LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Last Sunday and Monday were the pleasantest days we've had this summer.

—The court proclamation, jury list, etc., for the February term of court are published to-day.

—Dr. Egbert, of Red Rock spent a few days in town this week. He is looking unusually well.

—A man down town has gone crazy trying to keep a record of the weather during the last 24 hours.

—The County Auditor's Report will appear in our next issue. As usual the report shows a tip-top standing of the financial affairs of our county.

—About three miles of pigeons flew over town this morning. It reminded one of the olden times. They are growing plentier as the weather grows finer.

—The Howe murder trial commenced yesterday morning in Franklin, after considerable delay in drawing a jury. The trial will probably occupy the whole week.

—A number of gentlemen are said to be negotiating for the purchase of the Meadville Vindicator, Greenback and its removal to Titusville, to start a Democratic daily.—Franklin Press.

—The past few evenings have been most lovely for sleighing—if we'd only had the sleigh and the riding.
Like the old lady who said if she had some milk she'd make some mush, if she had some meal.

—Dr. A. Fisher, Dentist, of Warren, Pa., was in town week before last and will return on court week, which will commence on the 4th Monday of February. Those wishing his services should make a note of this fact.

—The Warren Ledger wants it passed down that "a raft came down the river Jan. 20th, 1881." Now, when we see a raft come down the river in "Jan. 1881" we'll help pass it down, and not until then. D'ye hear?

—While unloading some goods from a wagon on Monday of last week, Will Hulings sustained a severe strain of the back, from the effects of which he was "laid up." He is gradually improving, glad to say.

—The silver wedding on Monday evening was a brilliant success, so every one who was there says. An overdose of work prevented us from attending, but we had our special reporter on the spot, who gives it a good send-off.

—Bruce Crawford expects, if there is sufficient water, to pull out of the mouth of the creek with a twelve-platform raft to-day. We don't see why our lumbermen might not as well run their lumber now as later; they have nothing else to do.

—Next Monday, Feb. 2d, will be "ground-hog day." It will be watched with greater interest than ever this year, and should this never-failing weather prophet be able to see his shadow there will be general rejoicing in the camps about here.

—As will be seen by notice published in another column, the County Commissioners will dispose of several tracts of land on Tuesday of court week. Those interested should look up those pieces of real estate, as there may be bargains in some of them.

—The St. Petersburg Crude Local fluttered its last with last week's issue.
The editor says the once prosperous town is no longer able to support a paper. It was once a healthy and wide-awake journal, and with its surviving comrades we mourn its untimely demise.

—The revival meetings at the M. E.
Church are progressing finely, and quite a number have gone forward during the week. The Free Methodist brethren commenced a series of meetings here on Sunday evening with good evidence of success. May much good result from the efforts of both denominations.

—The Nursery for February is at hand, handsome, interesting and instructive as ever. The anxiety with which the little folks, who have been in the habit of receiving it, watch for its monthly visits fully attest the esteem in which it is held by them.
Published by John L. Shorey, 36, Bromfield St. Boston, at $1.50 a yr.

—Although nearly three weeks have elapsed since the distressing affair at Newtown, no traces of Mr. Rudolph's child have been discovered. No one seems to doubt but that the child was drowned, and if the creek should not freeze up it is probable the body will be discovered when the water falls.
That such may be the case is the fervent wish of all our citizens.

—Clarion county's Republican Committee had a meeting last week and endorsed Forest County's choice for Senatorial delegate to the State convention, E. L. Davis, Esq. As the position belongs to Forest County this year, according to party usages, the other counties in the district will doubtless also endorse Mr. Davis.
The Convention will meet in Harrisburg one week from to-day.

—Last week, in speaking of Mr. & Mrs. Wolcott's silver wedding, we said it would be the first ever held in this place, and therefore, told what wasn't so. The late lamented Hon. J. A.
Dale and lady celebrated their silver wedding a year or so previous to the Judge's death, an important event which was attended by upward of a hundred guests, but which escaped our memory when writing the item in last week's issue.

—A final decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court in the Maine muddle which knocks the last prop from under the fusionists. Speaking of the case the Derrick this morning says: "The decision of the supreme court of Maine is unfavorable to the fusionist body, and the republican legislature is decided to be the only legal one in the state of Maine. Now let the former go home and get ready for planting potatoes in the spring, and prepare for the presidential campaign."

—Report of Huddleson School for the month ending Jan. 24, 1880: No. of pupils enrolled 34; average attendance 39; percent. of attendance 89. Edward Hiles, Francis Houser, John Zuck, Jacob and Charles Korb, Mellie Mong, Mary Korb, Lizzie Mong, Rachel and Leah Allio have been present every day during the month. Francis Houser, Mary Korb and Leah Allio have excelled in spelling. No. of visits 12.
EMMA W. SHIVER, Teacher.

—The constable has posted notices to the effect that there will be an election held in Tionesta on the 2d Tuesday of February next, being the 17th day of the month, and that then and there the voters will elect one person for Burgess; six councilmen, three for each ward; two school directors for the north ward; one constable; one high constable; judge and inspectors of election; two overseers of the poor; two auditors, and one assessor. Now let only the best and truest men be elected to fill these positions and "all will be well with us then."

—Messrs. Davy Hillands, R. W.
Bacon, Dad Hulings, Jim Carson and Dan. Agnew, who were up in the beech woods netting, or trying to net pigeons, returned on Monday. They report the birds plenty but hard to "hail." Some of them will return in a few days and give them another trial. They say the pigeons are increasing in number but have no regular course of flight. Some very nice flocks passed over this place Monday and Tuesday mornings of this week. There's one consolation in this kind of weather; if we can't have sleighbing we can have pigeons.

—Attention is directed to the "ad." of George W. Dithridge in another column. Mr. D. has secured the handsome and capacious store room of Mr.
Partridge, and is opening the finest stock of goods he has ever brought to this place, and respectfully invites everybody to pay him a visit, whether they care to buy or not. It has always been his aim to keep the very best of everything, and those who have heretofore patronized him will agree that he has succeeded admirably. His advertisement is incomplete this week, owing to the fact that he has been kept too busy at his store to write out the full details. Call and see him.

—A sallow complexion, a languid, spiritless state of mind, and an exhausted debilitated condition of the body, is always remedied by taking drake Pills. Prepared by E. K.

Thompson, Titusville, Pa. For sale skin and beautifies the complexion.

The Silver Wedding.

One of the gayest social events that has taken place in our town for some time, was the celebrating of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wolcott, at their residence on Monday evening last.
Over one hundred ladies and gentlemen, old and young, were gathered within the spacious and brilliantly lighted apartments. It seemed as if there would be no end to the gathering. The door-bell would scarcely cease to vibrate when a fresh jingle would announce another arrival and invariably bring forth from the numerous groups of merry lotus-eaters the remark: "And still they come." Excellent music was rendered during the fore part of the evening by Prof. Peck and others; later, the luscious viands, rich and juicy, were served, and the manner in which the guests partook of the same gave abundant evidence that they were highly appreciated. Refreshments over, the older ones gathered in groups and conversed upon the various topics of the day, whilst the younger class, too full for utterance, amused themselves by performing astounding feats of legerdemain, convincing many that in the depths beyond lie facts that scientists have never been able to demonstrate. To see a man of no little weight hurled into space, yea almost through the ceiling, by four maidens lifting with the tips of their dainty fingers is something approaching a miracle.

The presents were rich and rare, valuable, ornamental and useful. The town clock had tolled the hour of two before the guests began to disperse.
Each went away showering blessings upon the happy couple who have passed so gloriously through the trials any triumphs of twenty-five winters of married life.

DIED.

OSGOOD—At his residence in Kingsley tp., Forest Co., Pa., on Wednesday evening, Jan. 21, 1880, Hiram Osgood, aged but three days previous to his death, although his health had been failing gradually for several years since. He several years, during which time, by his affability, considerateness, kindness, etc., he gathered around him many staunch and fast friends who
