REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY GREEN, of Northampton County. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, JOHN A. LEMON, of Blair County.

ILLINOIS Republicans are for Grant first, Washburne second, and Blaine the next time.

JUDGE Jeremiah &. Black says "Pennsylvania is a Democratic State." Not of Mr. Black's kind of Democracy, however.

SFEAKER Randall has again been compelled, "for the sake of the Democratic party," to suppress Congressman Weaver, the Iowa Greenbacker.

Ex-Senator Morrill, of Maine, wouldn't object to the nomination for Vice President in the event of Senator Blaine's defeat in the convention. He would make a capital presiding officer of the Senate.

THE Democratic members of Congress are chafing terribly under the restraint put upon them by the leaders, and some of them are threatening to break the gags, let the consequence be what they may.

It is being whispered in Massachu setts that Gaueral Butler is suspected of an intention to run for Governor this year. Butler will probably be willing if it will afford any amusement to the boys.

THE Chicago union vetern club, the largest organization of soldiers in the country, goes back on Weaver and his back-pay bill with a vengeance. The association declare that they want none of it, and request their Congressmen to fight the insanity.

Western Correspondence.

LONE ROCK, Wis., Feb. 10, 1880. With your permission I ask for space in the columns of the staunch old Forest Republican for a few February Term of Quarter Sessions: items from this locality. Times are quiet at present compared to what they were at the opening of winter; the weather is warm and pleasant and every indication is for spring. We have had very little snow here this season and at present the ground is bare and the ladies are mourning the privilege of taking their "young mau" out for a leap year sleighride.

The winter grain sown here last fall, although the winter has been open, is not materially damaged and bids fair for a good crop the coming harvest. Produce of all kinds is at good figures, and now the farmer of the west is reaping the fruits of his labors, and as money is plenty we all realize the fact that times are improv-

I have the pleasure of receiving the Crookston Chronicle, of Polk Co., Minn., W. R. Dunn, Editor and Proprietor, As your readers are acquainted with Mr. Dunn, I will say that he is publishing a live Republican paper, 13 C. J. Harris vs. Jenks devoted to the interests of the farmer's of the country, and located in the great wheat belt of the north west. Should any of the good people of Forest county contemplate emigrating west my advice is take the Chronicle and be posted.

The wise men of this State are again at the State Capital making laws, also endeavering to pass the Capital Punishment law, for this State never hangs for murder, but sends criminals to State Prison for life, and eventually pardons them out, and some person has discovered this mode of proceedure and is trying to stop it by hauging the guilty parties.

A General Reunion of Wisconsin Soldiers is to take place at Milwaukee next summer commencing on the 7th of June and continuing one week. We anticipate a pleasant time. A general invitation is extended to old soldiers of other States to meet with us. The State furnishes the necessary rations, camp and camp equipage. Among the noted persons expected are Grant, Sherman, Logan, and several other distinguished statesmen.

Politically we are principally Grant men in this State, with a few scattering for Blaine, and since the settlement of the Maine muddle the Democrats and Greenbackers are exceedingly quiet, and many are ashamed of the party they belong too. So would I it I was ever guilty of supporting either of the above parcies.

Another effort is being made by our representatives in Congress for the Fox and Wisconsin rivers. As each western State is interested in the navigation of the streams above mentioned it is expected that ere long steamers from the Mississippi will pass into the lakes without any difficulty. Star Twinklings.

We had a "Spelling Bee" on Dutch Hill, on the evening of above date, but on account of the inclemency of the weather the Whig Hill school could not attend. Their teacher, F. F. Whittekin, came, however, through mud and storm to excuse his school None but the Dutch Hill scolars were in attendance, except a few from Ross Run, and one or two from Whig Hill Sides were chosen from the home school and after spelling about one hour and twenty five minutes the last two were put down on the word 'cygneti,', Misses Mary Smith and Vernie Heath were the last two that remained standing.

President H. E. Gillespie then announced intermission of five minutes, which judging from the amount of talking and laughing was highly appreciated by all of the boys and girls, 'ye pedagogues" included.

After intermission those present were entertained for about three-quarters of an hour by literary exercises in which all who participated acquitted themselves very creditably. Yours, &c.,
