The forest Republican.

J. E. WENK, EDITOR. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 21, 1880.

Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania are requested to send delegates, appointed according to their representation in the Legislature, to a Convention, to meet at Harrisburg, at 12 m., on the 4th day of February next, to elect delegates to the Republican National Convention, to nominate Presidential Electors, to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and a candidate for Auditor General, and to transact, such other business as may be brought before them.

By order of F. C. HOOTON, Chairman State Committe

SAMUEL F. BARR,) Secretaries. C. L. MAGEE,

THE kicked-out Fusionists in Maine are now holding extra side-walk sessions.

THE Philadelphia Times has been asking the newspapers of the State to designate their preferences for the Presidency, and quite a number have responded. And, now, suppose the Times returns the favor and, in an editorial way, inform an anxious world who its candidate is.

THE conduct of the Greenbackers reminds one of the old story about the man whose head was so neatly shaved off by the executioner that he was not aware the ceremony had been performed until a sneeze shook his intellect into the basket. Down at Washington De La Matyr and the rest are carrying on at a great rate, making motions, proposing amendments, and all the rest of it, just as though the party had not since last fall been as dead as a door-nail .- Clarion Republican.

SENCE the State Convention is to meet so early, it is all the more important that the delegates whom it will send to Chicago in June shall go there unpledged. It would be nonsanse for the Convention to undertake to say in February what will be the proper course to pursue four months later in reference to such an important matter as the nomination of a Presidential candidate. Common sense demands that the delegates shall be left free to use their own discretion as the changing current of circumstances Consolidation and Merger of this Company and the Buffalo, Chautauqua Lake and may demand. To tie their hands in February would be apt to make Pennsylwania the laughing-stock of the countryin Jnne.-Phila. North American.

Our Washington Letter. Special to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15, '80. The Democrats are a good deal molified by late events. The great crime in Maine begins to loom up as one of their biggist blunders, and added to other blunders the load weighs upon them. They might thrive on successful fraud, but the anticipation of failure in all their plots is too much. That accounts for their apparent moderation just now. They have decided in caucus to pass all the appropriation bill as the President signed them last year, thus making no fight except on the bill to pay United States Marshals, and it is said even upon that they may compromise away their last ditch. The poor fellows are in a bad way; and even their Greenback friends threaten to abandon them.

That General John B. Hawley is candidate for Governor of Illionois, will probably be nominated, and therefore will be lost to the Government service as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in a few months, seems to have become the settled belief of almost everybody.

The Postoffice Department is exposing many wicked swindlers throughout the country, and refusing to give them facilities of mailing service. It will do good in driving out of business all concerns that advertise to sell unabridged dictionaries for 50 cents and similar cheats.

The financial question will be rap idly disposed of new. The Senate Finance Committee yesterday refused to report Bayards resolution to destroy the legal tender quality of the greenbacks, the vote in favor of it being Senators Bayard, Morrill, Kernan and Wallace, and against it Senators Allison, Beck, Ferry, and Voorhees. This probably is the death blow to financial agitation in that body for this session, although the question will be briefly debated in the Senate hereafter. In the House there will soon be a discussion on the same question, and then all action to change the prevailing policy will probably be postponed. PHIL.

No 358 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

THE Supreme Court of Maine, to which the disputed election cases were left, has rendered a decision which is on every point favorable to the Republicans. Acting upon the decision of the court the legislature met and elected Daniel F. Davis, Republican, Governor. Other state officers were elected. Thus the muddle is virtually at an end, and, as everybody who has followed the affair through from beginning to end well knows, justice has prevailed. The throwing out of six or eight districts altogether, and the counting in of some 30 or 40 who were not elected, was carrying matters a little to far, and was altogether too high-handed for decent and law-abiding citizens to tolerate. The Fusionists, to of course, are by no means satisfied, but having left it to the decision of the courts they must submit, yet they do so very upgracefully.

THE address issued to the country by the late conference of the 'Greenbackers, Nationals, etc., contains one sentiment that will attract attention, especially in view of the fact that the deliverance is signed by Congressman Thomas Murch, of Maine. The address demands that there shall be a restoration of the principle that the majority shall rule-in other words, "the sovereignty of the people over their elections," etc. This National-Greenback party has been nearer successful in Maine than in any other State in the Union, and the first fruits of their last year's success, jointly with the Democrats, is the attempt to steal the legislature and State government of Maine from the people. Mr. Murch's right hand was still reeking with the infamy of participation in the Maine conspiracy and outrage when ORGAN OF OIL! he signed his name to the address demanding respect for the will of the people as expressed at the ballot-bax. Was there ever such brazen hypocrisy before?
