THE infamous character of a rebel servance. brigadier never dawned on the average Democratic mind, until Mahone voted with the Republicans a few times. Heretofore the few rebel soldiers who cast their influence with the Republicans, did not affect the result; now that circumstances have made Muhone's vote necessary to Democratic success and Mahone did not vote with the Solid South, the party has readjusted its opinions of rebel brigadiers. -Meadville Republican.

In accordance with our rules and regulations, Monday, the 30th day of May, will be observed as memorial ent, as the meeting will be an import. day, and the Grand Army of the Republic is invited to make such arrangements for its reverent observance and will do fitting bonor to the memories and resting places of our dead comrades; and it is hoped and expected that the several posts will so apportion and prepare for the work of visiting the different cemeteries that no grave of a soldier or a sailor will be on that day without a floral token

To this end the co-operation or citi zens, of churches, of schools, and of benevolent societies, should be invited, and, in towns where no posts are yet organized, the nearest should through correspondence or personal solicitation by committees, secure a proper ob-

It is further suggested that each NEW REVISION ost attend Divine service on Sunday, May 29th, as a fitting preparation for the solemn duties of the day,

It is now thirteen years since this Memorial Day was instituted, and that which seemed to many of doubtful propriety, has steadily grown in public favor, and has been more and more generally observed.

Each year we are called on to visit hundreds of new graves; the graves of comrades who have met with us in our post rooms, many of them foremost in Grand Army work, but who have gone before to the re-union of the Graud Army above, reminding us how rapidly our ranks are being thinned by death, and binding us more firmly together as comrades.

Let each day speak to us memories which enwreath an immortal renown; only by the Nation's necessity : of the duty laid upon us to preserve untarnished the inheritance of valor and conduct as citizens may make more honorable our services as defenders of the Union, and that all who assemble with us in memory of our dead may learn to love our country, to respect The following nominations were her laws, and to reverence her flag. drams beat the "long roll" we knew no distinction of class, of race, or of faith, so let us know no differences, sectional, partisan, or religious, as we ETABLES, BAKERS BREAD, OYSries of our heroes; as we salute a flag as we supplicate for the widow and the orphan, for ourselves and our homes,

EARS FOR THE MILLION! FOO CHOO'S

BALSAM OF SHARK'S OIL, Positively restores the hearing, and is the only absolute cure for deafness known. This oil is extracted from a poculiar pecies of White Shark, caught in the Yetew Sea, known as Carchatodon Rondeleth. Every climese fisherman knows it, Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 360 years no Deatuess has existed among the Chimese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1 per bottle. Only imported by HAYLOCK & CO., 7 Dey St., New York. Sole agents for America.

Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experican personally testify, both from experi-ence and observation. Among the many renders of the Review in one part and another of the country, it is probable that aumbers are afflicted with ucapiess, and to such it may be said: "Write at once to Haylock & Co., 7 Dey St., New York, cuclosing $1, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like inybody else, and whose curative effects and their bands of highwayman down to doing so,"-Editor of the New York Mer--Editor of the New York Mer-
