THE STATE CONVENTION.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7, '80. By Tuesday evening all the delegates had arrived and things commenced to liven up. All the hotels were packed to overflowing, though as usual the Lochiel received the lion's share and was the objective meal by legislation to repeal the duties point. Lemon and Passmere both had on special articles, admonish us of the their headquarters here, and here also was all the caucusing done. After arranging their tactics they adjourned to join in the general caucus which was held at 9 o'clock when the two factions (Grant and Blaine) got into a wrangle over sending the delegation to Chicago with instructions to vote as a unit. After selecting officers for the convention the caucus adjourned.

The convention met on Wednesday at 12 m., at the Opera House. Hostilities began at once in which the Blaine men got" slightly worsted. Adopted by the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg, Feb. 4, Resolved, First. - That rejoicing as we do over the steady growth of the national prosperity which began in 1876 with the change of the balance of trade in our favor, and over the successful resumption and maintenance of specie payments, we may reasonably claim the financial soundness and prosperity of the country as the natural result of the financial policy we as a party have sustained.

Second-The resumption of specie payments having been accomplished at the time appointed by law and the finances of the country being in a thoroughly healthy condition, we regard it as unwise to engage in any new attempts at financial legislation. The country is under our financial system as it is, and we know no good reason why that system should be now disturbed. Third-The persistent efforts of the free traders to destroy our tariff piecenecessity of adhering more strongly than ever to the tariff policy of the past twenty years, which has built up our grand system of manufactures, fostered the revenues of the government, and promoted our national country will not bear this tinkering of the tariff, and if any revision of that hearing of all parties to the interests involved.

Fourth-We object most decidedly to all attempts to enact a new tariff a proper method of regulating the revenues of the government.

Fifth-In view of the recent events in Congress and in the Southern States, and latterly in the State of Maine, we deem this a fitting opportunity to re affirm our adherence to the following principles, viz:

1st. The union of the states, with equal rights, indestructible by any unconstitutional means.

2d. Protection to the person, liberty and property of the citizen of the United States in each and every portion of our common country, wherever be may choose to move, demanding of him only obedience to the laws and proper respect for the rights of others. 3d. Strict integrity in fulfilling all our obligations state and national. 4th. The perfect security of free and of equal rights and privileges to
