-Rafting has commenced at the different landings along the creek, and business in that branch is looking somewhat brighter. At Nebraska quite a large force of men are at work, and at the other mills the usual activity is noticeable. Lumbermen are looking forward to an early ruo, all anxious to "get their" first.

-Much good weather for sugar making has been had within the past week or ten days, and we understand some of the citizens in the eastern part of the county are taking advantage of the warm days and making sugar while the sap runs. A considerable Eli. amount of "sap" is being laid in about here this week.

-Last Thursday Prof. Peck's singing class voted to have a concert during court week, and the time was by getting their bills and statements' set for last night, Feb. 24. At the of accounts printed. Statement of bour appointed for the performance to open the court room was comfortably filled. Frof. Peck had arranged a very good programme which was gone through with in fine style. It is impossible for us this morning to particularize, and we will just state that all did well their parts, which we believe are the sentiments of the entire audience. For the short time the class had for rehearsal and practice we doubt if the entertainment could have been improved upon. We should like to take the programme and comment on each performance seperately, but time will not permit. At the close Prof. Peck announced that a second term of lessons would be commenced on Monday next, and that if any new scholars wished to join, a rudimental course would be given, and an hour or two devoted to that branch, aside from the advanced course. The Professor has certainly proved himself master of the art, and any one wishing a thorough knowledge of vocal music should take advantage of the present opportunity.

-Next Friday evening, Feb. 27, the citizens of Tidioute and vicinity will bave an opportunity to show their liberality and sympathy toward suffering and famishing Ireland; and at the same time get the worth of their money and more to. The young men of that place have perfected arrengements for an entertainment to be given at the opera house, by home talent, which, it former similar performances are any criterion, will be worth going a long way to see. The bride is Miss Julia L. Blaisdell, a young lady of Vineland, N. J., where the ceremony is to take place. Eli's many old friends in this section will be agreeably surprised to learn this piece of news, and will join us in wishing him and his helpment joy and peace forever. We are informed that he will hereafter make Tionesta borough his home-moving into his house, Judge Dale's old homestead-which will also be good news to our citizens. Saltpetre won't save you from a "racket" by the boys when you arrive,

-It is reported that Robert Guiton, an old hunter, was recently killed by -Auditor General Schell recently a bear at a place called "Gee Buck," on little Coon Creek in Forest county. When discovered, the man and bear were lying near each other dead and horribly lacerated, indicating there had been a desperate struggle between them. We are without further partieulars .- Clarion Jacksonian.

Well, if that isn't the very worst insult that could be offered to our veteran bear-slayer. The idea that old Uncle Rob't Guiton, the man who has done more to rid our forests of these ferocious animals than any one in the State, should be eaten up by one in this day and age, is simply preposterous. If the man who started this report should ever meet Mr. Guiton he'll probably find him the liveliest "dead" man he ever met.

-By the latest postal decision, bustness men can actually make money account and bills of sale that are made out on paper that is printed at the head, can be sent through the mails for one cent if the envelope is left unsealed; whereas, if made out on unprinted paper they will cost three cents. Thus, by patronizing the printer, two cents can be saved on every bill or statement that is sent through the mails.

-- From some of the citizens o Jenks township, and the eastern part of the county, who are attending court, we learn that the pigeons are very plenty in that section, and netters are beginning to scoop 'em in quite lively. One mon is said to have bad close on a hundred dozen in his net but couldn't hold them, and all but 16 dozen got away. Another man scooped in 30 dozen at one strike. Some of our local "pigeoners" started for there yesterday morning. The pigeons will probably commence nesting about the middle of March.

DUFF'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE. We take pleasure in commending this old, well-managed and successful Business College, which is one of the pop ular institutions of our city, and a "household word" in the community; its fame is widely spread, and its gradnates are everywhere. Educational.

DUTCH HILL, PA., Feb. 21, '80. Everything is serene on the Hill and news being scarce I thought I would attend the Teachers' Educational Association which was adjourned to meet to-day.

On account of the inclemency of the weather the teachers did not assemble until about 10:00 a. m. President F. F. Whittekin convened the Association at 11:00 a. m.

General business was transacted and speedily disposed of. An informal meeting then occupied the remainder of the forenoon.

Afternoon session opened at 2 p. m. The programme as arranged and pubished in the REPUBLICAN was carried out to the letter excepting the part assigned to Prof. Brockway, Co. Supt. who failed to put in an appearance.

The evening session opened at 7:20 the evening session, as the day sessions were, was a grand success.

The Dutch Hillers have the thanks of every member of the Association, for the manner in which they received, welcomed and treated, in words and deeds, all who came to take part in this work.

The next meeting will be held on Whig Hill, March 20, '80. This organization, if it receives the support of those educationally interested, it will prove a power for good. Let the good begun work go on. OBSERVER.

Last Friday evening we had a 'Spelling Bee" at Pinegrove School house which was the best attended affair of the kind we ever heard of in Forest county. There were not less than two hundred people in attendance, and five counties were represented. This shows that Barnett township is not dead, but wide awake in the cause of education.

We chose sides and spelled about three quarters of an hour, with all the school spelling, even little six-year-old of Life," the remainder of their days boys and girls, some of whom didn't miss a word. The house was so Roast Rio Coffee - - crowded there was no chance of "spell- | Rio Coffee, ing down," so we can't say who would | Java Coffee have been the champion speller. After the spelling was over the following programms was gone through with: First, - Dialogues : "Woman's Reform Meeting," by Mrs. White, Misses Rilla Hottell, Emma Kerr, Sadie Kellogg, and Mrs. John Moore. 2nd, "Mrs. Smith's Boarders," by Misses Cilla Mays and Louie Cossgrove, and Messrs. Casty Stevens, Rob Black and Put Hottel. 3rd, "Advertising for a Husband," Emma Kerr, Rilla Hottel and Sammy Ward. 4th, "Timothy's Trouserloons," by Mrs. White, Miss Phoebe Kerr, John Black, Johnnie Davis. Declamation and music were had between each dialogue, and lastly but not least, a paper was read by Casty Stevens and Cilla Mays.

We had splendid order considering the way the house was crowded, and everything passed off quietly and pleasantly.
