Will Stephens, of Pet. Centre, has been stopping in town for a few days past.

Eggs are selling in Tionesta at eleven cents per dozen, and plenty at that.

Col. Thomas A. Scott, the great railroad king died at Clifton, Pa., on Saturday, May 21.

Fancy and very pretty "waves" are now worn by ladies as a finishing touch to their front hair.

No one need be idle in and about Tionesta. There is plenty of work for everybody, and men are scarce.

Clark Kepler came home from Allegheny College, Meadville, last week and remained over Sunday.

All sizes stove crooks. Also, stone, pine, and oak churns at Robinson & Bonner.

No strawberries have touched this market yet, and at the prices asked all around us we suppose they will not be much touched when they reach us.

Some of our young ladies are receiving letters from — requesting a correspondent. Say, K., don't put a 3 cent stamp on a drop letter and try to make some one believe it came from N.

The Kane Blade says that "last week 25,000 trout were taken from the Ludlow trout ponds." Why don't some enterprising individual start a trout pond in this vicinity? There is money in the business.

Harry Beam and S. Becket came up from Oil City yesterday and put up at the Central. These boys have been working on Polen's Mill, at Bob's Creek all winter, but got loose the other day and came down to "have a time."

Supt.-elect Hillard returned Saturday from a visit to his parents and friends in Clarington. He put in a couple of weeks at the plow on his father's farm while there. His term of office will begin on the first Monday in June.

Our glass ball busters have got at it again, and had their first shoot of the season last Saturday, which resulted in very fair scores after laying off so long. It is a pleasant pastime, and ought to be indulged in by more of our shootists.

Three prisoners, Jackson, Harrop and Ott, confined in the Clarion jail for complicity in the Connor robbery, were thwarted in an attempt to escape last week.

T. H. Wilson, General Superintendent, and Mr. McCrery, Chief Engineer of the B. P. & W. R'y, passed up the Road Monday, giving instructions for new side tracks.

Mr. Jas. W. Ward, of Jenks township, who has been employed during the winter in the railroad shops at Renova, Pa., came home last week.

Business at the West Hickory depot must be increasing. A new assistant arrived at the domicile of Rob. Herman Monday evening.

Mr. Henry Blume is building a temporary dwelling on his Tubbs Run farm, and will do considerable clearing there this summer.

W. T. Cobb, Esq., of Rockland, Me., paid Tionesta a visit last week, and while here was the guest of Ben. W. May.

Mr. Jake Goettel, of the Oil City oil exchange was in town a short time last week. Mr. G. is well-known to many of our old citizens among whom he used to circulate, and who are always glad to see his smiling countenance.

We met Rev. Elliott, formerly of this place, at the depot last Friday as he passed up the Road on his return from Oil City.

Messrs. Chas. B. Evans of the B. P. & W. R'y, and J. P. H. Jones, of Norristown, Pa., passed through town Monday, en route for the trout streams of the upper Tionesta.

Last Friday evening Robert Patterson, who works on the Beaver Valley saw mills, ran his hand against the edging saw, sawing off the first finger of the left hand, and lacerating the others.

The election contest between Jas. Swailes and Jas. Walters over the Constabulary of Tionesta Borough, was decided in our courts last week in favor of Mr. Walters.

Mr. G. W. Sawyer, who represented the Tionesta Odd Fellows at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of this State, at Harrisburg, last week, returned on Friday.

Here is a good recipe for killing a town: "Underrate every present and prospective enterprise; speak ill of the churches and schools; tell everybody the hotels are bad; enlarge the vices of the people; withhold patronage from your merchants and tradesmen, and buy your goods and groceries at some other place; never subscribe for your local paper, and if you are in business, refuse to advertise."

Democratic candidates are coming to the fore in this county. Last week's Democrat has the following announcements: Prothonotary, Jno. Peterson, of Troutville; Sheriff, J. S. Hood and W. T. Whyte of Tionesta; Commissioners, Geo. F. Watson of Kingsley, and T. P. Flynn of Green township.

D. W. Clark's daughter, Effie, who was very low with the diphtheria, had a serious relapse, and at present is in a critical condition.

The following cases were disposed of by the court last week in addition to those reported in our last: Moyer vs. Haslet and Blaise; verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $17.96.

Winnans estate vs. Nancy Dawson; verdict for plaintiff for $71.50. D. R. Walters vs. Sam'l Whitten; verdict for defendant.

Haslet & Sons vs. Jamieson & Copeland; verdict for defendants. The constable election contest, Jas. Swailes vs. Jas. Walters—was decided in favor of Mr. Walters, the successful candidate.

Mr. Philo Williams, of Barnett township, met with quite a severe accident while attending court here last week. He was helping to unload a grain drill from a wagon in 'Squire Brennan's' lane, when his hold slipped and the machine struck him a violent blow on the head.

Mr. Morrow dressed the wounds. After recuperating somewhat he was able to drive home in the afternoon.

To-morrow (Thursday) Morris, the well known Tailor, of Oil City, will be in town with a full line of samples of the newest and best cloths, and take orders for suits.

He will be found at the Lawrence House, where all in need of anything in his line should call and take advantage of the opportunity of getting a splendid suit, at 20 to 25 per cent. lower than the same can be had of any other tailor.

Mr. Morris has a good trade from this place generally, and has always given good satisfaction to his customers. Don't forget to call and examine his samples.

Dr. Blaine was called who amputated the first finger midway between the knuckle and the first joint, dressed the others and left his patient comfortable. This case illustrates the benefits of the telephone: the accident occurred at 4:30 p. m.; a messenger went to Bracco's mills and telephoned to Hickory and it was telegraphed thence to Tionesta, reaching Dr. Blaine by 5 o'clock, and the Doctor reached his patient at 7:40—three hours and ten minutes—the distance being fifteen miles.

The election contest between Jas. Swailes and Jas. Walters over the Constabulary of Tionesta Borough, was decided in our courts last week in favor of Mr. Walters, the successful candidate at the late spring election.

The plaintiff charged that the defendant had not been a resident of the State long enough to be eligible to the office, but it seems the court thought he had. The worst of the whole matter is that the poor borough was saddled with the cost; but we suppose we will not hear much about this matter from those who sent up such a howl about costs, &c., when the contest of a few years ago was going on in the county; several of those who growled the most and made the biggest fuss at the time, signed Mr. Swailes' petition for this contest. This is doubtless a new type of Greenback reform and retrenchment.

FOREST OIL NOTES.

From a reliable source we learn that the Blue Jay district is holding its own; that is, all the wells that have produced oil are still keeping up their production. Several new rigs are being started and new leases being taken. The Richburg, N. Y., district, for a few days, produced quite a diversion to oil operators, but many that have been through that country in the last few days have returned, and think Forest county is the next new oil field.

Mr. J. C. Cornwell, of Stoneboro, has let the contract to Mr. H. H. Keeler of putting down a well near Root & Watson's mill, in Kingsley township, about three miles east of Tionesta creek. The well is located on the Russell tract No. 5134, and near the A. Palmer tract No. 5156, owned by Bonner & Cornwell. It is on the 45 degree line connecting the upper and lower oil fields and on which the Blue Jay wells are situated.

Grove, Hart & Co. have driven stakes for a new wildcat well on the hill on the east side of the Allegheny river, opposite Troutville. They are already getting rig stuff on the ground and will start the drill some time next week.

Dr. Towler's well, on warrant 3171, near Marienville, Forest county, has reached a depth of 2,000 feet and is pronounced dry. A number of sands were passed through; but, with a single exception, they were all dry. This sand, which was about seventy feet in thickness, was found 1,700 feet from the surface, and on a level, it is claimed, corresponding with the oil-bearing sand at the Darling well, in the Blue Jay region.

The Derrick has the following: "The M'gee & Horton well is still holding its own nicely, and doing about five inches a day in the 800 barrel tank. The work of drilling a pocket in the Green Bros. & Darling well has been completed, and is now tubed and working in good shape again. Mr. Green, one of the owners, said to-day that it started off at forty barrels."

Transfers of real estate in Forest county from May 1st to May 24, 1881, as appears by the records in the Recorder's office:

William D. Winsor et ux to John G. Hall, warrant 3669, Jenks Twp., $1. Lydia A. Naulty to Susannah Naulty, 100 acres in Jenks Twp., $1.

ICE CREAM CAKE (delicious)—Take the whites of twelve eggs, beat them to a stiff froth on a large platter with a silver fork; beat in also one teaspoonful granulated sugar and one tablespoonful extract of vanilla; stir gently into this one teacupful sifted flour with one measure of "Banner" Baking Powder mixed thoroughly through the dry flour; don't grease your pans; bake forty minutes in a moderate oven which must not be opened for fifteen minutes. When cold remove from pan by loosening the edges with a case knife. Spread over with an icing made of the whites of two eggs beaten stiff, and one teacupful powdered sugar.

CLARINGTON.

Quillies Comes to the Front—A. News From Barnett Dished Up in Good Shape.

CLARINGTON, Pa., May 21, '81. The erratic pen of the scribe hath long been silent concerning the ways of Barnett, as though perhaps the ban of ostracism had passed upon the literary products thereof, or as though perchance the events of life as evolved in "Old Forest" lacked importances, or novelty sufficient to claim the notice of the scribe, or attract the eye of the reader.

But ye candidate knoweth that Barnett still clingeth to the body politic of Forest as a living member thereof; ye teacher hath knowledge that his services are not only needed but gratefully accepted and remunerated; ye traveler likewise understandeth that his wants will be attended to in Clarington when he stoppeth there; ye sportsman is also cognizant that fish aboundeth in the limpid waters of our streams, and that there is extant in our vicinity wilderness to tempt the rifle and tire the legs of embryo Cummings; and ye scribe divineth that development should be gradual, and further uttereth not on generalities and cometh down to particularities.

J. B. Pearsall has sundered the ties that bound him to commercial life, having sold out his entire stock, and good will to W. D. Shields & Bro. Our new merchants will occupy the new store-house with a part of their goods. The Reid House is undergoing repairs at the hand of our carpenter friend Geo. Bowers.

Our genial host of the Shield's house, Texter, has gone over into Jefferson, and now resides on the property of Richard Winlock, known as the Windsor property. Our friend Chas. Ritchie has almost ceased from the practice of his profession; Bethune has gone; Billy Williams and his brother Philo are the only knights of the anvil and tongs in town. Elder's boat-scaffold in full blast. Fult Frampton has bought the Besom property opposite Clarington; consideration $235. It is Mr. Frampton's intention to occupy the property soon.

There is some talk that the Bole's tract has been sold to some parties who, it is further said, will put up a mill or mills thereon. Richard Correll has disposed of his property on Maple Creek to a gentleman, name unknown to us, who will establish himself there as one of the sovereigns of Forest. There seems to be considerable immigration from parts unknown through our town to the bark-woods; men, w-men, children, teams, and all the other necessaries. The lumber interest has received a boost from the ready sale and good price of their spring's run, and the signs of the times indicate a brisk business in that industry during the summer.

The Coleman boat-scaffold is running. The logs bracketed down the run do not come near enough to the mill to be convenient, and a "bracket-dam" is being built at the head of the pond to help them along. Judge Kerr contemplates building a new barn during the summer. There has been considerable sickness up along the Clarion during the spring; in some instances fatal. Jas. O'Harra died not long ago, and Jerry Hoover buried one of his children quite lately. Thos. Osborne laid a little one of his to rest just a few days since. QUILLIES.

ADVERTISING CHEATS.—It has become so common to write the beginning of an elegant, interesting article and then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such cheat and simply call attention to the merit of Hop Bitters in as plain honest terms as possible, to induce people to give them one trial, as no one who knows their value will ever use anything else.—Providence Advertiser.
