Garfield and Arthur Club.

On Monday evening last a number of the Republicans of Tionesta and vicinity met at Lawrence's Hall and formed the nucleus of what promises to be a dourish ing Republican Club. The meeting had not been advertised very extensively, in consequence of which there was not as large a turnout as would otherwise have been. After some consultation it was decided to make the meeting an informal one, and prepare for a rousing gathering the musical line will not be slow to on Saturday evening. Capt. C. W. Clark was made temporary chairman and P. M. Black Esq., Secretary, Remarks were then made by a number of those present, giving their ideas of what should be done in the future. As there were quite a number present who could probably not attend the meeting next Saturday, the Secretary was instructed to prepare a roll and | Parties coming to town on court week | house, for the purpose of being organ- | tirely satisfactory. invite all who wished to sign it,-their are invited to call and examine his ized into a Hancock club. names to be afterwards transferred to the regular club roll. This was done, and in a very thort time thirty-three had subscribed thereto. After a few more remarks and congratulations the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for the whole ticket. The Club will permanently organize next Saturday evening, when it is hoped every Republican will be in attendance, and if possible induce his Democratic or Greenback neighbor to come out and join.
