LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Attention Democrats.

The members of the Democratic County Committee of Forest County will meet at the Arbitration Room in Court House, Monday evening, Feb. 23, 1880.

JOHN PETERSON, Chairman. Tionesta, Feb. 10, '80.

Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

The oil market closed last night at $1.08 1/8.

After Valentine day Washington's birthday will be the next important holiday.

Mr. J. C. Cornwell, of Stoneboro, has been in town for a few days on a business visit.

The spicy Franklin Evening News is now a regular and welcome visitor to this office.

Mr. J. W. Ball and lady, formerly of East Hickory, now Brookville, Pa., spent Sunday in town.

Valentine day next Saturday, when the P. O. D. will probably reap a rich harvest in one-cent stamps.

Lent begins to-day, but that hasn't anything to do with the chap to whom we Lent our overshoes three weeks ago.

The weather is breaking in on our sleighing badly, and unless a change takes place soon, it's good-bye "beautiful."

Mr. W. R. Reck, of Strattonville, Pa., was in town a day or two this week. He is looking well, as usual, and reports his family likewise.

Drilling was resumed on the Hill Farm well on Monday, by Mr. Wolcott, and with no bad luck the well will be down in two weeks or less.

Mr. B. F. Caldwell spent last Sunday in Tionesta. Ben now holds the position of superintendent of a large machine shop, at Sandy Point, Butler Co.

The days are growing longer, and a full day's work can now be put in without candle light. This is a gratification to employer if not to employe.

The revival at the M. E. Church, although having been going on over eight weeks, has lost none of its interest, and many are nightly going forward to seek the Lord.

The dedication of the new M. E. Church at Whig Hill, will take place at two o'clock p. m., instead of seven as appeared in our last issue. If the going is good a large turnout may be expected.

Mr. Frank Riker has left with us a tinoty stock, raised on his brother's farm, near Bay City, Mich., which measures sixteen feet. It is quite a rare curiosity in these parts, and any one wishing to take a look at it should call.

The creek and back channel are frozen over, making glad the hearts of those who expect to put up ice. There are also several spots of good skating which is being taken advantage of by our youngsters, and some of the oldsters.

"When the Roses Come Again" was sung with good effect from Olean to Titusville, by telephone, recently. We know a party which sang the same piece from Tionesta to Pleasantville 'tother night, but not by telephone by a "jugful."

A sister of Mr. J. E. Hillard, teacher of the higher branch of our borough school, died at Neilltown, this county, where she had been teaching for some time, on Sunday last. Her remains were taken to the home of her parents, in Barnett township, for burial, on Monday. We are without particulars, but will endeavor to give them next week.

The platform adopted by the State Convention at Harrisburg on the 4th inst., is published on our second page; also a letter from our Harrisburg correspondent, giving an account of the proceedings of the convention. Although his report may seem a little blainely it is probably the true state of the case,—better than anything we could gather. The platform is one which will commend itself to the intelligent voters of the State, as a document replete with sound ideas and pure principles. Of the candidates nominated for State offices,—Judge Henry Greig for Supreme Judge, and Senator John A. Lemon for Auditor General—we shall speak in the future; suffice at present to say, two better men could not be found in this or any other State. The seat in the Convention, of our Senatorial Delegate, E. L. Davis, Esq., who had received the concurrence of Clarion county, was contested by Cochran of Cameron county, but thanks to the fairness decency of the committee, on contested seats, Mr. Davis was seated. According to the party usages the position belonged to Forest county this year, it having given way to the other counties on all previous occasions, and the contest on the part of Cameron county, was only a fair exhibit of the porcine proclivities which some people are possessed of. Jos. Buffington, of Armstrong, and Jas. E. Long of Jefferson, were appointed delegates to the National Convention from this Congressional district; with A. W. Taylor of Indiana, and J. B. Agnew of this place, as Alternates. W. L. Fox of Clarion is the Presidential Elector from this district. The convention was a very spirited one, but adjourned with good feeling among the Blaine and Grant delegates.

A very noisy, loud-mouthed sled-load of individuals from this place went to Pleasantville on Saturday night last, for a sleighride. Leaving here about half-past seven Pleasantville was reached in about two hours. All along the way the night was made hideous by what the party probably thought was music, but what the natives along the route must have thought has not yet been ascertained. Arriving in Pleasantville the party was dumped out at the Eagle House where supper was ordered. While awaiting supper the party was right royally entertained by Capt. Barber, Pleasantville's genial and efficient Postmaster, who tells a story equal to Mark Twain or Bob Burdett. Billiards, &c." were also indulged, especially the latter. Supper ready all hands seated themselves and partook heartily of the same. Although gotten up "on the spur of the moment" it was first-class in every respect,—just such an one you always get at the Eagle House. After supper the party indulged in more billiards, &c., about 11 o'clock, when the adieus were bid and the boisterous galoots lit out for home, but not until they had heartily thanked the jovial, good-natured host, Mr. W. H. Hancock, for his kind indulgence and forbearance, and the general good treatment shown them. When traveling that way one should always make it a point to stop at the Eagle House, for there you are waited on in a cordial and pleasant manner by host, hostess and subordinates, and when you sit down to the table you will find the very choicest the market affords, prepared in a most palatable manner.

On the way home the boys weren't so loud, the thermometer having dropped to about 6° below zero, soon froze up their mouths, and having nothing to "thaw out" with they were obliged to keep mum.

Our citizens should not forget that the spring elections will take place next Tuesday. As yet there seems to be very little interest manifested in the matter, which is by no means as it should, for we want good men to fill the various offices, and they should be looked up beforehand. The greenbackers have issued a call for a meeting on Saturday next, which means that they propose to put tickets in the field, and, if possible sweep the board. Now, while politics should have very little to do with small municipal governments, yet if that is their game they should be met, and a good ticket put up. To an outsider it looks as though the greenbackers thought they had the "bulge" on the people and were going to elect their men whether they were fit or not. Let the citizens be on their guard.

Teams are at a premium just now, and old plugs that were placed on the superannated list years ago are being dragged from the stall and pressed into the service. Never was teaming more brisk in this section.

The Committee on Permanent Certificates will meet in this place on the 6th of March, next, as per notice published elsewhere. Teachers who intend to apply for permanent certificates should make a note of this and be in attendance.

W. E. Lathy Esq., of Newtown, Kansas, has our thanks for a batch of new and entertaining Kansas and New Mexico papers. We understand Mr. L. is rapidly working into a good practice which his friends in this county will be glad to learn.

Thus far the groundhog has made a success of it. If his prognostications hold out the full six weeks he will have gained reputation and popularity enough to be nominated for President on the greenback ticket, with Ben Butler for the second place.

Some of our citizens have commenced to lay in their ice, which is right. It is scarcely probable that this fruit will be very abundant this winter, and those who want to indulge in it next summer should gather it in while it is to be had.

Every available rig in town was out last Sunday, and the merry jingle was heard almost incessantly during the day. Revival meetings frequently put a check to dancing, but some christians as well as sinners will sleigh ride on Sunday if they have a chance.

The Free Methodist church was crowded to overflowing last Sunday evening, and many were obliged to leave, being unable to find even standing room. Rev. Barnhart announced that up to that time upward of forty had been forward seeking their soul's salvation. The meetings are still in progress, and are attended with much interest and good success.

The stove mills in this section have nearly all started up again, the snow affording the owners a good chance to get in the bolts which have been piled in the woods all winter. The stove saw of the mill here is now being used to finish up the sawing at Ross Run, but the bolts are coming in lively, and if the sleighing continues a week or two they will have enough bolts to keep them running till late in the summer.

Some peculiarities for 1880. There will be four eclipses of the sun and two of the moon during the year. One of the eclipses of the sun and both of those of the moon will be total. There will also be an occultation of Mars to commend it to star gazers. It is leap year, and there will, be five Sundays in February. Fourth of July will come on Sunday. Lent will begin February 11, and Easter Sunday falls on March 28th.—Ex.

Once more has nitro-glycerine hurled a human being into eternity. The accident occurred near Duke Centre, on Monday morning last. Two men were driving along in a bob sled loaded with the dangerous stuff, when the sled upset causing an explosion. One of the men jumped as the sled upset and was thereby miraculously saved, while the other Howard Hackett, together with the two horses, was blown to atoms.

Warren Beaman, step-son of Mr. Chadwick, is lying very low with lung and brain fever. He has been confined to his bed about two weeks, and at this writing his symptoms are worse, and we are sorry to say very little hope of his recovery is entertained by his physician and friends. Warren is a young man in his eighteenth year, and has always been respected for his quiet and gentlemanly bearing; should he be taken off thus early he will be very much missed by all. May he take a turn for the better.

Attention Teachers.

The members of the committee on Teachers' Permanent Certificates will meet at the Sheriff's Office, Tionesta, Pa., at 10:00 a. m., Saturday, March 6, 1880.

Applicants for above grade of certificates having the requisite recommendation properly signed and countersigned by the proper authorities and approved by the Co. Supt., should be in attendance at the above time and place, as this will probably be the last meeting during the year.

F. F. WHITEKIN, Chairman. CLARA E. HUNTER, Sec'y.

KATE E. COBB, Teacher.

Whig Hill Items.

On last Friday evening the Dutch Hill and Whig Hill schools met and had a "Spelling Bee" at the latter place. The large school house was crowded to its utmost capacity. Sides were chosen and "his" commenced. After spelling one hour and twenty minutes all were down excepting Misses Mary Zuendel and Rilda Berlin. These two pupils are the smallest in their respective schools. After spelling one quarter of an hour Miss Zuendel of the Dutch Hill school came off victor. After intermission of ten minutes the pupils of each engaged in "Rhetorical exercises," and all taking part acquitted themselves very creditably. Mr. R. Z. Gillespie, teacher of the Dutch Hill school, then invited the Whig Hill school to participate with them in a like entertainment next Friday evening. A good time is expected by all and we will have it.
