

O'BRIEN has been indicted for perjury in the Chinese letter case, and pleads guilty.

CONGRESS meets on Monday next. The new Congress will not meet until the 4th of March.

THE Chinese are going, at the rate of a thousand a week, and Dennis Kearney having returned to honest toil, California will have peace, such as it has not had for several years.

GENERAL GARFIELD says that when the office seekers tackle him he tells them he "is too busy to consider their claims now." Presently he will find more radical measures necessary.

THE official vote of Maine has been decided as follows: Garfield electors 74,039, Hancock electors 65,171, Weaver straight 4,480, Dow 92, scattering, 127. Garfield's majority over all 4,169.

IT HAS been determined to coin ten millions monthly, in denominations of five and ten dollars, the eighty-five millions of gold bullion now standing to the credit of the government treasury.

PRESIDENT HAYES is now engaged on his last annual message. He can refer with much pleasure to the general success of his administration. It was not so brilliant but it is clean throughout.

THE important announcement is made that a separate treaty upon the subject of the immigration of Chinese into this country has been made with the Chinese Government. This, it is stated, reserves to the United States the right to control and regulate such immigration by its own laws.

IMMIGRATION continues very heavy. More than sixty-one thousand immigrants arrived in this country during October, and of these more than one-fourth came from Germany. Great Britain and Ireland sent only one-fifth of the whole number, but more than 17,000 came from Canada, some of whom, however, were doubtless only passing through that country on their way from Great Britain. Preparations are being made in Canada for a great immigration into the Dominion, but all the time there is a steady movement over the line into the United States.

SOME of General White's friends in Washington City wanted to give him an office and telegraphed that he was going to be elected Clerk of the next Congress. This is a very honorable position, but the General did not want any of that kind of office. So he telegraphed to the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh papers as follows:

HARRISBURG, November 19.—I saw a statement that I am a candidate for clerk of the Forty-seventh Congress. I never told any one so, and would not accept it if elected. I have too much respect for the constituents who supported me to accept such a place, honorable as it may be.

HARRY WHITE.

Our Bondholders.

Amount held by Banks, Individuals and Abroad: The Special Agent of the Census Office has completed the investigation of the ownership and distribution of the four and a half per cent. registered bonds. The investigation began last summer and the figures presented show the distribution of these bonds in July, 1880. The following tabular statement shows the general distribution of $698,381,750 registered four and four and a half per cent. bonds:

Table showing distribution of bonds: Total four per cent. registered bonds $28,100,000; Individuals 27,135,000; National Banks 136,527,700; Banks and trust companies 114,506,900; Foreign holders 6,831,450; Total 4 1/2 per cent registered bonds 170,280,800; Individuals 72,010,900; Banks and trust companies 55,620,400; National banks 39,461,000; Foreign holders 4,187,500.

The Eastern States own 17 9-10 per cent. of the bonds, the Middle States 64 4-10 per cent. Western States 14 2-10 per cent. and the Southern States 3 5-10 per cent. In the Eastern States 70 per cent. of the bonds are owned by males and 30 per cent. by females, in the Middle States 81 per cent. by male and 19 per cent. by females, in the Western States 81 per cent. by males and 19 per cent. by females, and in the Southern States 78 per cent. by males and 22 per cent. by females.

SOME Democratic papers have the good taste to apologize to their readers for having unwittingly been victimized by Barnum in publishing the villainous Chinese letter forgery and endorsing it as genuine. And some have neither the good taste nor the honor to make amends to their insulted readers.

NASBY resolves to join Tammany: "Mine eyes are red with weeping, and my nose is gittin whiter. Ef this state uv things keeps up, and I kin borrow a clean shirt, I shol soon pass for a Re-publika. Shel I jine the Re-publika? They don't want me. Shel I run for a elective offis? Alas! sich ez me cau't be electid. I will go to Noo York where John Kelly still has power, and serve Tammany. Tammany is all that is left uv the Demicriay, and Tammany is gettin thin. Ther is enuff left uv Tammany to keep me the few short years I shol live. And when Tammany dies then will I die, and it will be well for me and Tammany to die together, and be laid in one grave."

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Special to the REPUBLICAN. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25, '80. General Garfield arrived here last night quietly, at the Baltimore and Potomac depot. Mrs. Garfield accompanied him and taking the arm of Col. A. F. Rockwell, a life long intimate friend of the General's, was escorted to the carriage opposite the ladies entrance to the depot. Quite a number of personal friends including an informal delegation from the Tow Path Club, cordially greeted the General as he emerged from the depot. After a handshaking with the members of the club, and complimentary allusions to their services in the campaign the party passed out of the depot, where cheers were given with a will by the crowd inside as the party passed through. The General, with Mrs. Garfield and Col. Rockwell drove to their home corner of I and 13th St. He expects to remain here only a few days, having been called here on purely private business. General and Mrs. Garfield left Meator Monday evening and had a very pleasant journey. A pleasant episode of the trip was the meeting at the Harrisburg depot with Senator Don Cameron, who drove them to his residence where they dined, and resumed their journey to this city in the afternoon. Office seekers will crowd around the General doubtless during his short stay here. They will be kindly, but firmly informed that while he will be happy at all times to receive his friends, the time is not opportune to talk of personal claims to recognition.

The Senatorial elections that come off in January are attracting much interest here. Maine will be likely to send Mr. Frye, Massachusetts, either Senator Davis or Ex Gov. Long. Connecticut has made her choice, selecting that able and tried Republican, Gen. Hawley. A great fog prevails in New York, and when it clears of Hon. Chauncy M. Depew will be discovered wearing the Senatorial toga. New Jersey will present us with an Ex-Secretary in the person of the Hon. M. Robinson. It is more uncertain to-day in Pennsylvania than a week ago. I hesitate to predict. Ohio is so equally divided that no man can tell the result. In Michigan Gov. Bagley still leads, and his chances of carrying off the prize increases every day. In other States that elect, the slates remain unchanged.
