LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9 a. m. M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m., F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.

—Mr. J. Bonner, of Stoneboro, Pa., was in town this week.

—Mrs. E. W. Eckols, of Franklin, is the guest of Mrs. E. L. Davis this week.

—Miss Emma Sloan, of Allegheny City, arrived on Friday last, and is paying Tionesta friends a visit.

—Hood Siggins was in town a few hours on Monday, and Jim dropped in on us a few minutes yesterday p. m.

—Mr. H. C. Greener, of the Titusville Herald, and a very pleasant gentleman, was doing Tionesta yesterday.

—Miss Flora Haslet, formerly of Tionesta, has now cast her fortunes with us in Cooperstown.—Cooperstown News.

—Rattlesnakes are not as large a crop this year as heretofore in this section; or else the stock of liars is decreasing.

—Dog days and fly time are upon us, and baldheads suffer accordingly.

—Squirrels may be killed from Sept. 1 to Jan. 1; pheasants Oct. 1 to Jan. 1; deer Oct. 1 to Dec. 31; according to the law.

—Harvest hands are very scarce this season; so much so that it is feared many of our farmers will not get their crops all garnered.

—The R. R. Co. have put in a new switch at this depot for the accommodation of shippers. It is a good scheme and is greatly appreciated by the patrons of the Road.

—Nelt. Cols, who has made careful examination, says the beechnuts will be a little more than a half crop, but sufficiently large, he thinks, to bring in the pigeons this fall.

—Editor Kepler is building an addition to the Democratic office, which will be occupied by Mr. Fulton as a harness shop. Mr. F. is doing a good business in his line, being kept busy day and night.

—Day after day teams loaded with cherry and ash lumber of unequalled quality pass our office door. It is all Forest county production and is enough to make the most indifferent citizen feel proud.

—Our old Democratic friend, T. J. Payne, of Tylersburg, is erecting a handsome and substantial dwelling at that place, the frame work of which is completed. Geo. Sawyer of this place is the "boss" carpenter.

—Mr. J. W. Jamieson is now the landlord of a first-class hotel in Salamanca, N. Y., having taken possession a week or two ago. John's many friends about here will wish him abundant success in his new departure.

—Baldwin's Railway Guide for July is on hand, and an excellent number it is. All travelers with good sense will provide themselves with this charming companion. No use missing connections when you are supplied with a Guide.

—An excursion to Brokenstraw Island, given by the Ivy Club of Oil City, yesterday, was a grand affair.

—The third annual trip of the Forest Primeval Excursion Club was held last week on the upper waters of Salmon Creek.

—The story comes to us that a couple of jew peddlers were arrested in Hickory township a short time ago, for selling goods without license.

—Maj. D. R. Herron and wife, of Titusville, paid our place a visit on Sunday as the guests of Mrs. O. B. Hoskins.

—The Major is the candidate for Sheriff of Crawford county on the Republican ticket, which same is equal to an election. At present he is the Deputy of eastern Crawford and so will go in the office with full experience.

—Will Cornwell, of Stoneboro, Pa., paid Tionesta a short visit this week. Mr. C. spent the winter in Florida for the benefit of his health, and we are glad to say that the balmy breezes of that lovely clime, where luscious fruits flourish the year round, have done much for him, if his appearance is an index.

—Mr. O. W. Proper is off on a trip combining business with pleasure. He started last week for Washington, D. C.; thence he went to Richmond, Va., from which place he writes us that he has seen a great deal of the country made famous in history by the bloody conflicts of the war.

—The National Guard of Pennsylvania will hold their annual encampment at Saltsburg, Indiana county, beginning August 10th. The Pennsylvania State Teacher's Association will hold their annual session this year at Washington, Pa., on July 26, 27 and 28.

—A horrible accident occurred in the Clarendon, Warren Co., oil field last Sunday, in which three men lost their lives. While torpedoing a well the gas and flowing oil caught fire from the boiler.

—John Noble and Geo. Hood made good time from Salmon Creek to this place last Saturday afternoon. The distance is 15 miles and they walked it, square "heel and toe," in three hours, over rough and hilly roads.

—Dan Rice's show showed in town last Friday afternoon and evening to fair audiences, and gave a very fair show. The original Dan Rice was with the circus, and at the evening performance came into the ring and cracked some of his original jokes, which were well received by the audience.

—A seven-year-old boy named Jimmy Kennedy, has been missing from his home in Oil City for nearly two weeks, and all efforts to find him have proved futile.

—Mr. G. W. King, of West Hickory, was in town Monday. We erred in stating some time ago that he was one of the nominees for Auditor in this county on the Greenback ticket.

—The Niagara Falls excursion on Thursday last was slimly attended from this place, but those who did attend say they were doubly repaid for their time and small outlay.

—An excursion to Brokenstraw Island, given by the Ivy Club of Oil City, yesterday, was a grand affair. The train contained six coaches, all of which were filled to overflowing.

—The story comes to us that a couple of jew peddlers were arrested in Hickory township a short time ago, for selling goods without license.

—Maj. D. R. Herron and wife, of Titusville, paid our place a visit on Sunday as the guests of Mrs. O. B. Hoskins. The Major is the candidate for Sheriff of Crawford county on the Republican ticket, which same is equal to an election.

—Some one has sent us a marriage notice from East Hickory, but has neglected to sign his name. We believe the marriage is genuine but we have no authority whatever for publishing this notice without the name of the sender.

—If any of our citizens want to see some sawed timber that is worth looking at, they should go down to the back channel, near the stove mill, where they can feast their eyes on some of the nicest that has ever been run from this section.

—A horrible accident occurred in the Clarendon, Warren Co., oil field last Sunday, in which three men lost their lives. While torpedoing a well the gas and flowing oil caught fire from the boiler.

—Last Thursday John Cleary, who owns a farm in Green township, came to town and requested to be locked in jail; he wanted to be securely fixed, "so they couldn't get at him," as he expressed it.

—There is nothing new to report from the late strike at Balltown. The well has been tubed and is flowing from 10 to 12 barrels, amber oil.

—The Fox, Hill & Reed well is in and dry. Darling No. 2, on tract No. 2991, is down and reported good for 30 barrels.

—Selden Whitman informs us that he has arrangements about completed with parties to clean out and drill deeper the well put down on his place two years ago, by the Hepler Bros.

—Selden Whitman informs us that he has arrangements about completed with parties to clean out and drill deeper the well put down on his place two years ago, by the Hepler Bros.

—The head of John's Run. A well was drilled on the Conroy farm, near Whitman's, several years ago, which might have proved a good strike had it been properly managed and tested.

—On Wednesday last, after going to press, we noticed a "mob" of men coming across the bridge from the train, and after making their way to the Central House, we discovered it was only Whittekin's engineer corps.

—The Salamanca extension of the B. P. & W. Railroad will be extended to Olean, a distance of 19 miles from the latter place, making the entire distance from Irvineton 63 2-10 miles.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins have been visiting with Mr. C. McAllister's for the past week.

—Our Sabbath School with C. E. Landers as Superintendent is in a flourishing condition; the number of pupils is steadily increasing.

—Pitching "quoits" has given way to croquet, which is now the game of the day; F. W. Woodcock boasts of the championship.

—Mrs. R. Carson is staying at Wallaceville, Venango Co., at present, with her parents.

—The farmers are all busy gathering their crops. They report them to be better than for some years past.

—SILVER CLIFF, COLO., July 18, 1881. MY DEAR JA—I MEAN MR. WENK:—I saw a copy of the REPUBLICAN a day or two since, and I vow and declare if you hadn't gone and published my letter.

—SILVER CLIFF, COLO., July 18, 1881. MY DEAR JA—I MEAN MR. WENK:—I saw a copy of the REPUBLICAN a day or two since, and I vow and declare if you hadn't gone and published my letter.

—E. G. Harper, of Kane City, A. O. Benjamin and G. Bloomer of Edenburg; Capt. W. B. Davis of Petroleum Centre, H. R. Davis of Pioneer, and others I forget.

—The snow is not quite all off the Sangre de Christo range yet, but is fast disappearing. There are some beautiful specimens of mineral here: Sylvanite, Pyrites of Copper, Pyrites of Iron, Silver Glance, Ruby silver, Grey Copper, Tellurium, Horn Silver, Chlorides, Sulphurets, Carbonates.

—Phillip Long was killed by the falling of a piece of timber at Brace & Allen's saw mill, in Hickory township, Forest Co., Pa., July 19, 1881, in the 34th year of his age.

—Bro. Long was converted to God, in December of 1875, at East Hickory, under the labors of Rev. John Abbott, and immediately connected himself with the M. E. Church at that place.

—A large concourse of sympathizing friends followed his remains to their resting place. The funeral services were conducted by the writer. God helps us to be "always ready."

—I had great trouble with my lungs until I used Peruna. Am well. Mrs. A. Briske, Pittsburg, Pa.

—For nervousness and chronic catarrh take Peruna. I tried it. L. K. Mysler, Allegheny City, Pa.
