REPUBLICAN MASS-MEETING!

There will be a Grand Republican Mass-Meeting, under the auspices of the Republican party of Forest county,

The people of Forest county are most cordially invited to attend and listen to the speeches of some of the best talent in the country. The Republicans are especially requested to come out and lend their aid in making this meeting one of the largest and

SPEAKING of the Judicial question of this district, the Commonwealth thinks that inasmuch as we got all our information from one of the Conforces concerning their meeting at Irvineton, our comments were unbecoming. This is not the case. Mr. Diagman did give us a scanty idea of 14, 1880, and were organized ipated my voice and vote in legislation what was done, but the authority upon by electing Hon. This does not correspond very well with the opinion of one of the Forest conferees, who was not at all backward in saying that Rathburn was in no way fit for the position, and had the Greenbackers nominated him they would have been the laughing stock of the entire district.

There is another very significant for the following reasons, viz: fact to be taken into consideration with regard to the Greenback conference, and that is that one of the conferees, from this county, a former Republican, stayed at home, for some reason or peril. other, and a Democratic Greenbacker was substituted in his place. We mention this to show which way the feelings of the delegation from this county would naturally tend, -next to in the State Senate. their own party give them Democratie ideas, "and a tariff for revenue only." This fusion business with Democrats is getting just a little too thick for many of the more consistent Greenbackers of Forest county, and they will not be backward about showing it at the polls in November.

Takes us to Task.

Our time-honored old friend T. J. Payce, of Tylersburg, takes exceptions to an item which appeared in our paper some time ago, under the head of "Scattering Notes," and wants to know the chap's name who penned it This we have not the right to give, and it would be a breach of trust on our part to comply with Mr. Payne's request. But let us dissect the item and see what there is in it so terribly nauseating to our good Democratic friend. The item referred to is as follows:

Can any Democrat in the county tell why he is a Democrat? Does anyworking for? How many voters know why they vote as they do? Now think!

"Can any Democrat tell why he is a Democrat?" We see nothing wrong in this conundrum. If a voter can't tell why he votes the Democratic, Republican or Greenback ticket he most enthusiastic ever held in Forest ought to be ashamed of himself and ought not to have the cheek to offer his ballot. "Does anybody know the of Pittsburgh, one of the best speakers distinctive principles of the Democratic party?" That is a question which has set many a great mind to thinking, and we don't think any have ever been able to fathom the mystery. If the Democratic party have any "distinctive principles" we readily confess that we have never been able PARKER, PA., Monday, Aug. 5, 1879. to discover them. "What are the great moral questions they are working for?" That's another muted question, and we "give it up." We don't think it is fair for our correspondents Creek Lake, will furnish music for the to ask such hard questions, and we won't allow it any more either. "How many voters know why they vote as Mosgrove has defined his position they do?" This may be meant for at last: He is favor of being elected the Democratic party; it may the to Congress if he can get votes enough. Two years ago Every voter should be able to give he was in for the Greenbackers first, his reasons for voting as he does. He last and all the time, but now he is in should read and reflect, and vote as for the Democrats a little, too; and his conscience dictates. He wants Mr. Mosgrove to Debate on the Stump With Him.

Special to the Commercial Gazette. Indiana, Pa., September 5.—Gen. Harry White has sent a challenge through Capt. J. H.
