen and the certificates issued to defeated candidates, it is too late to remedy the matter.

TILDEN has the worst kind of a third term scare. He is determined that Grant shall be defeated even if he has to accept the nomination on the Democratic ticket himself.

GOVERNOR GARCELON . appears to think that the opinion of the Supreme Court an excellent guide for future Governors and Councils, but as for himself, he will stick to the position he has taken.

GRAND SALE. perpetrate the additional fraud of electing officers without a quorum, and that, too, in face of the protest of Mr. Hale, who doubtless remained in the House for that very purpose. All the victories the Democrats of Maine achieve with the assistance of Eugene Hale they are perfectly welcome to. Mr. Hale remained in the House by design, "to take notes," as it were, The Republicans may even permit the fraudulent Fusionists to go so far as to elect a Governor, but that is doubtful. Should they do so, however, it will be done only for the purpose of the more effectively overthrowing the conspirators finally. Legal proceedings to constrain a fraudulently elected Governor to show by what he holds office, would not be without at least one precedeut. The late opinion by the Supreme Court of Maine is sufficient to conviace any one that that tribunal will make short work of the Garcelon conspiracy if the opportunity is presented, as it will be sooner or later. The great crime of overthrowing the popular election in Maine, and of distranchising the people, will not be permitted to triumph. The conspirators may be allowed a little extra rope now, but it will be only that they may the more surely hang themselves. Wilkesbarre Record.

CHAMBERLAIN begins to show the cloven foot in Maine. He refuses to recognize Lamson as acting governor, and further says he will recognize no person elected governor by the legislature as at present constituted. It is difficult to discover by what authority Chamberlain has taken charge of affairs in Maine. It is also as difficult to understand by what authority Garcelon counted in the present legislature. Chamberlain probably is acting as legally as many members of the house, and one is just as bad as the other. The whole trouble comes from attempting to pervert the will of the people, and politicians should remember this in the future. - Derrick.
