REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY GREEN, of Northampton County. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, JOHN A. LEMON, of Blair County.

BEAN'S GREENBACK SPLURGE In Howe Township.

On election eve "Father Abram' (i. e., father of the above splurge) called a few of his cronies together; the most prominent of whom were "General" Sam Brecht, "Most High Major General" Warren Bean, better known as "Blinker," and "Lieutenant" Jim White, and roped in "Judge" Tuttle, much against his will, and a large number of Swedes that couldn't vote, and congregated at the Brook'ston Library Hall, and commenced proceedings by going after "Captain" Beckwith, routing the "sick" man out of his bed. After getting the Captain into the hall, Father Abram said: "We mean business." "Captain" Beckwith was, after considerable "whispering," duly nominated and elected chairman of the aforesaid "splurge." Mr. Cameron promptly responded to the position of Secretary,

The house being called to order, "Captain" Beckwith informed the erowd that nominations were in order, after which there was a prolonged whispering to try and ascertain what offices there were to be filled. They, finally led out with the joker by making Father Abram their nominee for the office of Road Commissioner, quickly followed by the nomination of General Sam Brecht for Constable and Collector, which were the only offices they really cared to fill After this several honors were respectfully declined, the chairman, Captain Beckwith, several times orging them to hasten, as he was sick and wanted to get home and go to bed. Finally making all the nominations required, the motion for adjournment was in order, when some one called for a speech, and the Captain was on his feet in a minute with a rip-tearing temperance speech, setting forth the sad effects of King Alcohol, winding up with a jig to the tune of Fisher's Hornpipe-music kindly furnished on the organ by a party present-after which the "Most High Major General" Warren Bean was called on the stage and delivered a Geenback speech, taken from some comic almanae, de claring the annual interest on the public debt greater than the actual debt; his gestures, in the meantime, corresponding to those made by an old lady mixing bread. The crowd then quietly dispersed.

Election morning opened up bright and fair. Father Abram and his "Most High Major General" were promptly on hand, followed closely by "General" Brocht, and the outlook was that a serious fight would take place for the ascendancy. Apropos, the "General" had the fortune to be appointed clerk by one of the Inspectors at the last November election, and was very indigonat when he learned he had a worthy successor. He (the General) claimed to be a member of the election board, but when he found that the Iuspector knew his own business and claimed the right of appointing whom he pleased, the General nearly went crazy; (he only had a little ways to go), he pawed up the tan and swore that he had a right to sit on the board and would have his rights. Pour boy, he is recovering slowly at the present writing.

Greenback" nominees for Auditor was captured by the regulars, surrendered, and said "d-d if he wanted any of their d-d foolishness," and being a loyal democrat voted solid against himself as a candidate for a "Bean It may be a family fight, or boils Greenback" effice. Father Abram pimples, itch, tetter, &c.; but no seeing the shape the "thing" was matter, 'Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher' going, about 9 a. m., went to the Judge is the cure all. For sale by Bovard. of Election and remarked : "I'm going home." The Judge replied "Why you ain't going home before you vote?" "Yes; I won't put in a d-d vote heat and pain across the back, scanty here to-day. There is such a d-d and cloudy urine, by taking Barosma. ring. If I had my men all in a closet Prepared by E. K. Thompson, whole- session. Students can enter at any time. to vote by themselves, I could carry sale druggist, Titusville, Pa. For sale the whole township." Then after or- by Boyard.

dering the "Most High Major General" to clear out, he deserted, vamosed, without even casting a vote for his "Splurge." Nothing could be heard or seen of him the balance of the day, although auxiously inquired after. The General seeing a rabbit going over the hill, shouldered his Winchester and departed in pursuit of said animal, who, having a good start, without doubt escaped his wrath, (which was caused by the desertion of the father of the "Splurge." The last seen of the "Major General" was on a white horse, streaking it for Elk county, possibly to get in a vote at Highland. The incidents of the day were very amusing, and some very telling hits were made.

On counting up by the board the result was found to be for the Regulars, 31; for the "Bean Greenback Splurge," 3; and honor is due to the three who so nobly stood up and voted their "Splurge" ticket after the desertion of their leaders.

OUR HARRISBURG LETTER.

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 20, '80. Around this borough everything has quieted down and not a trace of the excitement two weeks ago can be seen. The doings here at the convention have had the effect of arousing the people in other portions of the State, however, accounts of which you have no doubt read in the papers. Chester and Lancaster counties have both had rousing Blains meetings which culogized their man and condemned Cameron in a very warm degree which together with expressions from other portions of the State will have the effect of sending any other than a solid delegation to Chicago, instructions notwithstanding. There is a vast difference of opinion and it is doubtful if any of the present named can lidates will be the pominee. Sammy Tilden it is conceded will be the democratic nominee, and as there are a good many people who think he was defrauded in '76, who though they generally vote the Republican ticket are liable to vote for him on this account, making him by odds their strongest man. Bayard has all the principles and attributes of a republican so he would not suit the straight outs, and Thorman on account of losing Obio last fall is considered weak. Of our men a good many people object to Grant saying he has had enough and Ceazarism, dictatorship, &c., are their arguments. Braine, I and a good many others would like to see in the executive chair but realize the trouble to get him there. He would have to apologize too much for his actions as representative notably his advocacy of the Chinese bill. Then look at his action on the Force Bill of Senator Morton's. Though a congregationalist pearly all of his relatives are catholics, two of his sisters being in a convent. Sherman though a good man has none of the electric magnetism of the others, being rather cold in his bearing will not be able to command much support. Conkling I do not think will be a candidate. There is likely to be a dead lock which will cause a compromise, and that compromise will be a man who is respected by the adherents of all the candidates, and who when they find it impossible to agree will take up this man against whom nothing has ever been said and who is recognized as one of the leading states men of the day; who has represented the United States abroad as one of its ministers, has dealt with fine diplomatic questions, who could fill the seat acceptably and most important of all could be elected, and this is Elihu B. Washburne. The convention is a good ways off yet and events may transpire that will alter the outlook considerably so we can but wait. The campaign will be a long one (from About 8:30 a. m., one of "Bean's June until November) and will be the
