LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY AT EAST HICKORY, PA., THIS

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 27.

GEN. HARRY ALLEN, OF WARREN, AND DR. S. S. TOWLER, OF MARIENVILLE.

Will address the People. Turn out Everybody.

—Rev. Brown will preach in the F. M. Church on Sunday evening next.

—M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Rain and mud.

—Hallow E'en next Sunday night.

—Politics is of more account now than anything else.

—Vote early, Republicans, and then put in the rest of the day working for the whole ticket.

—Get your ballots ready for election next Tuesday, and vote the straight Republican ticket.

—Tab oysters, fresh sweet potatoes, fine cheese, concord grapes this week at Wm. Suncarbaugh & Co.

—Morris Einstein has arrived in Philadelphia from his European trip, and will be home in time to vote.

—With malice toward none and charity for all, we say to all Republicans stand by the ticket.

—John T. Dale, tool-dresser from Bradford, has come home to see his many friends and exercise the suffrage right.

—Vote for Garfield and Arthur, Lemon, Green, Wm. D. Brown, White, Davis, Purdy, Foreman, Whittekin and Church.

—It may be that our paper will be delayed a day next week, in order to give full election returns. However, if possible, we'll be out on time.

—Judge Wetmore and Associates Kerr and Reck held argument court on Monday and part of yesterday. No business of general importance was transacted.

—Our little friend, "Monk" Davis, presented us with some of the finest apples of the season. There were three of them, the largest weighing 18 ounces, the next 17 and the smallest 16.

—Considerable snow, sleet and mud during the past week. A strong reminder that old winter will soon be around to claim us as his victims. Also that it's time to lay in that stock of coal, &c.

—There is a rule in vogue in Elk county which should be adopted in all sections. It is a good one and reads like this: "Resolved, That we believe no stories about our candidates circulated within two weeks of the election."

—Mr. Frank Taylor, chief editor of the Derrick, stopped in town a few hours yesterday, and paid us a very pleasant visit. The Derrick's list is on the increase in this place, it being between thirty and forty now, which, for the number of inhabitants is extra large.

—Messrs. Holeman & Hopkins have commenced work on their new store building by moving the offices of Mr. Davis and the one occupied by them temporarily, over next to Mr. Tate's. The building will be rushed through forthwith, and will be an ornament to the town when completed.

—Mr. Jno. Hardcastle was up from Franklin last week. He has the agency for an improved rubber post office stamp, and sold our postmaster seven dollars worth with the understanding that if Garfield was not elected they should not cost him a cent. Mr. H. is no slouch on making a bargain, and knows he'll get pay for the stamps under these conditions as sure as the second day of November comes around.

—Messrs. F. M. Back and Wm. Hasselback have their new mill near Black's Corners about ready to steam up. They expect to cut 1,500,000 feet of lumber before spring. They are both hard workers and will make things snap when once rightly under motion. Success, boys.

—Republicans, we warn you to be on the alert from this on. You will doubtless hear slanders and falsehoods about our candidates between this and election, yet you should pay no attention to them, as such tricks are frequently resorted to on the eve of election when the candidates have no opportunity to refute them.

—Derickson & Co.'s stove mill at Hunter's Station started up yesterday after two or three months of a shut-down on account of insufficient water. They have about 350 cords of bolts on hand which will keep Mr. Adams pushing until late in the fall. P. S.—Since this was in type we learn that the water was yet insufficient, and the mill will lay idle yet awhile.

—We understand that Kepler intends issuing two numbers of the Democrat between this and election, for the purpose of exploding some terrible and appalling falsehoods. We wish to warn our friends of all parties against crediting any of the vile slanders or wild rumors that may appear in that sheet. There is no telling what this man may resort to to gain his ends, and it is well for the voters of Forest county to be on their guard.

—Republicans, this is the last chance we have before election, and we want to urge you to take care of the ticket. Use your best endeavors to secure a fair, honest election in every precinct, and work for the success of the ENTIRE TICKET. We have one of the best tickets in the field this year that has ever been before the people of Forest county and we are going to elect it triumphantly, and every good Republican is going to help do it. Hurrah for the ticket from top to bottom.

—The Democrat says inasmuch as Gen. White was first elected to the Senate in 1862, and that Forest county was erected in 1848, he had nothing to do with the framing of the bill that made Forest a county, &c., &c. What is now known as "Old Forest," was composed of Howe, Jenks, Millstone and Barnett townships, and was probably erected in 1848. But when the county was remodeled, and the townships of Kingsley, Hickory, Harmony, Green, Tionesta and Tionesta Boro. added Gen. White's hand framed the bill that did the business. The Democrat is getting a little too smart for its years.

—The following officers were installed for the ensuing term, at a recent meeting of Tionesta Lodge, I. O. O. F.: N. G., J. H. Fones; V. G., J. H. Dingman; P. S., G. W. Sawyer; A. S., Eli Holeman; T. N. S. Foreman; R. S. to N. G., J. E. Blaine; L. S. to N. G., R. Z. Gillespie; W. P. M. Clark; C. T. J. Van Giesen; R. S. S., Geo. Osgood; L. S. S., John Osgood; O. G., S. H. Haslet; I. G., R. B. Crawford; R. S. V. G., A. B. Kelly; L. S. V. G., M. W. Tate; Trustees, C. A. Randall, S. J. Wolcott, J. E. Blaine; Representative to Grand Lodge, Geo. W. Sawyer.

—Mr. Henry Ewald, Tidoute's boss Jeweler, while out gunning on Tuesday of last week, had the great misfortune to lose a portion of his right hand by the accidental discharge of his gun. He was using a double-barreled muzzle loader, and was loading one barrel when the other was discharged, the charge passing through the palm of Mr. Ewald's hand. The two first fingers and part of the palm were amputated, and the third finger will be stiffened, so that all he will have left of any account will be the thumb and little finger. The accident is a most deplorable and serious one to Mr. Ewald, as it will disable him from ever working at his trade.

Special Notice!

Mr. Charles Gardner will be at our store on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct 27 and 28, with a full line of Samples of Clothing, Dry Goods, &c., from our Pleasantville store. As our store here is too small to keep a full stock, you will save money to call and order Dress Goods, Notions, &c. Goods promptly delivered the day following. Ladies especially invited.

HOLEMAN & HOPKINS.

—Goods cheap at Aug. 11, '80. HASLET & SONS.

Consistency, thou art a Jewel.

In conducting a newspaper we do not propose to write sensational articles without foundation in fact, neither to pander to depraved appetites, nor assail the private character of office seekers, knowing that newspapers that seek prominence in this manner are offensive to all reputable citizens, and their standing worse soiled than the fifth from which they emanate.—Commonwealth.

And right along side the above we find in the Commonwealth an article as sensational and false, so far as our candidate for Treasurer, Mr. Foreman, is concerned, as it is possible to get. True, the article does not say in so many words that Mr. Foreman is implicated, but it is calculated to leave that impression on the minds of the people. Now, so far as Mr. Foreman is concerned, we have his word and honor that he has never solicited Kepler's support; that Kepler has never offered it; that he never had any conversation with him on the subject, and that if elected he will give his personal attention to the duties of the office, and be run by no man. This settles that matter most effectually in the minds of all Mr. Foreman's friends and acquaintances. Whatever Kepler may be blowing around over the county is of no consequence to the decent people, and none have been more sensible of this fact and displayed greater disgust than the Greenbackers; and we had reason to hope that the Commonwealth would hold itself aloof from giving publicity to any of the slush emanating from that source. In the campaign which is now very near its close, we have endeavored to steer clear of and exclude from our paper all personalities, slanders and stories calculated to injure the prospects of opposing candidates; how well we have succeeded we are willing to leave to an impartial public. Had we chosen to publish every rumor which has been floating around we would have had room for nothing else, and would doubtless have succeeded in thoroughly disgusting our readers. This is not our stock in trade, and we will not resort to it in order to bolster up our candidates. The Commonwealth's motive in publishing the wild story about "Shylock Kepler" may not have been to injure Mr. Foreman, but it looks very much like it, and if it wasn't it showed a most lamentable lack of foresight, and we hope the paper will have the honor to come out square and make honorable amends. And now we wish to say to the voters, it is your duty and privilege to vote as you please, but you should pay no attention to the idle and malicious stories that are always afloat during a campaign. The Greenbackers have Mr. Proper as their candidate; the Democrats have Mr. Flynn, and the Republicans have Mr. Foreman, and should, and we are satisfied will vote for him to a man, regardless of the story set afloat to injure him. He is a man against whose private or public career not one word can be truthfully uttered.

Republican Rally Last Night.

Last night, although the weather was miserable, the Republicans had a rousing meeting at the court house in this place. Gen. Harry Allen, of Warren, and Dr. S. S. Towler, of Marienville, were the speakers. We have but time and space to say that the meeting was the pleasantest and one of the most enthusiastic that has been held in town during the campaign. Hon. N. P. Wheeler was made President and S. D. Irwin, Esq., Vice President; Secretaries, C. A. Randall and J. E. Wenk. Gen. Allen was the first speaker, and delivered one of the solidest speeches of the campaign, reviewing the situation from an early period to the present day and proving conclusively that the party which had brought the country through twenty years so grandly, should be kept in place as long as it did so well. Dr. Towler touched briefly on some of the points made by the first speaker, and then came down to the local ticket. His first move was to riddle the Democratic meeting held here during court week, and the way he went through it was a terror to the unterrified. The fusion meeting on Monday evening last came in for its share of ridicule. Tom. St. Clair's infamous slanders against Gen. White were met and refuted most effectually. Dr. Towler proved St. Clair's assertions a libelous and most malicious. The smut-machine down at coffee-pot headquarters was hauled without gloves by the Doctor, and the way his remarks were received and applauded showed conclusively what the sentiment of the people was, and showed that the course of the editor was disgusting to all decent people. The Doctor, during his entire address uttered not one word of abuse against opposite candidates, and closed his remarks in good style, leaving the large audience in the best of mood. The Youngville Brass Band discoursed some very fine music during the evening. After three rousing cheers for the whole Republican ticket, the meeting adjourned to meet at the ballot box next Tuesday.

Democratic-Greenback Meeting.

The Democrats and Greenbackers had a fusion meeting at the Court House on Monday evening, upon which occasion James Mosgrove and Dr. Thos. St. Clair held forth. These distinguished, and soon-to-be extinguished personages arrived on the 2:47 train Monday, and were soon surrounded by their admiring Democratic and Greenback friends, and for some time it was a question which would take charge of the pair, but the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee captured the Congressional aspirant and took him home to tea. At about eight o'clock the crowd gathered at the court house, and the meeting was called to order by Chairman Haslet, who nominated J. H. Dingman, Greenbacker, President, and R. D. Fisk, Democrat, Vice President; Secretaries, Hayden, D., Dirtridge, G., and James, G. The President then introduced Mr. Mosgrove, who spoke for probably twenty minutes. He spoke very low and it was impossible to hear much of what he said near the entrance. The audience listened with bated breath, thinking to catch one word which might indicate that he was a Greenbacker, but they didn't hear it. His remarks were respectful, yet he might as well have said nothing so far as convincing any one what his politics were. He spoke of the bonds which will soon fall due, but did not say whether he would vote to pay them at maturity or refund them at a lower rate of interest. The tariff question occupied most of his attention, and of course, he was in favor of a protective tariff. So is every honest man.

If the Greenbackers could draw any definite conclusions or consolation from his remarks they are certainly very easily satisfied. It was simply impossible to discover whether he was a Democrat or Greenbacker, and although he has repeatedly said he would not vote for Garfield, we have reason, after hearing his speech, to seriously doubt his word in that particular. Of the other man, Thos. St. Clair, it is hardly worth while to speak. His remarks consisted simply of vile, malignant, and slanderous abuse of the private and public life of Gen. Harry White, even going so far as to heap violent abuse upon his dead brother and bring his dead father into the discussion. The meeting had not the effect to make a single vote for Mosgrove, but on the contrary, several who had intended supporting him went away thoroughly disgusted and declared that while they might not vote for Gen. White, they certainly would not touch Mosgrove.

Barnett Township.

CLARINGTON, Oct. 25, 1880.

We notice by the Democrat the Democracy of this place held a meeting which was "one of the largest ever held in this place." Now, that may sound very well to the denizens of other sections, but we consider it one of the largest "jokes" ever perpetrated on an innocent and inoffending community, and if the other meetings we see chronicled in that sheet are anything like the one held here we pity the dear people who are thus afflicted. The fact of the matter is there were barely enough of their own party present to fill the offices. Our good old friend Wm. Shields was elected President, but we hope he will not take offense at our mentioning the fact in public. Peter Heasley was made secretary, but as Peter was unable to wield the Faber, our worthy school teacher, a staunch Republican, kindly lent his assistance, and the "bawl" went on. But I am getting somewhat ahead of my story. The speakers arrived in the afternoon or evening and put up at our hotel. At the proper hour they proceeded to the field of action, the school house. While passing through the hall or vestibule, something dropped from one of the speakers' pockets; it bustled, and the "oil" which was doubtless intended to be used to pour on the troubled waters, ran out on the floor and was wasted. After entering and while divesting themselves of their overcoats another thump was heard on the floor, but this time fortune favored the braves and the "oil" was saved. Of the speeches it is needless to speak, further than to say that they had the effect to convert the president of the meeting, if we are to judge from the fact that two evenings afterward he attended a large Republican meeting at Seigel, wearing a cape and bearing a torch in the procession. Thus ended one of the "largest" (?) meetings ever held in this place." A SPECTATOR.

Local Politics.

In our hurry to get to press last week we omitted, on account of not having a complete report, to mention the Republican meeting held at Fagundas last Friday evening a week. Hon. W. M. Lindsay, of Warren, delivered a very able and convincing address, and was frequently interrupted by the outbursts of applause. Our candidate for Assembly, E. L. Davis, Esq., made some fair and square remarks, which were good and to the point. The sturdy Republicans of Harmony, don't you forget it, are up and doing, and will take care of the straight Republican ticket on Tuesday next.

Republican meetings were held in different sections of the county during last week, which we are pleased to state were all largely attended and very enthusiastic. At Guiton's school house Dr. Towler and E. L. Davis, Esq., spoke on Tuesday evening, to a very respectable audience, and the meeting was voted a success. The same gentlemen spoke at Nebraska on Thursday and were enthusiastically received by a very good house. The meeting at Stewart's Run, although the weather was very inclement, was well attended and a most complete success. Dr. S. S. Towler, Hon. J. B. Agnew, and S. D. Irwin, Esq., were the speakers on this occasion. All made good addresses and were loudly applauded. A good report may be expected from all these places for the entire ticket, as the Republicans are wide awake and putting forth their best efforts. Keep up the good work, friends.

The Republicans of Whig Hill and vicinity had a rousing meeting in the school house at that place on Wednesday last. Mr. W. A. Duenbury was elected President, and Messrs. R. King and Ira Barnes Vice Presidents; Mr. Jonas Shunk, Secretary. The house was crowded with eager listeners. The Garfield club was present, and could be distinguished by their campaign caps. Hon. J. B. Agnew was the first speaker, who delivered an able address. Next was Dr. Towler, who followed with his correct logic, and interesting and lively remarks, keeping up a lively interest throughout. Hon. N. P. Wheeler also addressed the meeting in a clear and concise manner. S. D. Irwin, Esq., spoke a short time, delivering one of his inimitable addresses which kept the house in an uproar. Sheriff Randall closed the meeting with a few very pithy remarks which were well received. Our candidate for Assembly, E. L. Davis, was present, and was enthusiastically received. The Republicans of that vicinity are active and enthusiastic, and will send in a glorious report on the 3d of November.
