REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Supreme Judge, HENRY GREEN, of Northampton County. For Auditor General, JOHN A. LEMON, of Blair County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Congress, Gen. HARRY WHITE, of Indiana County. For President Judge, Hon. WM. D. BROWN, of Warren County. For Assembly, E. L. DAVIS. For Associate Judge, AMZA PURDY. For County Treasurer, N. S. FOREMAN. For County Surveyor, F. F. WHITTEKIN. For Coroner, N. THOMPSON.

We understand that the Greenback and Democratic parties of McKean county are trying to make a contract whereby they will divide their votes with candidates on either side.—Duke Centre Enterprise.

ONE of the curious incidents of the joint debate in Indiana recently between the two candidates for Governor, was the Republican candidate holding a light for the Democratic candidate to decipher his votes.—Derick.

WHAT has become of all this talk about Republican soldiers and other Republicans going over to Hancock? Vermont don't show any defection of the kind, but on the contrary gives good warrant for a shrewd suspicion that the boot is quite on the other leg.

GENERAL WEAVER, the Greenback candidate for President, says there is no prospect of a fair count or honest election in Alabama, without the intervention of federal supervisors at the polls. He warns all Greenbackers from falling into the trap of the Democracy, which is baited with small offices.

GENERAL WHITE has invited Mr. Mosgrove to a joint discussion of the political issues of the present campaign on the stump. It is believed that the "Old-man-a-fraid-to-tell-who-he-is-going-to-vote-for" will not accept, as he lacks one very necessary thing to do so successfully—ability.—Brookville Republican.

THE New York Tribune having accused Congressman Beltzhoover of Pennsylvania of lying when he denied the authorship of his letter saying the rebel Congressman were averse to passing pension bills, now invites and urges him to bring a $100,000 libel suit against itself. He probably will not do it. The evidence against him is conclusive. It is evident that Mr. Beltzhoover's career as a statesman is at an end.

HON. RASSELLS BROWN, our candidate for President Judge is a man about sixty-five years of age.—Democrat.

We have the best of authority for the statement that Hon. R. Brown is in the sixty-ninth year of his age. However, it is not the Judge's fault that he is in his sixty-ninth year, yet to the voters of the district it may seem to be a great indiscretion in a man of his age attempting to perform the hazardous task of riding two horses in the political arena.

REPUBLICANS are not the only ones who expect to see Indiana go against the Democrats in October, some of the more candid Democrats admit that the signs favor that conclusion. When Mr. Porter, the Republican candidate for Governor of that State, visited New Albany last week the most influential Democratic journal of the town remarked: "There is no denying that the Republicans are enthusiastic and confident. They are peculiarly fortunate in their gubernatorial candidate, and this is in their favor, and they have no internal dissensions and trickery in their party, which is also greatly to their advantage."

GENERAL TOOMES, of Georgia, he who promised years ago to call the roll of his slaves at the foot of Bunker Hill, comes out for Hancock in the following manner:

"We cannot put in one of our own men this time and have to take a 'Yank.' That being the case, let us take one who is less 'blue-bellied' than the most of them. You may depend upon it, sir, that 'Yank or no 'Yank,' if elected, the old Yanks of the South will see that Hancock does the fair thing by them. In other words he will run the machine to suit them or they will run the thing themselves. They are not going to be played with any longer. If you hear any man say that Hancock cannot carry all of the South, you may put him down as a d—d fool."

THE Democrat, seeing the effect our Alabama letter is having on the Democracy of this county, and knowing that unless something was done it would be the effect of changing a goodly number of votes, resorts to its accustomed tactics of "lying out of it," and endeavors to persuade the people that the letter is a fraud. We think we settled that matter when we invited all skeptically inclined to call around and see the original. We still hold out the invitation, and can convince any honest voter of its genuineness. We will further state that the author was one of the Greenback candidates for Auditor in this county two years ago, and all will agree that Kepler is no more to be compared to him in point of truth and veracity—or any other way, for that matter—than Old Belzebub is to Geo. Washington. The gentleman intimated in his letter that it would be made very unpleasant for him or any one else were it known that they were exposing the outrageous frauds of the rebel Brigadiers down there, and for this reason cautioned us against giving his name. We have, however, examined the election returns of his county and find that his assertion is correct that the county had heretofore given 3,500 Republican to 1,200 Democratic votes until this year, owing to their having been able heretofore to get fair elections. The editor of the Democrat knows full well that the letter is genuine, and that the author is highly respected by all his acquaintances as a gentleman of truth and veracity, and all his cries of fraud will avail him nothing. Time was when these stories of rebel bulldozing were looked upon as campaign stories, but the utterances of such arch traitors as Wade Hampton and Bob Taombs, coupled with the evidence of respectable citizens who have left our own neighborhood and gone down there and viewed it with their own eyes is sufficient for all honest people, and cannot be gainsaid by men who have assisted bounty-jumpers and deserters to evade the law, and did all in their power to resist the draft.

Mr. Yost has clearly made out his case; and General Hampton was indiscreet, to say the least, when he denied that his remarks were correctly reported; he no doubt used language which conveyed a meaning that he did not wish or intend to convey.

present Congress, under the leadership of the Rebel Brigadiers. It is only amazing as coming from a Democratic Congressman—an official leader in the party that is appealing to Northern soldiers to vote for Hancock. Poor Beltzhoover discovers the preposterous inconsistency too late, and now declares the letter a forgery. His friend, the Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald, tells him that this is not enough—he must straightway sue the local paper, Carlisle Herald, for libel for publishing it, and prove his case before election in the courts. The advice is admirable.

But, Beltzhoover, don't sue in a small way. The Tribune published the letter. Sue us. Sue us at once, and get the matter to an immediate trial. Sue for a hundred thousand dollars. That is the smallest sum any blackguard asks us for telling the truth about him to his hurt. Don't you sue for a penny less. And that you have no trouble in proving the essential facts of our offense, we herewith repeat it in detail:

We say you did write the letter. You wrote it to E. W. Curriden of Chambersburg. You wrote all of it, text and signature. You lied, when you said it was a forgery. You lied, knowingly and deliberately, hoping to deceive your constituents. You did not then know that we had the original, and you thought you could lie your way through.

There, Mr. Beltzhoover;—there's your material for a libel suit. Now come along with it. Let the Carlisle Herald alone. Sue the Tribune.

What Southern Journals Say of it.

From the Richmond Whig (Democratic.) That Hampton should have been so silly and indiscreet at Staunton as to talk of Funderism and even Democracy as the cause of Lee and Jackson, was no great matter, but that he should have taken so much pains to deny it, and that, too, with all solemnity, is a matter of grievous magnitude.

From Richmond Dispatch (Democratic.) Mr. Yost has clearly made out his case; and General Hampton was indiscreet, to say the least, when he denied that his remarks were correctly reported; he no doubt used language which conveyed a meaning that he did not wish or intend to convey.

PROCLAMATION.
