WHONESDAY MORNING, MAK, 9, 1881.

Our terms for amouncements for Co. Supt. will be $5.00, atrictly in advance. COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Announcements.

ED. REPUBLICAN :-Dear Sir —Please announce my name as a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools of Forest County, subject to the action of the directors convention to be hold in May. N.F. WILLIAMS.

THE funding bill, which passed finally on Wednesday was vetoed by President Hayes on Thursday last.

SPEAKING of President Garfield's new Cabinet one of our chronic pussters thinks that it's Blaine to be seen, that if Kirkwood out-Windom, Garfield would be obliged to Huat for another man to replace the missing Lincoln his Cabinet.

"An act to lay out, build and repair the roads and bridges of this Commonwealth." It is designed to be of special benefit to Forest county, and stands a fair show of becoming a law. The lengthy for our space, else we would publish it. We ask all who feel interested to call and examine it and give their opinions as to its merits.

THE Philadelphia Times has the following compliment for the present State Legislature: Although the Legislature has agreed to take a week's beliday to enable the members to see Garfield inaugurated, it has been getting along pretty well with some of its work. In the Senate yesterday Mr. Gordon, of this city, undertook by resolution to invite the opinion of the Attorney General on the constitutionality of the bill to repeal the Recorder's act of 1878. There is a general disposition in favor of the bill, which can easily pass, but a question of its constitutionality has been raised in the minds of the many and they would like to have it decided before going further. Mr. Gordon's resolution instead of being adopted went to the judiciary committee by a party vote, Southerner, was an old line Whig, and with a single exception; the Republicans voted for such disposition of it. In the House Representative Ruddiman introduced a bill to establish the whipping-post for the benefit of wifebeaters. The bill has its monits but South." it won't be popular. Three acts of considerable consequence to this city were passed finally: the one compelling constables to pay their fees to the Special to the REPUBLICAN. Magistrates instead of the City Treaswer; that prohibiting pool playing for drinks, and one withholding licenses for the sale of liquor to proprietors of other places of amusement. When the Legislature does settle down to business it is quite likely to do a creditable thing. It is a better Legislature than Harrisburg has seen for a number of years.

President Garfield's Cabinet.

President Garfield, who was inaug-1 urated on Friday, sent the following 1 list of Cabinet officers to the Senate, journey from the Capitol to the White which body gave the nominations a ananimous confirmation :

James G. Blaine, of Maine, Secretary of State.

William Windom, of Minnessota,

t Secretary of the Treasury. Wayne McVeagh, of Pennsylvania,

I Attorney General. Thomas L. James, of New York, d Postmaster General.

Samuel J. Kirkwood, of Iows, Sec-" retary of the Interior.

Robert T. Lincoln, of Illinois, Sec-

c retary of War.

William H. Hunt, of Louisiana, t Secretary of the Navy.

to The appointments seem to give gen-teral satisfaction, and the press comaments are, generally speaking, very * favorable. The Derrick says:

I "His nominations seem to have been "made with a view to the fitness of the not, depending upon the success of the fimen for the offices they were to fill. War. He is without experience in public affairs, but is known in his quiet yet honorable life, as a man of character, strong common sense and earnest devotion to his party."

The Chicago Inter-Ocean has this to say of the new Secretary of the Treasury: "Mr. Windom has long been regarded as the most generally useful man in the United States Sennte. He has enjoyed the respect and confidence of his associates of both vided one-fifth of the Copeland Heister of the confidence of his associates of both vided one-fifth of the Copeland Heister of the confidence of the copeland Heister of the parties; that the bills he has recommended have seldom failed, and all the diverse elements of politics have found in him a man to be trusted at all times, with all measures. Of the other members of the new Cabinet the Pittsburgh Commercial-Gazette has this to say: "Mr. Wayne McVeagh, Attorney General, is an accomplished scholar, and a man of great force of character. He has not he may claim, must be furnished the figured very prominently in public REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS has offered life. The most important position a bill in the House, a copy of which which he has heretofore filled was that we have in our possession, entitled of Minister to Turkey, for a brief period under President Grant. He has a clean personal and political record, and the legal interests of the United States will not suffer in his hands.

enator Kirkwood, of Iowa, as Secbill contains thirty sections and is too retary of the Interior, is a good appointment. He is a gentleman of large experience in executive matters, and as a member of the Senate has made the questions growing out of the Laud and Indian Departments a special study. He is a warm personal friend of the President, and is said to resemble in his manner the late President Lincoln, who had a warm admiration for him.

"In regard to the Postmaster Generalship, it is only necessary to say that Mr. James was selected for that position mainly because of his eminent fitness for the discharge of its duties. As Postmaster of New York City for many years, he has shown marked executive ability, and the President has made no mere experiment in placing this important department in his cus-

Washington, D. C., Mar. 3, '81. To-day is the last of the 46th Congress, and there is much yet to be done of necessary business. The funding bill passed the House as amended by the Senate yesterday, and was sent to the President last night. The effort of the House to amend it by passing a supplementary explanatory bill is generally regarded even by those who participated in the action as a rather crude, not to say ridiculous performance. It is the first attempt to amend a bill "on the wing," that is on its

It is regarded here as certain that the present funding bill as passed by both Houses will be either vetoed or

The Sundry Civil bill which passed the House on Friday, passed the Senate yesterday, the amendment to it not being such as to provoke much discussion in the House.

The General Deficiency, the last of the appropriation bills passed the House yesterday, and will go through the Senate to-day.

It can be seen from the state of affairs at the Capitol that all matters of general legislation, including the apportionment bill, will fail, and will have to be introduced again next sestrion. Of an extra session there is not much said, whether one will be had or much said, whether one will be had or appropriation bills.
