LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Court week. Pay your taxes. The river is very low.

Titusville is to have an alpaca factory. You can shoot pheasants after October 1st.

Mr. L. Agnew came over from Oil Creek Lake with the band. Oil market opened yesterday at $1.00.

Ab. Grove and John Hart came down from Bradford Monday evening. Miss Allie Cummings, of Venango county, is visiting her cousin, Miss Linnie Grove.

Mr. Benj. May, of Norristown, is among his many old Forest county friends once more. Hon. J. B. Agnew and mother in-law, Mrs. McKay, arrived from Harrisburg on Friday last.

The substantial calls of our patrons and friends this week have been too numerous to mention. The Greenbackers enthuse tonight. F. S. Heath, of Corry, and Capt. Butler, of Tidioute, are billed as the spokesmen.

The Republican meeting on Monday was a grand success, and laid completely over the Democratic blowout of last night in every particular. After a somewhat protracted silence our Harrisburg correspondent comes to the front with a rattling good letter, which we hope will be read by all our subscribers.

For Boots and Shoes, all styles, sizes and prices; for wool yarn and flannels; for cotton goods of all kinds; for ready made clothing go to Robinson & Bonner.

The State Normal School offers teachers the best of advantages at very low rates. Opens Aug. 24. Address for circulars, J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Pa.

The Democratic meeting last night was a long, dry, tame affair. The house was quite well filled, but another such sleepy, yawning crowd we never saw.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the third Anniversary of the Adelphe Literary Society, of Bellevue, Jefferson Co., Academy, to take place Oct. 1st.

The Pipe Line running through the woods near Brookston is leaking badly and oil is running upon the waters of the branch of Tionesta creek.

The Eric Annual Conference of the M. E. Church was held at Corry last week. We notice among the appointments that Rev. J. F. Hill, formerly of Enterprise, has been assigned to this charge.

The Bloomfield Cornet Band, which furnished the music for the political meetings of this week, is composed of as gentlemanly a set of men as could be found anywhere.

The meeting at the Lawrence House on Saturday evening last for the purpose of completing the organization of a Garfield and Arthur Club was postponed until next Saturday.

Hon. Wm. D. Brown, our candidate for President Judge, was in town this week. Mr. Brown makes friends wherever he goes, and is gaining votes every day.

Some sort of ladies scarf or head-gear, black silk and elaborately fringed, was found on the street and brought to this office, where the owner will please call and take it away.

Two wagons, considerable hickory brush, one horse, and one carriage, presumably some beer, (the latter in a coffee-pot in the carriage) left this place on Friday afternoon.

Geo. Osgood lost a five-dollar bill on the streets yesterday. He don't much expect to see it again, but if the finder wants to show his honor and receive a suitable reward therefor he will return the same to the owner.

Do not fail to call at Robinson & Bonner's and examine their stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, &c. Everything sold at bottom prices.

The following item was crowded out of our last issue: Rev. J. Barnhart bid farewell to his congregation on Sunday evening last.

In the Stoneham oil field three wells were torpedoed on Saturday last, but they had not been tubed yet.

Last Saturday was a gala day for our sportsmen, and they all enjoyed it thoroughly. All hands were up and in the woods before daylight in the morning.

The hunt was a complete success. As is usual on such occasions the boys all want to try it over, declaring that they can do better next time.

The game brought in was principally black and red squirrels, with now and then a gray.

SCATTERED SHOTS. The list of the game and count was as follows: Wildcat 25, fox 20, coon 10, groundhog 10, hawk 10, owl 10, woodcock 10, porcupine 5, crow 7, kingfisher 5, pigeon 5, gray squirrel 7, black 5 and red 2.

Robinson & Bonner, having made a new departure by way of adding a clothing room to their establishment, are now prepared to suit the most fastidious in mens', boys' and youths' clothing, at prices that defy competition.

The undersigned having open a new market in Tionesta will hereafter supply the people with fresh meats of all kinds at very low prices.

REPUBLICAN GRAND RALLY.

Monday Night's Meeting—By all odds the Largest, Grandest and Most Enthusiastic Political Demonstration ever Witnessed in Forest County.

The crowded state of our streets, Monday, evidently meant something more than mere attendance at court and the sequel fully proved this. It had been previously announced that the Republicans of this district would assemble and discuss the important issues of the day and such an influx of people from all directions this county never before witnessed.

Vice Presidents—Barnett township, Hon. Wm. R. Coon; Jenks, James A. Scott; Howe, J. B. White; Green, L. Arner; Harmony, John Thompson; Kingsley, F. C. Gillespie; Hickory, Henry Church; Tionesta, G. Jamieson; Tionesta Boro, Jacob Wenk.

The first speaker of the evening, Hon. H. H. McCormick, of Pittsburg late United States District Attorney, was then introduced and for an hour and a half held the undivided attention of the audience.

Last on the list was Joseph Buffington, Esq., of Kittanning, the youngest person speaking, but as it proved one of the most eloquent. Taking the subject of the loss of revenue collections during the time of Van Buren, which amounted to $11.71 on the thousand, he showed the rapid decrease until now it foots up but one third of a cent on a similar amount.

After a round of tremendous applause for the Republican nominees and a red hot anecdote by the chair, the assembled multitude and particularly the unusual large number of ladies present, were complimented for their close attention to the grand old doctrines which have made the stars and stripes universally respected and enabled fifty millions of people to exist in the midst of plenty. And so closed the largest demonstration which this section has ever seen.

Gen. White was much missed by the audience. He was on his way here, but missed connections and did not arrive until Tuesday morning.

Court Proceedings.

Court met on Monday, Hon. W. P. Jenks presiding; Associates, Kerr and Rack. The term was of less than ordinary interest, and but little business of importance was transacted.

Case of Commonwealth vs. G. W. Otto, charge, larceny and receiving stolen goods; not a true bill. Com. vs. F. Forbes, charge, seduction, on oath of Jenny Rhodes; held to bail in the sum of $600 for his appearance at next term of court.

Nicodemus vs. Nicodemus, verdict for plaintiff for $532.50. Weiler for use vs. Blaine et al, nonsuit taken. Tinker & Co., vs. Reid, Executor, settled. McMillen vs. Mong, settled.

Com. for use vs. Knox, Executor, verdict for defendants. Duff vs. Forest Co., nonsuit taken. Shamburg vs. Hays, verdict for defendant. Balance of cases on the list were continued.

The following attorneys were admitted: J. D. James, Warra; M. A. K. Weidner, Clarion; L. R. Freeman, Franklin; Jos. Buffington, Armstrong; T. F. Ritchey, Tionesta.

Goods cheap at Aug. 11, '80. HASLET & SONS. Go to G. W. Bovards for Mrs Freeman's New National Dyes. For brightness and durability of color they are unequalled. Color 2 to 6 lbs., price 15 cents. 33-ly.

DIED.

At the house of R. O. Carson, in Neilltown, Thursday night, Sept. 23, 1880, John Scott, in the 35th year of his age.

The deceased was born in Ireland from whence he came to this country about 14 years ago, he had no relatives living in America; his mother, a sister, and two brothers live near the city of Belfast, Ireland. He had lived with Mr. R. O. Carson, at whose house his death occurred, for the last 12 years, during which time he had performed his duties as an employer, his good habits, and quiet and gentlemanly ways, gained the respect and esteem, not only of Mr. Carson's family, to whom his death was like the calling away of one of their own, but also of all who knew him.
