Oil 85c. "April showers bring May flowers."

Farmers are tearing up the earth preparatory to spring sowing.

Dad Hulings and Billy Smearbaugh, have gone up into the pigeon woods.

A loon in the river one day last week, after several hours' bombardment, was finally dispatched.

E. L. Davis, Esq., of Tionesta, is to-day announced as a candidate for Assembly, subject to Republican usages.

The diphtheria has broken out in Jacob Wolf's family, at Minister above Newtown, and several of his children are in a critical condition.

"Old Jack," Dad Hulings' dog, has returned to Tionesta after an absence of several months, and occupies his accustomed place on our office stairs.

Work has begun on Judge Proper's barn on Dutch Hill. It is to be 50x75 feet, to have all the modern improvements, and is calculated to be the best barn in the county.

Ben. May was thrown in the neighborhood of 25 feet by a windlass at the mouth of the creek Monday afternoon. Fortunately no injury was done, but it was a hair-breadth escape.

Rev. McLaughlin departed yesterday morning for his home in Pleasantville, after nearly a week's sojourn among our citizens. He is a pleasant gentleman and an earnest worker and made many friends here.

The Free Methodist camp meeting is already billed for the coming summer at Tionesta. Wonder if the Tidoute naves will go down.

A junk boat well laden with scraps came down the "public highway" the Allegheny river, on last Sunday afternoon, but it passed quietly on. The crews of these boats never belong to the Y. M. C. A.

Charlie Bonner thought as how he'd show the boys how to catch trout one day last week. He returned after an all-day's tour with seven monsters, the combined weight of which was over six ounces.

The greenbackers of this county are just now engaged tearing the clothes off some of the prominent members trying to pull them out for office. Erecting "booms" when no one seems to be in a booming mood is up-hill work.

Mr. J. E. Hillard, teacher in the advanced room, was before the board of directors charged with inflicting too severe punishment on scholars. The board voted him an extra supply of birch rods, but requested him not to "bear on" quite so hard next time.

Hon. Wm. F. Wheeler and wife of Portland, N. Y., parents of Hon. N. P. Wheeler, of our county, are visiting their son at East Hickory, we understand. Mr. Wheeler is well known in this county as one of the original firm of Wheeler, Dusenbury & Co.

Messrs. Will Clark and Johnny Thompson started for Kansas yesterday morning. Their objective point is Pleasanton, some distance southwest of Kansas City, where they propose to settle if the location is favorable. If they conclude to stay and the country suits them others will follow shortly. We are sorry to lose such excellent young citizens from our county, but our loss may be their gain, and we wish them abundance of prosperity.

The borough and township officers elected at the late spring elections were sworn in on Monday. It remains now to be seen what set of "galoots" we will have to reign over us for the next year to come. The list at the head of this page will be found corrected.

The butter market in some parts of our county, we understand, is short, and that some get butter from Tidoute. "Any port in a storm," &c. We have always noticed the scarcer an article gets the higher price it appears to command. This last observation is volunteered.

Capt. W. B. Davis, one of the boss wing shots of this State, and a true gentleman every way you take him, spent a few days in town last week. He and Mr. Bacon are out in the beech woods on a prospecting tour at present, and if they see any pigeons flying, will probably just let 'em fly.

Tubbs Run is being cleaned out for the purpose of driving bolts to Jamieson & Copeland's mill at the mouth of the run. Bracket dams will be necessary in order to carry out this plan, and these will be put in forthwith. The arrangement will do away with a great deal of heavy hauling over rough roads.

Bradford experienced another scorching on Friday last. The fire broke out at five o'clock in the morning, and spread with such rapidity that three acres were burned over before it was got under control. Several large hotels and many of the best business blocks were destroyed. One man was burned to death. The loss is over $100,000.

Col. Reisinger, of Meadville, accompanied by his son, Paul, has the honor of slipping in here on the first day of the season, and without asking permission from anybody, "gobbling up" several nice strings of the "speckled beauties." The Colonel prides himself that he has few equals and no superiors in the art of catching trout, but he's never been out with us yet.

The Independent Press of Franklin, hits the nail square on the head in this wise: "Why is it that a teacher may have a high degree of success in one school and almost entirely fail in another? The difference is caused by the influence of the homes upon the children. To work against a teacher is not a sign of culture in any community."

Jamieson & Copeland's mill at Tubbs Run is kept busy sawing "bill stuff," a great deal of which is used by the Railroad Co. Quite a nice lot of oak, pine and hemlock timber is piled about the mill, which gives the place a business-like air. Some parties are building a barge there which is to be used for transporting ice from Henry's Bend to Oil City during the coming summer.

Work on the new F. M. Church in this place has already begun. The edifice will be 30x45 feet, and will be finished up in a neat and tasty manner. Mr. N. S. Foreman has taken the contract of putting up the building, and has articulated to have it completed, ready for occupancy, by the first of July. The entire cost, lot and all, will be between $1,000 and $1,100, nearly $900 of which have already been raised.

The Derriek's oil report for March shows a large increase in the number of wells drilling and completed over February, all of which is very discouraging to producers. The number of wells drilling was increased 106, while the number of rigs built was decreased 15. The increase in wells completed is 87, and the production was increased 673 barrels. In the meantime the market is hovering in the eighties.

The second term of Prof. Peck's singing school closed last night. His scholars have all made rapid progress in the musical line and are loth to part with him, but his time, for a while at least, will be so taken up elsewhere as to make it impossible to teach another term at present. The musical convention which was to take place at the close of this term has been postponed until some time in May or June, when the weather gets pleasant, which is a wise conclusion. Prof. Peck leaves with the best wishes of all.

The little ones love it, and often cry for more—what? "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup," which cures them of coughs, colds, and whooping cough. For sale by Bovard. 2 Ct.

There has been for several evenings of late an interesting series of meetings in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. McLaughlin, of Pleasantville, was the minister. He seemed to be a favorite with all denominations. He seems to have any amount of zeal and earnestness in the great cause, with the faculty of presenting the truth in an acceptable, attractive manner. All who love the truth in its purity could not be otherwise than pleased with him. On Sabbath, April 4, communion services were held. The church was well filled. This is mentioned because one fact is worthy of notice, (not that the people of Tionesta are good church goers only), but that the communicants was far greater than the number of spectators. This speaks well for this community. All the evangelical bodies in the place were represented, showing sincerity in the great work, which is a high commentary on the christianity in the place, and speaks volumes for the soundness of their faith.

Considerable moving and changing of residence has taken place since our last issue. Mr. Joseph Grove, who has purchased Mr. Wolcott's house, has moved in, the latter gentleman taking possession of Mr. G.'s late residence, Mr. Z. T. Sarver occupying part of the house. Mr. John Hart has rented and moved into the Agnew house. Mr. Eli Holeman has moved to town and occupies his beautiful residence, the Dale homestead. Mr. Dithridge has re-moved to his former place across the creek, and John Walters, who just vacated the place has moved into the house at the west end of the creek bridge, recently occupied by Geo. Carr, who now occupies the rooms over Carson's jewelry store. Mr. J. S. Hood's family have moved out on their farm, two miles from town, on the Tylersburg road, and Prof. Brockway has rented Hood's house. If any other changes have taken place they have escaped our notice.

The following officers of Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. of O. F., were installed by D. D. G. M., C. A. Randall at their regular meeting last Friday evening: N. G., D. W. Clark. V. G., P. M. Clark. Sec'y, G. W. Sawyer. Assis't Sec'y, J. H. Dingman. Treas., N. S. Foreman. R. S. N. G., S. H. Haslet. L. S. N. G., Q. Jamieson. R. S. V. G., Dr. J. E. Blaine. L. S. V. G., S. J. Wolcott. Warden, J. H. Fones. Conductor, A. B. Kelly. O. G. C. A. Randall. I. G., R. B. Crawford. Trustee, S. J. Wolcott.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. Wm. Young, who recently moved from the Daniel Stow farm, above the creek bridge, to the widow Alleader farm, in Harmony township, met with a severe injury. While riding a horse the animal stumbled and fell throwing Mr. Young in such a manner as to break his leg. We were unable to learn the particulars, or which leg was broken, but understand it was a compound fracture. Dr. Wilson of Pleasantville was called. This is a very distressing accident for Mr. Young, as it will probably lay him up the greater part of the summer, just when his attention is badly needed on the farm. We hope he may speedily recover.

By the assistance of a "pond-fresh" our lumbermen were enabled to get a large amount of lumber out of the creek, yesterday and the day before. Quite a number of rafts came out from as far up as Buck Mills. Wheeler & Dusenbury, Russell, Root & Watson, Ford & Lacy all got out with some of their lumber. The creek is full of lumber from the mouth to several rods above the bridge, but very little of it will get away on this rise, as the river is falling, and there is scarcely enough water to get over the dam. May & Kelly succeeded in booming the most of their logs; a few of them, however were lost, as is the case generally in driving logs.

Lost, A satchel, on the Maple Creek road, somewhere between Clarington and Marienville. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to Thos. J. Russell, Tionesta, Pa.

Morris, the Tailor of Oil City, Pa., can't be beaten for low prices and perfect fits. He has just received his Spring and Summer stock of elegant goods, which he is prepared to make into suits at astonishingly low prices. When in need of anything in the clothing line don't fail to go there for it. Mr. Morris does all his own cutting, thereby saving the expense of $1,800 to $2,000 annually, all of which goes to his customers. He will guarantee a fit and perfect satisfaction in every instance. He has just finished up and enlarged his store room, and besides his tailoring department carries a splendid variety of gents' furnishing goods, and if you want a silk handkerchief, necktie, linen collar, pair of cuffs, or anything in that line his is the place to get it, as he keeps the very latest styles always in stock. Mr. M. defies competition. Give him a trial. It.
