Attention Democrats.

The members of the Democratic County Committee of Forest County will meet at the Arbitration Room in Court House, Monday evening, Feb.
23, 1880. Important business requires a full attendance.
JOHN PETERSON, Chairman.
Tionesta, Feb. 10, '80.

Notice.

Dr. S. J. Fisher, Dentist, of Warren Pa., will be in Tionesta, at the Lawrence House, during Court Week. All parties desiring his services please call early.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

The Mercantile Appraiser publishes his list in to-days paper.

The elections passed off quietly but earnestly, and the greenback spring chicken was cooked.

Is it possible the groundhog is going to put us off with one weeks sleighing when he promised us six?

Misses Fannie and June Siggins, of West Hickory, attended Prof.
Peck's singing school in this place on Friday evening last.

Rev. Elliott of Sugar Grove, spent a day or two in town with friends this week. He is well, and reports his family enjoying a like blessing.

A fur muffler, belonging to some lady, was found on the street leading from the Presbyterian Church to the river, Monday morning and left at this office. The owner can have it by calling.

Some of our "cracks" indulged in a shooting match by candle light one night last week. Good strings were used, and the sport was thoroughly enjoyed—that is, by the shootists—we won't venture to say what the neighbors thought of it.

The dedication of the Whig Hill M. E. Church will take place to-morrow, Rev. John Peate, Presiding Elder of this district, will officiate, Rev.
Peate preached in the M. E. Church in this place on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week.

Valentine day was observed here in about the usual way. The missives sent through the post office were principally of the comic kind, but we heard of no one being particularly offended. The principal features of the day were three fights and nobody hurt.

The merger of the Buffalo, Chautauqua Lake R'y., (Cross-Cut,) with the P. T. & B. R. R., was consummated in Philadelphia, on Monday, and the road will hereafter be known by the latter name, and will be run by that company. Nothing definite is yet known regarding any changes in the routing of the road.

Mr. J. W. Jamieson, of Bradford, arrived in town last Friday, "all broke up" that is to say, he's off color, sick, bilious, and don't feel well himself. John reports the "Colonel" well and hearty as ever, and says their wells are holding out bravely. He will restore in town until he is thoroughly rejuvenated.

The Forest County Educational Association will meet at the Tubbs Run school house next Saturday, Feb.
21; at 10 o'clock a. m. All the members are particularly requested to be present, and as many others as feel interested, and wish to have a profitable hour, are cordially invited to attend.

Court will convene next Monday in this place. The regular term in December having been postponed the causes set down for trial then will be taken up next week; these, with the new ones entered on the list, and the several criminal cases to be disposed of will make quite a busy week. Those of our patrons who happen to be in town at that time will be made welcome should they pay us a call.

"THEM 'LECTIONS."

The township and borough elections came off yesterday, and were the quietest and most earnestly contested of any held in this place for several years. On Saturday night last the greenbackers met in secret—in regular old No-Nothing style—and nominated a straight-out greenback ticket. They must have sworn every man to secrecy, as it was an utter impossibility to get them to tell who had been nominated or whether a nomination had been made at all or not. They were simply the dumbest set we ever saw. They had their instructions from the ringleaders, and had to act accordingly.

Well, this action on the part of the greenbackers looked, to the casual observer, just a little bit hoggish, and had the effect to arouse the ire of the citizens somewhat, and they, therefore, concluded to meet at the Court House on Monday evening and place in nomination a ticket which they need not be ashamed of, and they did. Tuesday morning came and, having "marshaled their forces," the greenbackers marched upon the enemy 39 votes strong, and were going to take the fort by storm. They fought bravely all day, but were obliged to retire from the field a badly whipped set, electing but one of their candidates—that of inspector of election—which was on account of a mistake on the part of the citizens in voting for two, all those tickets being thrown out.

Lack of time and space prevent further comments on the result; suffice it to say, the greenbackers were laid out, not because they didn't have good men on their ticket, but because of their greedy actions, and a lamentable scarcity of votes. It might be well enough to state also that the little game of one or two democrats in putting a straight democratic ticket in the field in order to help along the greenbackers, didn't work worth a cent either.

The ticket as elected is as follows.
It is the ticket nominated by the citizens, with the exception of Samuel Campbell inspector of election: Burgess, N. S. Foreman; Councilmen, Justis Shawkey, Patrick Joyce, D. W. Clark, Chas. Bonner, J. E.
Wenk, M. Einstein; School Directors, J. E. Blaine, S. J. Wolcott; High Constable, Jas. Swaverly, Constable, Chas. Hinton; Judge of Election, H.
O. Davis; Inspectors of Election, Chas. Raisig, Samuel Campbell; Auditors, R. L. Haslet, T. J. Van Giesen; Overseers of the Poor, G. W. Robinson, Wm. Richards.

In the Township the officers were distributed about equally between the citizens and greenbackers.

A sleigh-load of church people from East Hickory, met with quite a mishap while returning home from this place one night last week. Their team got over the bank about a mile above Tubbs Run, and it was impossible for them to extricate one of the horses. They were obliged, after repeated and unsuccessful efforts to get their rig in shape, to call on Mr. George Sibbald, three miles above this place, and get him to haul them home. The next day—one of the horses being still over the bank—they hitched to him with block-and-tackle, but before they succeeded in getting him into the road he gave up the ghost. We understand the owner of the animal has brought an action for damages against the road commissioners of Tionesta township for the death of his steed.

Harry Ingalls, a resident of Franklin, recovered $738 damages against that city before the court last week, on account of personal injuries caused by defective sidewalks. We thought that Franklin with its magnificent walks would be the last place in this State in which a case of this kind would occur. Let it be a warning to other places, especially our own town, in which there are some bad walks, and should any one get hurt the borough would no doubt be obliged to pay damages. If we have good walks no one can go back on us for injuries received. Let the matter receive careful attention.

—Jake Guiton brought in 19 dozen pigeons last Thursday, having shot them near Little Coon creek. He says quite a body of the birds "stood the storm," and are still in that neighborhood. If the weather should remain warm, as at present, they'll all be back again, and a good many more.
The feed is still very plenty.

The present term of Prof. Peck's singing school will close on Friday evening next, and another class will be organized on Monday evening following, to which all are invited. Under Prof. Peck's management the school has made excellent progress, and the scholars unanimously voted for another term. Any new scholars who may wish to attend can do so, as an hour or so will be devoted to the rudiments each evening before commencing the regular exercises. Although the Professor is a most excellent singer, his greatest forte is in teaching.

—Mr. Dunn, of the Crookston (Minn.) Chronicle has our thanks for a pamphlet giving some very interesting facts concerning that State. By a map contained in the book, we see that Crookston is crowded away up in the north-east corner of the State, almost into the British Possessions, and we don't wonder at the thermometer getting down 40 and 50 degrees below zero. But it's an immense country for wheat growing, and is rapidly filling with good industrious citizens.

—Steve Bush was arrested last week, at the instance of Selden Whitman, on a charge of killing one of Sel's porkers, some time last fall. The hearing was had before Squire Brennan, and the evidence seems to have been strong enough to bind Steve over to court, which was done, and in default of sufficient bail he was obliged to go to jail. His trial will come off next week before the courts.

—By an Erie paper we notice that Frank Mabie has disposed of his interest in the Commercial House, and is fitting up a hotel in a different portion of the city, it being a much pleas-anter location than the former.
Frank's many warm friends here will wish him success in whatever step he may take, and being an active energetic young business man he will doubtless achieve it.

—If any of our citizens have a picture of the late Warren Beemen, they will confer a great favor upon the parents by returning it to them.
There is a tintype of the young man in the community somewhere—taken about three years ago, and the only picture taken since he was a child—and the parents would be very thankful to receive it.

The Free Methodist revival closed on Monday evening, after a very successful series of meetings, upwards of 50 having been forward. The M. E. meetings will close this evening, having also been very successful. We did not learn the number of new converts, but may be able to give the number next week.

Scandal of the nastiest degree has been rife in Clarion during the past week. Some have waked up to wonder if the train run over anybody else, and others are awful anxious to know where the lightning will strike next.
It's uncertainty that wears on a man, and certainty that makes things binding.—Clarion Republican.

The February number of Baldwin's Official Railway Guide is at hand with its usual store of interesting statistics, and useful information concerning railroad matters. The Guide grows better with each succeeding issue, and it has already become an indispensible article to the traveler.
Our esteemed friend Baldwin, being the General Passenger Agent, of the Buffalo, Chautauqua Lake & Pittsburgh R'y., possesses many advantages for making such a publication a success, and he is doing so admirably.
The price is but $1.00 a year. Address,

Buffalo, N. Y.

THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chadwick desire us to tender their heartfelt thanks to the citizens of this place and vicinity for the untiring and ever-kind attention and sympathy shown them in their sad affliction in the illness and death of their son. Their great kindness shall never be forgotten.

DIED.

HILLARD.—At Neiltown, Pa., Feb. 8, at 11:45 p. m., of cerebro spinal meningitis, Colista Hortense Hillard, aged 23 years, 8 months, and 30 days.

It is terrible to realize that the above is true. Taken so suddenly her death seems more like some horrible dream than the sorrowful reality—the awful certainty it is. Colista was taken sick Wednesday, Jan. 27; medical aid was called immediately but without avail; she grew worse and died Sunday evening, Feb. 8. She was a devoted and affectionate daughter and sister, and a faithful friend. By her death our schools lose one of its most conscientious and faithful teachers. Quiet and unassum-ing, a hard student and a deep thinker, she lived and labored quietly and steadily winning and retaining the honor, respect, esteem and friendship of all who knew her. She began teaching in November, 1874, teaching her first term at Marienville, since when she has been teaching almost uninterruptedly up to the time of her death; with the exception of a single term all her teaching has been done in Forest Co. She began her last term, teaching at Neiltown on Dec. 15; after teaching a week she took a vacation of two weeks, spending the time at home; not feeling well she was urged to give up teaching for awhile, but thinking her strength greater than it was she returned to school, she had taught only a short time after recom-mencing when she was obliged to close school and call medical assistance; getting better she began again and taught until Wednesday evening, Jan.
27, when she again closed school—for the last time forever. Her father, mother and brother were with her at the time of her death. Her remains were taken to her home in Clarington where her funeral took place Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 2 p. m. Those who knew her best loved her most. "And I heard a voice * * * write blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; * * * that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

BEEMAN.—In Tionesta, Pa., on Saturday, Feb. 14, 1880, Warren Beeman, aged 17 years, lacking one day.

In our last issue we mentioned the serious illness of this young man, and said there was little hope of his recovery. He passed away very peacefully between one and two o'clock in the afternoon, having been sick but a little over two weeks. And thus it is that Death has taken off another of our young men in the bloom of health and happiness. Warren bore the respect of all his acquaintances, especially his every-day companions, who knew him best. He was always quiet, unassuming, and never boistrous, and for these excellent traits of character he won the high esteem of all into whose society he was thrown.
He had no bad habits whatever, and bid fair to become a model and useful man. He loved his parents, and showed that love by a disposition to obey and never incur their displeasure.
Although too weak and exhausted to speak before his death he stretched forth his hand and bid all around farewell. Warren was the son of Mrs.
J. R. Chadwick by her former husband, who died in the army. The funeral services, which took place on Monday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. A. O. Stone, and the remains were laid to rest in the M. E. Cemetery, by the side of three other smaller children of the parents. The remains were followed to the grave by an immense concourse of sympathizing friends. And thus were the last sad rites performed over the remains of one who was loved and esteemed by all who knew him. The sorrowing and be-raved parents should in a measure console themselves with the assurance that they have the deep sympathy of the entire neighborhood.
