CHAIRMAN BARNUM muzzled Hampton, but he cannot muzzle Robert Tombs. STUFFED ballot-boxes in the South will in a measure be dependent upon stuffed census returns this year.

GENERAL BUTLER agrees with the Democrats that it is time for a change. Like the Democrats, he has been "out" for a good while, and thinks a change will take him in.

No man in the county worked harder than he (Siggins) did for Mr. Barr, for State Treasurer last fall. We have only the Democrat's word for that. The voters have serious doubts in regard to it, and would like to have Mr. Siggins come out over his own signature and say so.

SINCE the unlucky Staunton speech, Wade Hampton has not taken the stump. He feels that it isn't safe to say what he believes in these days when newspaper reporters lurk on every side and truth travels with the speed of the wind.

THE Chairman of the Greenback State Committee in Maine has severed his connection with the fusionists and joined the Republicans. The herd-headed old Maine farmers who were led astray by the Greenback craze can never be induced to affiliate with the Democracy.

DURING the month of August the principal of the National debt has been reduced over twelve millions of dollars. The thing has been going on about as long as the Democratic party can stand it, and they want a change. The South needs the money "to recover from the devastating effects of the cruel war."

to the reduction of the debt, thus relieving the nation from the burdens of a heavy annual interest account. Let the Democrats once come into power and they will inaugurate a change that will put a sudden stop to the monthly reductions in the national debt.

THE election of Mr. S. M. Smith, Republican, as City Recorder of Williamsport, is a genuine "straw." Judge Hepburn, Democrat, was beaten by a majority of 571. At the last Governor's election Hoyt had a plurality over Dill of only 47 votes.

THE Greenbackers of Venango are badly split up in consequence of Short's nomination for Congress, the more sensible members of the party flatly refusing to be delivered over to the hard-moued Democratic banker. W. C. Rheem resigned his Chairmanship of the County Committee last week, and Wesley Chambers, of Oil City, was appointed his successor.

Two years ago James Mosgrove subscribed to the following solemn pledge: I, James Mosgrove, do pledge my sacred honor to support the platform of the National Party adopted at Toledo, February 22d, 1878, and the principles set forth in the platform of the National Greenback Labor Party, of Pennsylvania, adopted at Philadelphia, May 9th, 1878; and I further pledge myself as willing to use every honorable means to elect the State Ticket, and to insure the success of the National Greenback Labor Party, in the Presidential contest in 1880.

At the recent meeting of the Greenback County Committee of Clarion, he was asked to declare himself on the Presidential and financial questions, whereupon he said, "I think the better policy for me is not to say." If Mosgrove is the pure, honest and upright man his friends claim he is why not come out square-toed and tell what he is. But then, as he says, it is policy for him now to keep mum.

In view of the false utterances of some people about our Congressman, Harry White, we recall what everybody knows, but may not think of at the moment. Gen. White was, in the fall of 1862, while in the army, elected to the Senate of the State. President Lincoln sent him a leave of absence for the session while the army was in winter quarters.

THE Chairman of the Greenback State Committee in Maine has severed his connection with the fusionists and joined the Republicans. The herd-headed old Maine farmers who were led astray by the Greenback craze can never be induced to affiliate with the Democracy.

Judicial Conferences.

The Greenback Judicial Conference of this district, composed of Warren, Elk and Forest counties, met at Irvineton on Friday last and nominated Hon. R. Brown, of Warren—the Democratic candidate—for President Judge, throwing their own candidate, Geo. A. Rathburn Esq., of Elk, the regularly announced Greenbacker, overboard. Elk county's three conferees and one from Warren voted for Mr. Rathburn, while the other two from Warren and Forest's three supported Brown, and secured his nomination. We understand the attempt was made to make Mr. Brown's nomination unanimous, but Rathburn's four supporters refused to concur. Thus do the Greenbackers show their boasted principles. We have always contended that the Greenback leaders, so-called, were endeavoring to deliver the party over to the Democracy and this action proves conclusively that such is the case, else why do they nominate a straight-out Democrat in preference to one of their own party who sought the honor, and had the support of four out of the nine delegates. Had Mr. Rathburn withdrawn from the contest, or had they had no candidate of their own, their action in the matter would have presented an entirely different aspect. But that is the way the machine has been working all over; and in every case where a fusion has been made it has been with the Democrats. It has been so on county officers in both Warren and Venango counties; it has been so in the 26th Congressional district, and it has been so in this district. Isn't it about time the Republican Greenbackers were getting a bite? We ask you, then, in all candor and kindness to ponder over this matter. Look before you leap. Will you allow yourselves thus to be led into the Democratic camp by a few self-styled "bosses" who imagine they own the party?

The Democrats held their convention at Warren on Monday and also placed Hon. R. Brown in nomination. It now remains to be seen whether or not the honest Greenbackers, especially the Republican portion of them, will consent to be used as pack-horses to transport grist to the Democratic hopper. It might be well to mention, so that the people will understand fully, that the Greenback conferees from this county were all Democrats formerly.
