Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Every body busy. Farmers are anxious to start the plow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dafeo, of Titusville, are visiting Mr. Dingman's family.

Miss Maude Davis returned Friday from a four week's visit to friends in Franklin.

Smearbaugh & Co., have erected a new sign over their store. Artist Doust did it.

Mr. Wolcott has moved into the Harlan house, recently occupied by Geo. Scott's family.

Last Sunday afternoon was very pleasant, and nearly everybody with their friends took a walk.

Will Hulings came home from the Bradford diggings last week, and will remain a week or two.

Our jail was occupied by a lone tramp on Sunday night, the first tenant it has had for several weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Derickson has been quite sick for several days past with sore throat. She is improving now, we believe.

Although nearly two weeks of the trout season has passed we have not heard of one being caught up to the present.

The snow has about all disappeared from the hills surrounding us. But in the big woods, there's an abundance of it left.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of Wm. Smearbaugh & Co., to-day. Their goods are always fresh, first-class and cheap.

A small dwelling house is being erected on Samuel Hawthorn's place, above the brickyard. We have not learned who is to be its occupant.

The peep frogs have not tuned up yet; until they do don't look for much spring. P. S.—They thawed out sufficiently to be heard last night.

Ridgway is agitating a new school house. Better come down and take a pattern of the new one Tionesta erected (in her mind) a short time ago.

The city of Ohio, Turkey, with nearly all its inhabitants—over 15,000—was entirely destroyed by an earthquake on the 5th inst. It is one of the most horrible occurrences on record.

By the igniting of the gas from an oil well near Stoneham, on Saturday, four men, John Reig, James, Andrew and Cal. Brown, were badly burned,—the two former, it is feared, fatally.

Our enterprising tinner and hardware dealer, Ed. Heibel has just received a new lot of cooking stoves of the latest and most approved styles. Raftman will find it to their advantage to call on him.

Our townsman, George Haslet, has swapped his horse and lot in this place for the old High Myers farm, on Hunter's Run, about two miles from this place. He will move to the place as soon as practicable and farm it.

Derick: Friday was the biggest day ever known in the telegraph business in Oil City. Between Bradford and this place alone there were 1,300 telegrams passed over the wires. The day's business footed up about 5,000 messages.

A number of our Greenback citizens went to Oil City to see General Weaver, late candidate for President, on Saturday last. He spoke to a large audience in the evening, but as no trains were run after the speech closed parties from here did not stay to hear him.

The new officers of some of our sister boroughs were sworn in on Monday last week. The law prescribes that all borough officers shall be sworn in on the first Monday in March, and the failure of the said boroughs to comply therewith may give them some trouble. The law was fully complied with in this borough.

A thirteen year old boy named Keizer left his home in Pinecreek township, near Brookville, on the 9th of February last, and has not been heard from since. Any information in regard to him can be addressed to his father, Mr. George Keizer, Brookville, Pa.

G. W. Robinson, Zach. Shriver and Billy Blum were out spearing last Thursday night and brought in 55 nice suckers. This is the earliest we have known spearing to commence for many years, but it's all played out now, the river being up to good rafting stage at this writing.

Ridgway and Tionesta want new school houses. We'll bet every cent that we've saved out of our profits in the printing business during the past ten years that Clarion is more in need of a school house than either of her neighbors.—Clarion Jacksonian. All right! We'll take that bet. Put up your nickel.

Clarion Democrat: Some people can never let well enough alone. No sooner had it begun to show signs of spring than fault was found with Venor because there had not been as many snows as predicted. All right says the old man, rub the old score out, begin again, and let us have a new count. That's why we are at the beginning of winter again.

Work has been commenced on the extension of the Buffalo, Pittsburgh & Western railroad from Irvinetown to Salamanca. Workmen are now grading near Kinzua village, and have almost filled up the wagon road with dirt. The inhabitants of that locality are seeking for some means to prevent their highway from being shut up entirely to make a passage for a railroad.—Derrick.

One of Hon. E. L. Davis' twin boys, Don, has been very bad with diphtheria for several days past. It was feared at one time that the child could not live, but we believe it is now considered out of danger. D. W. Clark's little boy, Bruce, was taken with the same on Sunday and has been very sick since, but the doctor thinks he has control of the disease and that the child is not dangerous.

Rafts commenced running out of the creek yesterday afternoon, and to-day the mouth of the creek is, or will be before night, full of lumber. With good management there is no reason why all the lumber, timber, &c., along the creek should not be brought out on this flood, as the large amount of snow yet in the woods will doubtless keep the creek and river in good rafting stage for several days.

Easter comes next Sunday. Easter is a great day for eating eggs. There will doubtless be fried eggs, scrambled eggs, and hard and soft boiled eggs; poached eggs and eggs on toast; highly colored eggs; good eggs, bad eggs, and indifferent eggs. In fact the occasion will doubtless be an eggs-traordinary one in this country, and eggs will take a tumble after that day.

Venor's almanac predicted a snow fall on the 7th and 8th of April, with floods in the West. This prophecy was emphatically fulfilled. He further says that the spring will open favorably, that everything will be pretty well advanced by April 15th, that the month will end cold and wet, but that, on the whole, it will be like a May month. Venor begins to be sort o' half decent.—Franklin News.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary, wife of Jas. Black, and daughter of J. H. Wentworth, will be pained to learn that she is now lying at Death's door with consumption, all hopes of her recovery being abandoned. A child was born to her last week but lived but a short time; this, no doubt, has hastened her disease. That Divine Providence may intervene and spare her life is the prayer of her many friends.

Yesterday afternoon while some men were endeavoring to get a raft off which had stuck near the ferry at East Hickory, one of them, Peter Ereckson, had his left leg brokeu just above the ankle. They had the cable fastened to a windlass, and when drawn very tight, it slipped, striking Ereckson on the leg and resulting as above. The injured man was brought to this place last evening, and the fracture, which is a severe one, was reduced by Dr. Blaine. Ereckson is a man about 28 or 30 years of age, a Swede by birth, and makes his home at Irvinetown. He will doubtless have a long siege of it before he can use his leg.

On Wednesday last Chas. Rose was quite severely bruised by having a log roll over him at Polen's mill, on Bob's Creek, Howe township. He was hauling a load of logs to the mill and was on the load when he was thrown off and the log passed over him. The depth of the snow was all that saved him from being crushed to death. Dr. Blaine has charge of the case and says the patient is rapidly recovering.

A most dangerous counterfeit of the U. S. standard silver dollar now in circulation, and we warn our readers to look out for them. The milling is perfect, they have the ring of the genuine metal, and there is an absence of the greasy substance generally to be detected in base coins. They are somewhat lighter in weight and shade thicker than the genuine, and these latter defects are about the only points by which they can be detected.

The Conneautville Independent is the name of a new paper published at Conneautville, Crawford Co., Pa., by Rev. Wm. F. Zell, the first number of which is before us. It is a large, neatly printed sheet, and starts out with a good advertising patronage. It is independent in politics and temperance in principle. The need of a little opposition in the newspaper business in that place has long been felt, hence this new publication. We wish the new enterprise abundant success.

The editor of the Democrat dislikes to hear the name of Dr. S. S. Towler, the plucky operator of Jenks township, favorably mentioned. The reason is obvious: Ever since the witty Doctor hauled him over the coals so roughly in the campaign last fall, Kepler has had a grudge laid up against him, and never lets an opportunity slip to show his venom. You ought not to have given him such terrible raking, Doctor; we fear he will never get over it.

We understand that the Messrs. Cobb have sold out their interests on Coon Creek to Messrs. Miles & Sheasley, of Franklin, both of whom are energetic, stirring gentlemen, and will push the lumbering business with a vim. Cobb & Sons commenced operations at that place in November last, and under Rowland Cobb's management had got well along and in good shape to manufacture lumber. We believe they sold out to a good advantage to both themselves and purchasers.

Last Saturday Zach Shriver, Will Hulings and Frank Hunter caught a yearling buck in the river just above the bridge. It had been run in by some dogs, and in coming down the steep bluff fell and broke one of its legs; the fracture was so severe that it could not be healed, the bones protruding through the skin, so it was killed and dressed. Strange to say it was in good order, and those who tried it say it made good eating. It is to be hoped the owners of the dogs will not allow them to commit such a depredation again.

Col. J. H. Dewees arrived in town from Dodge City, Kansas, on Saturday last. He looks natural, but somewhat more tinged with silvery gray than when we last saw him. The Colonel is not as favorably impressed with Kansas, especially the western and southern portions thereof, as might be supposed after a two years' sojourn in that locality. He thinks there is more in the mining business of Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico in one minute than there ever was in farming, and that those States are loaded down with gold and silver. We didn't learn how long he expects to remain.

Bro. Carlisle, of the Clarion Jacksonian hits the bull's eye when he says: "How few realize the constant, ceaseless expense of running a newspaper. Many who are benefitted by the paper being published in their town will sponge its reading in a store, hotel or postoffice, and let their families go without, or borrow it from a neighbor, while they neglect to give the paper any support. Yet if anything occurs that they are interested in, whether it is a personal or a puff, they are ready to blame the editor for its shortcomings and to take it as a matter of course that he must do all possible to sustain the reputation of the town and the people in it, while they refuse to either assist or encourage him by giving him their patronage."

Boots and shoes of all grades; prices the very lowest. Men's whole stock Brogan's at $1 25; at Robinson & Bonner's.

Bad Judgment.

The people of Tionesta voted last Saturday not to build a new school house. In these days of the development of oil in Forest county, Tionesta should offer inducements to men of family to settle in their town. And what holds good in Tionesta also holds good in Tidioute. We have always had good schools, and it is the duty of School Directors to make them as much better as possible. The grumblers will always grumble, and the Directors owe it to themselves to do the best they know how for the children irrespective of useless complaints.—Tidioute News.

Oil Notes.

Reports from the Blue Jay country are somewhat meager this week. The No. 2 is falling off a little in production, and has got down to twelve or thirteen barrels; doubtless the well will be torpedoed before long.

Preparations are making to lay a pipe line from the Blue Jay to connect with the United line from Kane to the lower oil country which was laid through parts of this county last summer.

Fox & Hill are putting up a rig southwest of the Blue Jay. They will commence drilling this week.

The well northeast of Blue Jay No. 1, by Horton & Kerberger, is down between 600 and 600 feet.

Grandin & Berry, at Balltown, are preparing as fast as possible to start the drill in their new venture.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of letters remaining in Tionesta, Pa., Post Office, April 13, 1881: Martin Appleton, Mrs. Jennie M. Bell, Miss Jennie Bell, Phils Cooper, Charles Dorret, John Eckols, Daniel H. Gibson, Geo. W. Glenn, Miss Lucy A. Harrison, McKenny Hilton, Maggie Hoy, Mrs. Saffrona Weaver, W. H. Wolte, Seth W. Warren, L. D. Whitcomb, Will Vantassel, Miss Ida Sauer, W. P. Shan, H. M. Rounds.

If not called for within 20 days will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. J. M. McKAY, P. M.

Tidioute Talk.

Mrs. White of Erie, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. L. G. Henry.

Mrs. Jennie Head left us to-day for her new home in Pittsburgh.

Charley Nash is going to Titusville this week to try his hand in the grocery business.

There is lots of lumber above here yet to go down, only want of water is keeping it back.

We can't tell-how "big" we appreciate the few days of fine weather we have been getting.

Fanny England came home last Wednesday from Fredonia, for a vacation of two weeks.

J. R. Kuhn is getting his lumber ready for a new dwelling house, which he is going to commence to build soon.

A party composed of the band and a lot of young folks started on Thursday night for a farewell sleigh ride and a surprise on Mr. Gilmore, the leader of the band. But owing to too much up hill they had to be contented with lots of music and their ride.

Tidioute, April 11, '81.
