LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—It looks favorable for a good "tracking snow" this morning.

—Frank Tietzworth rained down from the Bradford region yesterday.

—Hast secured thy thanksgiving turkey yet? If not, then thou better hasten have.

—Miss Maria Jackson is paying her sister, Mrs. Chas. Babcock, a two week's visit, at Franklin.

—If you want a sound education, attend school at Edinboro. Winter term opens Dec. 7th.

—We now want a good live correspondent from every town and township in the county. Come forward, scribes.

—Only a little more of "the beautiful" and then you can shoulder your "Winchester" and his yourself to deedom.

—Martin's Photo Boat just landed at the river bridge; will remain one week. Now is the time to get good work done cheap.

—The Commonwealth office has been moved into the Partridge Building, at Haslet's Corners. The new quarters are much more comfortable.

—S. H. Haslet has just finished a neat barn on his premises, which adds materially to the appearance thereof and the comfort of his live stock.

—The Free Methodist Quarterly Meeting in this place commencing on Friday and lasting over Sunday was largely attended, and we hope resulted in much good.

—Will Clark, the venerable insurance agent of Tidioute, was down on "biz" yesterday. He was feeling good over the result of the election, at least he tried to smile when the subject was mentioned.

—Mr. G. M. Kepler, son and daughter, have arrived in town and will commence housekeeping in a short time. They are heartily welcomed by our citizens, and we hope they will be suited with their new home.

—Andy Weller will have a shooting match at his place on Dutch Hill on Saturday next. If any of our town boys want a thanksgiving turkey, that will be a good place to get it; that is if you can shoot good enough.

—The young folks had a very pleasant party at the Central House on Thursday evening last. The dancing was kept up until about one o'clock and all enjoyed themselves hugely. The supper gotten up for the occasion was excellent, and was heartily relished by the gay revelers.

—Our reports from the lumber market at Pittsburgh are very encouraging, ready sales of Clarion timber having been made at from 16 to 17 cents cubic. The demand for all kinds of lumber is reported active, and the prospects for the future very bright.—Brookville Republican.

—Neville D. Tyson, Esq., Att'y at Law, of Norristown, Pa., spent a few days in town during the week on professional business, and paid us a very pleasant call. Like all whole-souled gentlemen he is very fond of the rod and gun, and promises Forest county a visit in that line at some future time.

—We have made arrangements for a supply of Dr. B. J. Kendall's "Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," and will give one of them as a premium to all new subscribers who pay us in advance in cash, and all old subscribers who pay up what is due and renew their subscription for another year. The book is a standard work, and contains a vast amount of information of great value to every person who owns a horse. Come in, subscribe, and get a copy before they are all gone.

—Rev. Hill, the new M. E. Minister, has moved his family to town, and now occupies the house recently vacated by Rev. Stone. We extend them a hearty welcome on behalf of Tionesta's citizens.

—The immense boiler intended for Reck & Hasselback's mill at Black's Corners, was taken out last week. Five teams were employed to do the work, and they got through without any mishaps, and the mill will now be ready to steam up in a few days.

—Mr. Emmet is just putting the finishing touches on his new house on Dutch Hill, and it is one of the neatest and tastiest on the Hill. Our farmers, generally, are making improvements in this direction, and it will probably not be long before all will be provided with neat and comfortable buildings on the farms.

—Revs. J. B. Thompson, of Shannondale, and J. F. Wyant, of Monroe, Clarion Co., ministered to the Reformed brethren in the Dutch Hill church on Saturday and Sunday last. On Sunday evening Rev. Wyant preached an excellent sermon in the Presbyterian Church of this place, which was followed by a short but earnest exhortation by Rev. Thompson.

—Several new Winchester rifles have lately made their appearance in town, which bodes evil for the bounding deer of our forests. They have thus far escaped pretty well owing to a lack of snow, and with the exception of a few which have been killed in the river, we have heard of none losing their lives as yet. Boys, it isn't right, and you shouldn't do it.

—Mr. Jackson's team of ponies, which was conveying a load of passengers up the Dutch Hill road yesterday, took a little spurt without the driver. While near the watering trough the double-trees became detached from the hack and the horses started up the hill at a lively speed, not stopping until they reached the top. No serious damage was done.

—A new time table went into effect on the P. T. & B. R'y last Monday. We have not received the new schedule yet, but can give the time of trains at this station which is as follows: Northward, 7:22 a. m., 11:40 a. m., 2:56 p. m., 5:07 p. m. Southward, 10:31 a. m., 1:36 p. m., 5:07 p. m., 7:49 p. m., mail. All these carry passengers. We will endeavor to have a corrected table next week.

He was brought to this place, and Dr. Frank Ross amputated his thumb and index finger and dressed the third finger, which was badly mangled. After receiving this needed attention, Mr. Foster returned to his home.—Clarion Republican.

—Baldwin's Official Railway Guide for November has made its appearance. This valuable collection of Railroad statistics, time tables, spicy editorials, humorous clippings and entertaining reading matter, is now found along the lines of all principal railroads, and is eagerly sought after by travelers. It costs but ten cents per copy, or one dollar a year, and no traveler should be without it. It is worth double the price asked. W. S. Baldwin, General Passenger Agent of the P. T. & B. R'y, Buffalo N. Y., is the publisher.

—From all parts of the country it is learned that the epizooty among horses is prevalent, but so far with no fatal results. An old veterinary surgeon of the army sends the New York Times the following simple and safe cure for this disease: Take one pound of gum assafoetida, mix it with one gallon of boiling water, stir the mixture constantly until the assafoetida is dissolved, let the mixture cool, strain and give one-half pint every three hours. This will relieve the horse within twelve hours and give a good appetite. The army cure for the epizooty was a teaspoonful of chloride of potash in a pail full of water three times a day.—Exchange.

—Ballou's Monthly Magazine for December.—If any of our readers wish to make their children or friends a Christmas or New-Year's present, the best thing they can do is to subscribe for Ballou's Magazine for the coming year. It is only $1.50 per annum, postpaid, and will make one of the most acceptable gifts in the power of those of limited means. A year's good reading for a trifling sum, and for one of the best magazines in the country, certainly the most original and interesting, as most of its friends admit. The December issue is certainly a great number and should be seen to be appreciated. A sample copy is sent for ten cents. Now is the time to subscribe for this popular and cheap magazine. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass.

—Peterson's Magazine for December more than maintains its unrivaled character. There are two beautiful engravings, one of them a title page, with portraits of the principal contributors. Besides these there is a superb steel fashion-plate, exquisitely colored, and a magnificent colored pattern for a Lambrequin, which, at retail, would cost fifty cents; this is presented to the subscribers of "Peterson" as a Christmas gift. A touching love-story, "Two Christmases," is profusely illustrated. The number contains a Supplement, with full-size pattern, for a Dolman Ulster, the pattern alone being worth more than the price of the number. All these costly embellishments are afforded by the enormous circulation of "Peterson," which, as the publisher says, enables him to give more for the money than any other. Specimens are sent, gratis, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

—Neilltown Rustlings.

This not being the centre of a bustling, bustling business locality we are not able to find material for frequent nor lengthy communications, but such as we live on all the time your readers will pardon us for warming up over the fire of imagination and presenting as a "dish" upon your bill of fare:

Tom Machesney has been under the weather for the past few days, but he is feeling better now.

Fred. can shoe a horse as well now as he could before the election.

R. O. Carson has torn away some more of his rail fence and replaced it with a neat board fence.

Rev. McLoughlin will continue, as heretofore, the pastor of the faithful in this place.

Miss Lizzie Berlin has returned to Whig Hill, on account of the sickness of her sister Ida.

Park Black has been sick for some time. Park was out in the Colorado gold region during the summer, from where he returned about a month ago. While there he contracted the Mountain Fever, the dregs of which still linger in his system. While out hunting one evening since his return he fell while crossing a fence and sustained severe injuries, which, coupled with the fever dregs has kept him laid up since.

Park Kelly had the misfortune some time since to have his hand badly torn in his threshing machine; he says he thinks the fingers of his hand will be stiff when his wound is healed.

Prof. Ingall's singing class here numbers about 20 pupils. The Prof. teaches a singing class at Triumph, at which place he is also the wielder of pedagogic authority over a school of 72 of the future's hopes and fears.

Prof. Griffin calls around once in awhile in the interest of his instrumental class.

A valuable horse belonging to R. O. Carson died this week from epizootic. Quite a number of the horses in our vicinity have the "zoet."

Dr. Jenkins is in business at Stoneham; he had thought some of moving up there, but we understand he has about abandoned the idea.

The Major butchered a six-months pig the other day; it weighed 200 pounds, and was the smallest of four, all belonging to the same litter, the other three of which are in the pen awaiting the slayer.

Nicholl's, whose heart isn't gray if his head is, was over on Poverty Hill the other day prospecting; he had a gun along and he didn't come back empty handed, either.

Jno. Black and De Wayne Burchfield, who came down from Bradford to exercise the election franchise, have gone again. May they look and feel as well when they come again.

From Pineville we glean the following: Rev. White is holding revival services there.

Milton Ruland died on last Sunday, the 7th. He had been sick for some time. He was about 40 to 45 years of age and unmarried; his funeral took place on the Tuesday following, Rev. White officiating.

The yard at Shamburg's mill is full to overflowing for want of teams, which can not be hired as a consequence of bad roads. The fireman of the mill got up too much steam the other day and now another man shovels the saw dust.

DEAD LEAVES. Neilltown, Pa., Nov. 13, 1880.

Universal Knowledge.

This valuable work fast approaches completion. Vol. X, which we have received, includes articles from Mulready to Paspalum, and contains 830 pages. This is the cheapest encyclopedia of general knowledge making any pretention to completeness that has ever been issued, and being a library in itself, could not be had for four times its present price if its publishers, the American Book Exchange, had not had the enterprise to inaugurate and push ahead the Literary Revolution.
