LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—M. Sabbath School at 10 a. m., F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m., Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.

—Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Auction at Dithridge's to-night. —Venor predicts a sickly summer.

—Oh! the snow; the beautiful snow. —Shakespeare.

—The old maids were the guests of Mrs. Derickson Monday evening.

—Davy Hilands has returned to Tionesta and now sees to the wants of the Lawrence House guests.

—Wild geese were flying north last week. Strikes us they'd have better stayed where they were for a few days yet.

—Dr. Blaine visited John Hunter at his home in Millville, on Monday, and reports him getting along very well.

—Dr. Coburn's little cockerspaniel, the mother of five handsome little puppies, choked to death on a piece of meat Monday evening.

—Since Sunday our streets have been thronged more or less with raftsmen. It is expected that some of the lumber will be started for Pittsburgh to-day.

—R. D. Hoskins, one of Tionesta's charming young gents, departed for Meadville yesterday, where he will resume his studies at Allegheny College.

—We are glad to report that Mr. N. G. Ball, of East Hickory, has improved some since our last issue, and his friends have hopes of his ultimate recovery.

—Hon. John G. Hall, our able Senator, will please accept thanks for a copy of the Legislative Directory, a neat, convenient, and valuable little hand book.

—Sucker fishing has set in, and several good strings have been strung. As usual Dr. Coburn has the honor of bringing in the largest bunch at "one fish" thus far.

—Mr. H. A. Adams has moved into his new quarters, the Clapphouse, recently purchased by him. Capt. Knox will move into the Holeman house, on Vine St., just vacated by Mr. Adams.

—The Senate has confirmed the appointment by Gov. Hoyt of Rev. E. E. Higbee, of Mercersburg College, as Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania, in place of J. P. Wickersham whose term has expired.

—Sammy Clark and Charley Davis caught a young coon on the hill back of town last Sunday afternoon. "Monk" expects to go into the show business again next summer, and is commencing thus early to collect his menagerie.

—Mr. J. E. Hillard's name will be found among the announcements for County Superintendent to day. The first Tuesday in May is the time for holding the convention, and those expecting to be candidates should not delay announcing too long.

—Now is the time to clean up old rubbish, decayed vegetable matter, &c., which has accumulated during the winter and been covered up by the snow. If allowed to remain it will breed malaria, and any amount of sickness will result therefrom.

—Several drovers and cattle buyers have passed through this section of late picking up all the milch cows to be had. A drove passed through town on Monday en route for Chautauqua County, N. Y., where good cows are said to bring very fair prices.

—Rev. Hill has temporarily closed his revival meeting at Nebraska. He will resume the good work as soon as the weather and roads become more settled. The meetings so far have been blessed with good success, upward of 18 having been converted.

—George W. Dithridge is about to commence the sale of his entire stock of goods at auction. He expects to embark in other business and takes this method of disposing of his large assortment of goods. The sale will be without reserve. P. S.—The sale will begin this evening.

—Macaroni, Vermicelli, Tapioca, crushed white wheat in bulk, cheap; choice dried prunes, cal-cumb honey, marrow beans, bananas, oranges, dates, figs. Novelties in queensware, &c., this day at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.

—Goods cheap at Aug. 11, '80. HASLET & SONS.

—Last Sunday was the first day of Spring. We make this statement because it's a fact, and not on account of any particular balminess noticeable in the weather on that occasion. Had we been allowed to name it we should have said it was the first day of winter, and a mighty good starter at that.

—A "special" from Mercer to the Commercial Gazette has the following complimentary notice of our new and popular President Judge: "Judge Wm. D. Brown, of Warren, is holding court this week for Judge McDermitt, and has made many friends among our lawyers by his gentlemanly and scholarly bearing upon the bench."

—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co., have purchased the Pittsburg & Western, Butler & Parker, and Foxburg & Clarion narrow gauge railroads, and intends building the connecting links from Evansville to Butler, and from Parker to Foxburg, and a road from either Ridgway or Warren, so as to make the whole an important outlet for the oil producing and lumber country.—New Bethlehem Vindicator.

—On Monday there came near being a drowning accident at Nebraska. It happened in the usual way. Below the dam the swirls in the water are very strong, and unless the man at the forward oar is very cautious he will be thrown from the raft, when the oar takes the water. This happened to Colwell Hoover, and he was thrown some distance from the raft, but had the presence of mind and grit to hang to the oar-stem, from which perilous predicament he was with difficulty rescued by the other men on the raft. The best swimmers cannot navigate if they once get into these swirls.

—Mr. E. G. Jackson, of Tidioute, father of the boy, George Henry Jackson, who met with the fatal accident on the railroad on the 22d of February, was in town last week. It was reported that the boy had both legs cut off, but this was not the case. He attempted to jump on the moving train, when he slipped and fell in front of the wheels, but held himself from going under, and the wheels did not pass over him. He lived 5 or 6 hours after the accident. His age was 10 years and 7 months; was considered a bright and promising youth, and his untimely end was a heavy blow to his parents and playmates.

—We see by the Pittsburgh Commercial-Gazette that the lumber firm of Ford & Lacy, of this county is in danger of being dissolved, and that Miss Sarah A. Ford has brought suit against the other members of the firm, and served an injunction on them to suspend operations. The plaintiff alleges that the business has been carried on in a reckless and extravagant manner, and that she has never received returns from lumber sold, &c. How this is we know not, but as the firm has given employment to a great many workmen and been a vast benefit to our county in that direction, we hope that matters may be amicably settled and business go on. The suspension of so heavy a firm would be a great detriment to the laboring and producing interests of this community. We believe Miss Ford asks that a Receiver be appointed.

—Mr. Thomas D. Dunn, who was principal of our public schools here and resigned in 1878 for the purpose of studying medicine, his many old friends will remember, graduated with honor as an M. D. at the University of Pa., on the 15th inst., and was the recipient of one of the two gold medals. The following concerning him we copy from the Philad'a Press of March 16: "The contest for the Anatomical prize of a gold medal was so close that the Demonstrator of Anatomy caused two medals of equal value to be struck, awarding them to Thomas D. Dunn, of Pa., and Geo. E. de Schweinitz, of Pa." The old University sends forth 115 graduates for 1881, in Medicine, and 47 Dentists. We chronicle the success of our former townsman with pride. P. S.—Mr. Dunn stopped in town over last Sunday to shake hands with his many old friends, all of whom took pleasure in congratulating him on his success, and bright prospects for the future.

—Macaroni, Vermicelli, Tapioca, crushed white wheat in bulk, cheap; choice dried prunes, cal-cumb honey, marrow beans, bananas, oranges, dates, figs. Novelties in queensware, &c., this day at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co.

—Goods cheap at Aug. 11, '80. HASLET & SONS.

The Lumber Business.

The few warm days of last week were sufficient to thaw the heavy snow still in the woods, and raise the creek to good rafting stage, and on Sunday afternoon rafts began running out. The harbor at Little Tionesta was filled with "creek pieces," and a large number were landed at the mouth of the creek. Considerable ice still remaining above Newtown, none were run from above that place. The river is now too high for running, but "coupling-up" will begin forthwith, and as soon as the water falls sufficiently the rafts will start for market. It is estimated that between 18,000,000 and 20,000,000 feet of beards and manufactured lumber will be run out of Tionesta creek this spring, which will be divided up about as follows: Lacytown will furnish about 6,000,000—Ford & Lacy 4,000,000, and Payne and Haskell about 1,000,000 each; Bear Creek 6,000,000—Root & Watson 3,000,000, Russell 2,000,000 and Shoup 1,000,000; Newtown Mills, Wheeler & Dusenbury, in the neighborhood of 1,000,000; Salmon Creek, Salmon Creek Lumber Co., about 500,000; Buck Mills, Bob's Creek and Porkey about 4,000,000, divided among Hall, May, Gillespie and Tobey; Eli Berlin will have about 500,000 to run. Besides this there will be in the neighborhood of 300,000 feet of square timber run out of Tionesta Creek. From East Hickory, this county, there will probably be run from four to six million of lumber, and upward of 200,000 feet of timber, the bulk of which is owned by Allen, Braco & Co. This will make an aggregate of nearly 25,000,000 feet of lumber, and about 500,000 of timber from this county, exclusive of the Barnett township lumber, which is run on the Clarion, and of which we have heard no estimates; we can, however, say it will run into the millions.

It would seem that this rather unusual amount of lumber from this county, together with proportionately large amounts from other sections, would overstock the market and bring down prices, but from what we can learn it seems that Pittsburgh dealers are anticipating a large run, and yet are predicting good prices and a large demand. This product ought to bring from $300,000 to $400,000 into this section of the county this coming summer, which in turn ought to make times good, and we predict they will be.

Tidioute Talk.

Nellie Arters returned to Olean last Friday.

H. M. C. wants to know who tore that gate off.

Over a dozen from here went to Titusville last Wednesday to see Bernhard.

Miss Dolly Hood and George, of Tionesta, visited Miss Mary Gorman during the week.

The "crows" are still "cawing." The "old crow" has skipped out, and has not got back yet.

Frank Anderson, our "boss" painter, is going to leave us. He is going to open a shop in Titusville.

Take your fishing tackle and go fishing. We noticed some fine strings of suckers on the street last week.

Those that were at Cora Benner's last Friday evening say "we just had a jolly and lively time." We know it.

Is it anybody's business If a gentleman should choose, To go with a lady If she does not refuse? Then why is it—although None of their affair— That they must stand and stare, And try to make it so?

SEED CATALOGUE.—We are in receipt of Mr. Joseph Harris' catalogue of Farm, Garden and Flower Seeds for 1881. Mr. Harris is a comparatively new man in the seed business, but he is an old farmer and seed grower. He has a fine farm of about 300 acres near Rochester, N. Y., in the highest state of cultivation, and ought to be able to furnish his customers with good seeds at reasonable prices. He offers to send his catalogue free to all applicants. Address Joseph Harris, Moreton Farm, Rochester, N. Y.

For Sale or Rent, The Klinefister house, situated near G. W. Bovard's residence, and at present occupied by Thos. Hassey. Terms reasonable and very easy. Inquire at this office.

The Blue Jay Well.

We have nothing particularly new to chronicle regarding the recent strike at Blue Jay. The new well has been tubed and makes an occasional flow, but just what size producer it will be seems to be one of the things which no fellow can find out. We understand several new rigs are going up in that section, and business is assuming quite active proportions. Yesterday's Derrick has the following concerning Blue Jay No. 2:

The reports concerning this well are as much exaggerated as were those from Blue Jay No. 1, and the true condition of the well will not be known until it has blown off its head and settled down to steady business. The only thing which it has settled so far, is that oil exists near the Sheffield gas streak, but how wide, long, narrow or short the belt or field is, the drill can only determine. It may lay alongside of the gas streak, like the Cole Creek belt, or it may be a pool in the northern part of Forest county. To the southwest several dry holes determine where it does not go, and in the north the gas wells shut it off, while several miles to the east one or two ventures have proven bad speculations.

The Derrick this morning has the following dispatches:

SHEFFIELD, March 22. The oil in the 250 barrel tank at the Blue Jay well No. 2, was within fifteen inches of the top this morning. Another tank has been ordered and will be put up to-morrow. Between seven o'clock last night and 7:15 this morning it made eight inches, and between 8:15 this morning and two o'clock this afternoon it made two inches. It looks at present like a thirty barrel well, but a better idea of its production can be obtained when the head is off. If it holds up for ten days at its present rate, nobody will dispute that a new and prolific field has been struck. But if it drops like its twin, Blue Jay No. 1, it will be of no more interest to oilmen.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] SHEFFIELD, March 22.

An actual gauge shows the Blue Jay did forty-two barrels in twenty-four hours.

—No. 15 of "Saalfeld's 10c. Libraries," is at hand and contains the following choice pieces of music: "In the Starlight," "I Would that my Love," "Marquiset Marquise," "Will he Come." Any of the above selections would cost four or five times the amount asked for the entire collection if bought of any of the music dealers. This work is issued monthly at 10 cents a number, or $1.00 per year, and contains all the newest and most popular music of the day. Send 10 cents for a sample copy to R. A. Saalfeld, 839 Broadway, N. Y.

—Peterson's Magazine for April, just received, is an unusually brilliant number, especially in its engravings. In addition to a beautiful steel-plate, "In the balcony," illustrating a tale by Frank Lee Benedict, it has a charming little love-story, by Ella Rodman Chrbch, with numerous engravings. That powerful novellet, "The Twelve Great Diamonds," by Mrs. Jane G. Austin, is completed in this number. There are two colored patterns; a colored steel fashion plate; and nearly half a hundred other illustrations. The terms are but two dollars a year, with great deduction to clubs, and handsome premiums to the person getting up the club. Back numbers, to January inclusive, can always be supplied, if wished. Address, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia

—The April number of Ballou's Illustrated Magazine is now before the public, with a liberal installment of that thrilling Indian story, "The Crimson Trail." The hero is making his mark on the Indians as they hem him in on all sides; but we suppose that his deliverance is sure to come at the proper time. Besides this great Indian story, there are some twenty others, with poetry, and a leading illustrated article on the town of Aden, in the Red Sea. Now is the time to subscribe for this popular and cheap magazine. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street; Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum.

—Why is E. K. Thompson's Barometer considered the best known remedy for liver and kidney diseases? Because he has thousands of testimonials from those who have been cured by taking it. Prepared at Titusville, Pa.
