reported to be from 22,000 to 25,000 | bills are still held by people in Warthousand. If this is true the party is short some 15,000 of its votes in 1878.

KEEP the ball rolling, Republicans. Persuade your wavering neighbor that if he wants to join in the festivities of a November victory he should vote the Republican ticket.

THE Democrats have abandoned the "329" campaigning process in Ohio and Indiana. A little more of that enough, but in order to have any efkind of business may lose them the States of Georgia and Alabama.

HANCOCK has sent no congratulatory dispatch to the Governor electrof Indiana that we have heard of. He congratulated Mr. Plaisted of Maine why couldn't he as consistenly congratulate Mr. Porter of Indiana?

THE Democrat has thus far neglected to hang out that dirty shirt giving the returns from Indiana. There was no more in the Maine elections to crow over than there was in the Indiana coutest, so why not unfurl that dirty the resumption of specie payments on garment?

In explanation of the figures "329" the following has been offered: Gen, Garfield was three times a member of the Ohio Legislature, twice a State Senator and nine times a member of the House of Representatives. In November we will elect him President and make the number 330.

THERE has been much speculation in this county as to who nominated or A. L. Siegworth, endorsed James Mosgrove. The Clarion Paul Rickenbrode, Democrat the organ of the party in that county, and the most influential H. Sutter, G. H. Sutter, Democratic paper in the District, Chas. Hylander, effectually settles that matter in the Daniel Evernarth following language: "Even this year, 1880, we have not endorsed the greenback candidate. The democracy of John Rathbun, this 25th congressional district had a right to nominate whom they pleased; they nominated James Mosgrove."

FROM every part of the county we have the most encouraging reports. The Republicans are everywhere at work for the success of the whole ticket, and as the day of election approaches their efforts will be increased no intensified. What we need is a full vote, and victory will be ours, Let there be no lukewarmness any-

As To the gentleman saying to Kepler after reading the D. & D. article in our last issue, and the remarks attributed to Kepler, is branded by the said Kepler as a lie, and challenge you to present the man who said so .- Dem-

For the truth of our assertion that Kepler did make the remarks we attributed to him, that is, that he (Kepler) said he knew "Dale and Davis were not working for each other, but he must say so just to keep up the agitation," we refer the editor to Mr. J. C. Hoovler and Marshal Anderson, to whom he made the remark at the depot. If necessary a statement can be had showing this to be a fact. Now crawl out of it if you can.

WE are very sorry that the REPUB-LICAN has seen fit to drag the question of President Judge into the dirty slough of politics. We are able of our own personal knowledge to say that our neighbor has been grossly misinformed when he says "that the swindeling North Western Bank of Warren went up the spout under the management of Hon. Rasselas Brown, leaving its depositers and bill holders to mourn its untimely end." Not a single depositor nor a single bill holder in the Western Bank .- Commonwealth. we published the item referred to, to drag the President Judgeship into politics, as that was done when the three delegates from this county met the others of the district, at Irvineton, of their own party. That is when "the question of President Judge was dragged into the the dirty slough of politics." If it is an office which should not enter politics, and the Greenbackers had no candidate fit for the position, as they admitted, why didn't they leave the ticket blank and say to their And now boys close up and move for you, and you must vote for a Demassure our friend James that we are not misinformed, and that no man THE Greenback vote in Indiana is knows better than he that lots of these ren county, and they will readily make their appearance if the managers of that bank or any one else will redeem them. Again. If Bro. James is so conscientious about what is said in regard to the Judgeship, why does he copy into his paper the same week, a half column article from the Warren Ledger, reflecting upon Wm. D Brown? Does not this look just a little inconfect the people must be convinced that the preacher practices what he preach-

FRYBURG, PA., Oct. 5th, 1880. Eb. REPUB.-GAZETTE: - We the undersigned citizens and voters of Washington township, Clarion county, felt it our duty in 1878 to vote the Greenback ticket. We believing that persistence in the effort to bring about the first of January, 1879 was unwise and would injure the business of the country. Now that event being past and resumption a success we find no issue of the Greenback party upon which to stand, and we intend this year to vote the Republican ticket.

'THAT SAME OLD COON"

The Result much better than at first Reported.

Ohio good for 30,000 and nationals are one-third as strong in the Indiana for 15,000 for Garfield in November.

Garfield's election no longer a matter of Doubt.

GLORY ENOUGH FOR CHE DAY.

Last week we had only time and room to give a meagre report of the elections in Ohio and Indiana, but we didu't miss our guess a particle; in fact we only told part of the glorious | candidate for Congress is worthy of our county of Warren, or in the county of news. Ohio, besides electing the entire support, why not their state and county Forest ever last a dollar by the North State ticket by 20,000 majority, gained six Congressmen, giving the It is not our desire, nor was it when Republicans sixteen out of the twenty. Indiana did better still. She elects Porter, Republican candidate for Governor, and the entire State ticket by over 5,000, gains two Congressmen, making the delegation eight Repuband by their action directed the Green- licans and five Democrats; captures backers of Forest county to vote for a the legislature by a majority of at straight Democrat instead of a member | least 12 on joint ballot, thus insuring the election of a Republican U. S. Senator in place of McDonald, Democrat. This is glory enough for one day, and makes Indiana sure for Garfield in November. It seems now to be a settled fact that the Solid South will be met by a Solid North, and the second of November will bring another party, "You are at liberty to choose crushing defeat to the disheartened between the two Browns; we will not and confused Democracy. The Demdictate to you." But no; they, by ocrats counted dead sure on Indiana, further lease of life, by deserting the old their action at Irvineton, tell their and built largely on carrying Ohio, flag and supporting a third party ?-Demparty in substance, "We will choose but the glorious victory for the Re- ocrat, Oct. 17th, 1878. publicans has knocked the noise completely out of them, and the rank and file refuses to be comforted; even the great leaders are heart-broken and have no means of knowing. That the quarreling among themselves. The great victory has put new life into the Republican hosts everywhere, and while it has given them a great advantage in the coming contest, it should not be taken as entirely decisive, and the victory must be followed up in order to secure a like result through- dollar flour at twelve dollars, and shilling out the northern states. While the Republicans of both States have surpassed expectations, it must be resistent? A good sermon is all well membrered that there are two weeks more of energetic work and unceasing vigilence to be put in before the election is finally gained. Pennsylvania will send greetings to General Garfield on the 3d day of November with a majority of 30,000, to which little Forest will contribute her share, and let every true Republican constitute himself a committee of one to bring about the grand result. Off with your coats, as it were, and work unceasingly from now until election is over. Now is the time to strike.

MR. MOSGROVE RECORD OF THE CLARION DEMOCRAT IN 1878.

We give below the Mosgrove record of the Clarion Democrat, in 1878. That paper then, as will be seen by the record, opposed Mr. Mosgrove from principle. At the present time it supports him from motives of expediency. Democrats from principle cannot vote for Mosgrove without stultifying themselves. The conditions of the congressional contest, so far as the Democracy and Mr. Mosgrove are concerned are the same now as then. If, as CHICAGO SINGER SEWING MACHINE claimed by Democratic feaders, Mr. Mosgrove, as the Greenback candidate is a consistent Democrat now, why did that party reject him under same ranted. conditions in 1878. No party can afford such flagrant abandonment of principle and retain the support of their consistent members. Here is the record. Read it:

Congressional.

It is probable before another issue of this paper a nomination will be made for Congress in this 25th district by the Democratic conferces. The meeting will be held, as suggested by the Indiana Democrat of last week, in this place, August 22," There will be an effort made to have James Mosgrove, the national candidate, nominated. Having no objection to Mr. Mosgrove personally, we still think it would not be wise to nominate him it is urged that he was always heretofore a Democrat; that he was put forward by the Armstrong county Democrats for Congress before he received the national nomination, and that this coalition is the only means of carrying the district over the Republican candidate, which may be important if the Presidential election in 1880 is thrown in the house of representatives. The very fact of his having been formerly a Democrat coupled with the endorsement of the Democratic district convention, will drive the nationals who were formerly Republicans to yote for White. And as to a hypothetical contest in 1880 in the house, it may be that it might be preferable to have a Republican member, or it may be that the Republican and national parties will be consolidated before that time; and James Mosgrove has pledged his sacred honor to use every honorable means to insure the success of the national party in the presidential contest in 1880. We object to digging a pit and falling into it. If the district as they claim to be, and if the proportion of Republicans is as great in the strong Republican counties of Indiana and Armstrong as in the Democratic county of Clarion, then a Democrat can be elected in the district. Even were defeat certain with an endorsement of the national candidate, we would prefer the former, not from any objection to the principles, members or candidates of the national party, but from the demoralization it would cause in our own ranks. The organization and success of the Democratic party in Clarion county to us is of greater importance than temporary success in the district. If the nationals' nominees? If Democratic voters are requested to vote for one, a large precentage will struggle over the whole ticket, Besides, Clarion county Democrats have not forgotten the lesson of 1872. They were asked to vote for Greeley, and instead of the usual majority of 1,000 for our ticket. Grant carried the county by 200, and we lost a state senator. Give us a straightout Democrat, one that we can tie to, from any county in the district, and Democrats can work for him with a will, and most probably elect him. Let us win, if we can, the district in a square fight, but not conspire for it so that the victory, if won, as won it must be by the Democratic party, will not work us greater injury than good .- Democrat, August 15th,

We have the hero of the Kiskiminetas and the hero of Skin All, both running for Congress, but Guffey will be elected .-Democrat, Oct. 17th, 1878.

Will the Democrats of Clarion county be foolish enough to help the corrupt monopoly fostering, bond serving, presi-

Mosgroye, one of the owners of "Skin All" furnace, expects to be elected to Congress by the aid of Democratic votes, Just on what grounds he puts his claims we Greenbackers should nominate him because he was a bond holder is no reason why Democrats should encourage him with their votes. It is urged in his favor that he kept his furnace running through all the hard times: but everybody knows that the iron business was a losing one, and it could only be made to pay by low wages for the hands, and selling eight calico at twenty cents a yard .- Democrat, Oct. 17th, 1878.
