Thompson 100, 93, 29; Nettie Thomp-In response to a request from the Secretary of War, Gen. Harry White has written a letter in regard to the improvement of the Allegbeny river, from which we call the following:

I would further suggest that one or two crane boats be put upon the river in charge of trusty, industrious parties, who know the channel, for the removal of rocks and snags and to do some dredging here and there. I may remark that at several places along the river furnaces, rolling mills and glass works have been constructed and started up within the past year, such as Kittauning, mouth of Red Bank. Mahoning, Parker and other points. I am informed large quantities of iron ore are carried now in boats to the new enterprise at Kittanning, and complaints are made of some obstructions here and there.
