LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

"329." Dark nights. Close the door. Wasn't it grand. Now let's have a dance.

The agony is over and we all cease to agonize. The unsuccessful candidates will have a rest now.

The streets have been muddy during the past week. Thanksgiving Day on the 25th, which will be bad for Turkey.

"I Toldyou" is around this week. He is a knowing fellow. "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad." Kepler is on his car.

Mrs. Etta M. Wood, of Jamestown, N. Y., is visiting at Mr. D. W. Clark's.

Quite a number of Tionesta boys are home from Bradford, having come down to vote.

Monday was All Saints Day. Tuesday All Souls Day—and also election day.

Some of the boys voted early yesterday, but we didn't hear of any one voting often.

Come, come, boys; contain yourselves. Act as pretty as you can under the circumstances.

Charlie Grove, of Hickory twp., was in town the other day smiling all over his face. It's a boy, and we hope Charlie will call him James Garfield.

Ladies and gentlemen of Forest county, allow us the pleasure of introducing to you Hon. E. L. Davis. Give us your vote, Mr. Davis.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the M. E. Church in this place commencing on Saturday next, and continue over Sunday. A general and cordial invitation is extended.

The Republicans have been jubilant since the election. Last night a large bon fire was built, the cannon was brought into play, and amid the cheering and laughing things were lively.

The drill was started on the new well at Balltown, Ben. May's venture, yesterday noon. The result of this venture is looked forward to with considerable interest, and we hope she'll spout up good.

Mr. J. C. Hoovler, says he has a very nice boat anchored below the river bridge, and all who want free transportation to the headwaters of Salt River should engage passage at once. All aboard.

We are a day late with our paper this week, but that won't make any difference to our subscribers, for they want the news and it was not possible for us to give anything definite and come out on our regular publication day.

Otto C. Wilkins, the celebrated glass ball shootist, will take a ramble down into Forest county in a few days to practice on a few deer. But don't practice on the "dear" dears, though.

Cooperstown News. Come along and practice-as-you-please.

We were in error when we stated last week that the shooting accident which befel Mr. Ewald, the Jeweler of Tidoute, would disable him from pursuing his business. He sends us word that although he is laid up for the present, he has a competent watchmaker employed to take care of his business for a month or such matter, when he will again be on deck ready to accommodate his many customers and friends with first-class work. We are glad to learn this, and hope our mistake will not prove a detriment to his business. Give him a call when in need of anything in his line.

The residences of Messrs. Van Giesen, Richards, McKay, and Cobb, were handsomely decorated last evening, and to the ladies belongs the credit.

Capt. Peter Grace, Co. G., of the gallant eighty-third, paid a visit to his many friends and former comrades in this place during the week, staying over Sunday. The Captain is now extensively engaged in the Bradford oil region.

F. M. Quarterly Meeting will be held in this place commencing on Friday, Nov. 12, and last over Sunday. Rev. Brown made the announcement for East Hickory at the church last Sunday evening, but it was changed to this place as above stated. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

We call attention of our merchants and other business men to an economical fact which is to their pecuniary interest. By using printed bill heads and statements of accounts, they can forward bills for one cent postage, whereas by writing them out entire, they are obliged to pay three cents.

Morris Einstein arrived home on Saturday evening last, looking healthier than we ever saw him; he was so much improved, in fact, that his little dog "Jack" failed to recognize him. He reports having had a royal time both on his voyage and at his old Fatherland home across the sea. He visited Paris, London and many other cities of note.

The grading of the Arthur Extension of the narrow gauge road was finished last week, and the greater portion of the iron has been laid. It will take about a week of good weather to have it ready for business. This is quick and good work. It rests with the lumbermen themselves to have the road extended to meet their wants. Let them see to it. On to Kansas! Clarion Rep. & Gazette.

The mill of Mr. Polen, on Bobb's Creek, this county, was destroyed by fire on Friday night last. We were unable to learn the particulars, but understand the damage to the machinery was not very great, owing to the small amount of wood-work about the mill. P. S.—None of the machinery was injured, and the only damage sustained was to the belting and wood-work.

Our citizens in the lower end of town are getting ahead of their neighbors in the way of streets lamps. A new one has lately been erected in front of Mr. May's residence, which adds immensely to the convenience and comfort of the belated pedestrian. We hope to live to see the time when our citizens will all take more or less pride in this matter and one can travel around after dark without the fear of a broken limb or neck or something of that sort.

On Saturday evening last a barn belonging to a Mr. Toney, near Black's Corners, Farmington twp., Clarion Co., was totally destroyed by fire. The conflagration was similar to the one near Newmansville, which we chronicled a short time ago. The barn was filled with hay and grain, and contained a span of fine horses, a threshing machine and a new wagon, all of which was consumed, together with a large number of agricultural implements. The cause of the fire is unknown. This loss will be about $2,500, with $1,000 insurance.

Mr. Robert Shriver has disposed of all his personal property, and will move to Marquette, Kansas, in a few days, where he has secured a farm and will seek his fortune. We are sorry to see Rob leave us, as in his departure our county loses a square citizen, an industrious farmer and a true Republican; but we hope our loss may be his gain, and we can cheerfully recommend him to the citizens of Kansas as a man whose word is as good as his bond.

Mr. A. A. Wicker, of Boston, Mass., has been stopping in town for a few days during the past week. Mr. Wicker is the partner of Mr. G. E. Blake, in the lumber business, who spent several weeks in this place during the past summer, buying and shipping cherry and ash. Mr. W. informed us that they were still shipping from this place, and expected to as long as such fine quality of lumber could be had. He was well pleased with our town and made quite a number of acquaintances and friends. He reports his partner in good health and spirits.

Some excellent work has been done at Pitohole raffle and Walnut islands, between this and Oil City, by Gen. White's crane boat. An immense number of boulders have been taken out and the channel is now as clear as any rifle on the Allegheny, and heavy rafts can now be run over these places on a comparatively low stage of water. Whatever may be said of Harry White's appropriations, the lumbermen and jobbers on Tionesta creek cannot fail to appreciate this improvement.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—In Tionesta Pa., Post Office, Nov. 3, 1880: A. W. Amey, Julius Bourquin 2, C. Briggs, Phoebe J. Bautser, Jesse Carson, A. R. Curtis, F. V. Combs, W. C. Confer, A. Ikenburg, Abraham Grice, John N. Grow, Clem Kelman, Frank Luings, Abner Lecky, John A. Marsh, J. W. Mitchell, J. B. McManigle, James Pearsall, M. E. Peck, J. G. Thompson, Abb Horn, M. F. Vagus, Samuel P. Wilson.

If not called for within 20 days will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. J. M. MCKAY, P. M.

The proposed new route from Chicago to New York via this city and the lease of the Pittsburgh, Titusville & Buffalo by the Baltimore & Ohio road has had the effect of stiffening up the stock of the Pittsburgh, Titusville & Buffalo. On Monday the stock touched $18. Should the new route from the queen city of the west to the queen of the east be built, or so soon as it is definitely known that it will be built, Pittsburgh, Titusville & Buffalo will advance rapidly. The freight traffic now enjoyed by the Lake Shore between Buffalo, New York, and the east is very great, in fact almost more than the road can handle, and the share that the new route would receive in addition to the tonnage now enjoyed by the Baltimore & Ohio in the southwest, would help to make the Pittsburgh, Titusville & Buffalo one of the best paying links in any of the great trunk lines in the country. We hope to see the new project to succeed, not only for the benefit of the Pittsburgh, Titusville & Buffalo, but for the advantage it would be to Oil City.—Derrick.

Since there has been so much said about coffee, we will give the true facts. During the last two years of the late war, we were proprietor of several stage lines running from Phillipsburg to Clearfield, and one to Curwensville, also proprietor of a hotel at Phillipsburg a terminus of the railroad. Passengers took dinner at the hotel before taking the stage. During that time there were many soldiers who were returning home on leave of absence and other causes, and frequently some of the soldiers were without funds, and we, the proprietor of the hotel and stage lines would always feed those without money the same as those who had the money to pay, and many times furnished them with a lunch and good strong coffee to carry them through, besides giving them free transportation on the stage lines. This is the cause of our notoriety. We were only waiting all this time for our neighbor to give the facts, but as he did not, and wanted to make political capital out of it by so industriously harping on the coffee business, we deemed it our duty to give facts in the case.—Democrat.

To show that we had no desire to "make political capital" out of the coffee business, we will now, after the elections are over, give the recorded facts in the matter. The editor of the Democrat never asked for the facts before, else he might have had them. His version of the matter is a little bit the thinnest we ever heard of. We will just quote briefly from the testimony in the famous election contest in the then 21st Senatorial district, in 1868, Robison vs. Shugart:

I was cooking at Keplar's hotel previous to the October, 1867, election; Mr. Lede boarded there; Mr. Lede came out Friday evening and asked me if I would make him a pint of strong coffee; I made a peach can full for him; I took it into the dining room and gave it to him; there were two strangers with him; this was after supper; the table was cleared up, Mr. Lede had his supper; don't know what he done with the coffee; I did not put any milk or sugar in it.—From June Moore's testimony before the committee of investigation.

Their next witness was Jacob M. Kepler, who keeps the wretched apology for a hotel at Phillipsburg, where the conspiracy was hatched—the place where the papers were colored with coffee.—From the arguments of Hon. H. Bucher Swoope, counsel for the plaintiff, before the committee of investigation.

Further comments are unnecessary. —Go to G. W. Bovards for Mrs Freeman's New National Dyes. For brightness and durability of color they are unequalled. Color 2 to 6 lbs., price 15 cents. 33-ly.

Library of Universal Knowledge.

Volume VIII, of this great work covers from Honolulu to Lepidus, containing in its 8n2 pages of solid but clear type, about 2,500 topics in every department of human knowledge.

As an example of the variety of its contents, we note biographical sketches of Robin Hood, of ballad fame; Thomas Hood, poet; Victor Hugo, novelist, and David Hume, historian. The horse is given about five pages; India, twenty-four; Irish, two; Iron, twelve; Jesuits, six; Jews, twenty-three.

Though this edition has not claimed to be illustrated, we notice about fifty engravings illustrating the text. The issue of a work of such great magnitude, and of such superlative merit, in handy and beautiful form at merely nominal cost, might be expected to call forth and immense patronage.

The publishers have already received orders which count up to nearly half a million volumes. The American Book Exchange, Publishers, New York.
