LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.
Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

-Rev. Hill will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

-Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.; F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.

-The awful drought still continues throughout the land.

-Mr. Clark Kepler returned to his studies in Allegheny College on Monday.

-Mrs. H. S. Bates, of Titusville, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs.
H. H. May.

-Mrs. E. L. Davis is visiting friends in North Mills, Mercer county, at present.

-Mr. J. B. Allen, of Espey, Crawford county, brother of Geo. spent the Sabbath with him.

-Mr. Jack Burgess, of Omaha, Neb., was the guest of Mr. Jackson's family during the week.

-The Franklin Fair commences to-day and lasts 'till Friday night. It will be the best in Western Pa.

-Miss Alwilda and Maude Adams, returned on Saturday last from a visit to friends in Silver Creek, N. Y.

-Miss May Kelly departed on Monday for a few weeks visit to friends and relatives in Cincinnati.

-"Brick" Adams of the News, Harry Coon and Lem Courson, represented Tidioute in Tionesta Monday.

-Rev. Gilbert De La Matyr, Greenbacker, held forth to a fair crowd at the Court House on Monday afternoon and evening.

-Mr. J. P. Sheriff, of New Bedford, Pa., one of our valued patrons, was in town last week, and made us pleasant visit.

-Mr. Wm. Brace, brother of the Ex-Sheriff, and also a Republican of the true blue stripe, paid us a pleasant call on Monday.

-Billy Morgan is no longer a widower. Mrs. Morgan, who has been visiting friends in St. Petersburg, returned yesterday.

-Misses Lucy, Julia and Albert Krech, of Corry, Pa., who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Ed. Heibel for some time, departed for their home yesterday.

-We neglected last week to acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr.
Willis Cowan, of the Warren Mail.

-Court convenes next Monday in Tionesta. The civil list is small, but all the cases will doubtless be tried; and the criminal calendar is rather large for Forest county, which will hardly fail to make a full week of it.

-The Tidioute brass band which furnished the music for the Greenback meeting on Monday, did exceedingly well, and we heard many express the opinion that it was the only redeeming feature of the affair.

-Squirrels are reported to be devastating the cotton fields of Arkansas by opening the cotton balls, eating the seed and scattering the cotton on the ground. This is said to be owing to the scarcity of corn and nuts.

-Mr. Saul, whom we reported having received a stroke of paralysis at Braceville last week, was brought home on Sunday, since which time he has been on the map. It is now thought he will fully recover, and soon be able to move about again.

-The Venango Spectator thinks that with light oil hovering around one dollar; heavy oil at five dollars, and holders not anxious to sell; and a lowering of thirty to forty degrees in the temperature of the weather, the people of this region should be correspondingly happy. And we think so too.

-Our old friend Papa Baldwin, of Tidioute, was among the visiting Masons at the institution of the lodge in this place last Thursday. The venerable gentleman seems to be perfectly at home among the masonic fraternity, and in the work of organizing lodges has few equals in the State. It does one good to sit down and spend an hour with a gentleman of his pleasant disposition.

-Wm. Wentworth, eldest son of J. H. Wentworth, is suffering with a serious illness, supposed to be consumption. Although he is in a critical condition, his physicians have hopes of his recovery. And we trust their hopes will be realized. P. S.—Mr.
Wentworth informs us this morning that his son is past recovery.

-We have no oil news to report this week. The bit still lingers in the bottom of the hole of the Corwell well, notwithstanding the persistent efforts of the contractors to extract it.
Groves & Wolcott have abandoned their well opposite Trunkeyville. It proved a duster of the justest kind.
The price of oil will probably take another jump upwards now.

-Charlie Congdon has returned to Tionesta, after several weeks spent with his relatives near Niagara Falls, and has assumed his accustomed position at the Central House. Charlie brought with him as usual, a good supply of those fine, luscious peaches from the celebrated peach orchard of Alex. Mabon, Pekin, Niagara Co., N. Y., and of course didn't forget the printer. They are the finest by far that have come to this market this year.

-The difficulty over the mail carrying services at President has not yet been adjusted, and the citizens are obliged to get their mail as best they can. It seems so smart Aleck has taken it into his head to save the Government $40 or $50 a year, and cheat the President people out of their just dues.
We hope the matter may soon be amicably arranged and the people of President receive their mails regularly.
They are certainly deserving of better treatment.

-A fatal accident occurred near Luper's mill, a short distance beyond Tylersburg, Clarion Co., on Thursday last. The victim was a five-year-old son of Herbert Joslin. The little boy was with his father, who was hauling logs to the mill, and was playfully running ahead of the team, when the wind blew a tree down which struck him and fractured his skull, and bruised him badly otherwise. He lived about three hours after the accident. The little boy's name was George.

-Mr. R. B. Sinclair, of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped in town several days during the past week, looking after his Forest county land interests. Mr.
S. comes right from the "seat of war," so to speak, and says that the Republicans will re-elect Charlie Foster Governor of Ohio without a doubt.
He made a similar prediction two years ago and it turned out so; hence we must accept him as a true prophet.
During his stay Mr. Sinclair made many new friends who will be glad to meet him often.

-Rev. G. De La Matyr probably didn't know he was striking so close at home when he spoke of "ringleaders" in political parties. He probably had not been informed that the G. B.'s had a little ring in this town, composed of three or four, who "lay the ropes" and "pull the wires" for the honest voters throughout the county to dance to, and run things to suit themselves. The least that can be said about "rings" by imported speakers the better it will suit the G. B. ring-sters of Tionesta.

-The Clarion county Republican convention met in Clarion on Monday, 12th inst., and nominated the following ticket: For President Judge, Theo.
S. Wilson, of the firm of Wilson & Jeaks. He selected M. A. L. Weidner, A. C. McComb and J. J. Frazier his conferees. R. C. Morrison and Miller Beatty Associates Judges; A.
W. Feely, of Shippenville, Register and Recorder; Johnston Wilson and John Mohney, Commissioners; A. G.
Rouitt and T. D. Spence, Auditors.
J. M. Brothers, of Edenburg, was elected County Chairman.

-Nelt Spencer and Hugh Hannah of Beaver Valley, who were in town attending the Greenback meeting on Monday afternoon, got into an altercation over an old grudge. After some words Spencer hit Hannah knocking him down, and when he got up was in the act of hitting him again, when Hannah drew a revolver which shoots a No. 1 cartridge, shot at Spencer, the ball taking effect in his breast about three inches above the heart. This stopped the row, and Spencer's coat and vest were removed, when it was found that the bullet had just burried itself in the skin, and it was pressed out by one of the by-standers. No damage was done, and no arrests were made.

-The news of the death of the President was received with the greatest sorrow by our people yesterday morning, and many were the sighs of deep regret. The citizens generally have their houses draped in mourning and flags are hung at half-mast. At this hour the deepest gloom is cast over our village. The only comfort the people now have is in the own words of the noble man just departed: "God reigns, and the Government at Washington still lives."

New Lodge, F. & A. M.

On Thursday last a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons was constituted in Tionesta, by the following acting Grand officers:

- R. W. G. M., C. W. Mackey.
G. M., A. W. Cox.
R. W. Sr. G. W., C. M. Hoover.
K. W. Jr. G. W., J. M. Clapp.
G. T., C. B. Ansart.
G. S., E. M. Curtis.

- G. Chaplain, J. J. Buchanan.
G. Pursuant, J. H. Heively.
G. S. Deacon, C. H. Sheppard.
J. J. Deacon, W. J. Young.
Grand Stewards, E. E. Clapp and L. Mayer.

Grand Tyler, E. A. Baldwin.
The following visiting brethren were also present:

- G. L. Binney, W. C. Gillett, J.
Reid, J. Astrander, J. C. Cornwell, R. McKenzie, J. W. Pimpton, R. B.
Magee, J. B. Agnew, Chas. Needphus, Geo. Morgan, H. K. Arnold, M. Mulvey, J. G. Dale.

The following names were duly installed as officers for the year ending next St. John's Day.

- T. F. Ritchey, W. M.
D. W. Clark, S. W.
E. L. Davis, J. W.
J. T. Dale, T.
A. B. Kelly, S.
T. J. Payne, P.

The Lodge is styled Olive Lodge, No. 537, F. & A. M., of Penna.
Although we do not belong to the organization and were not present at the ceremonies we must say that to an outsider, those that were interested seemed to enjoy themselves hugely and relish the edibles at the Central House with a gusto only given to Honorable men. A more gentlemanly party never visited Tionesta. The new Lodge starts out with a small number, but the material of which that number is composed leaves no doubt of their success. Their regular meeting is the 1st and 3d Mondays of each month.

Communicated.

MR. EDITOR:—
I was an auditor during the delivery of a speech by the Rev. De La Matyr D. D., in the Court House, and listened with a good degree of interest, but at the same time felt that to a great extent that he, by a part of his speech, paralyzed the hands and efforts of the Pastors of our churches in this village, and country round about. The vehemence with which he denounced what he called the failure of the church and christian ministers to raise the poor and needy from their state of degradation, sin and poverty, truly was not becoming in a christian minister, and especially in a village where there is so much skepticism and irreligion, when at the same time our christian people, and others were then doing just what he was denouncing them for not doing. Perhaps he referred to christian churches in Indiana, the State from which he hailed; if so, may the Lord have mercy upon Indiana christians and ministers. And is it any wonder that his own District repented and sent to Congress another and better man than himself? You answer "no." So answers every christian man of every party in Forest county. Is it not a fact that Pennsylvania, and Pennsylvanians take care of her worthy poor?
You will agree with me that she does, and that it is not necessary for the Dr. to come all the way from Indiana to teach us how to do it. Then, again: is it right for any man to abuse the christian churches and ministers of the gospel to make political capital? and is it right for a professed christian minister to do so? All true men; men who love their country and christianity will loudly exclaim "no." I do not write politically; all men have a right to enjoy, and practice their own political views, but let us not prostitute the church for political purposes.
Please don't do that. The speech referred to, was in the main ably delivered, but injured, or paralyzed the efforts of the Pastors of churches in endeavoring to advance christianity in our midst.

NOTES.

CLARINGTON.
Our schools close on Friday evening; Mr. Armstrong will start for Philadelphia on Monday to be absent during the winter, his purpose being to attend the Medical Lectures.

Mr. Daniel's children answer "present" in Carrier Seminary during the Fall Term.

Mr. Oran Burchfield Jr., is at home at present; he represents Prof. Walker as prospering in his role of Principal of Corsica Academy.

Miss Edith Scott has recovered, and resumed teaching at the Sugar Grove School.

Cooksburgh school has opened for the winter with Miss Jennie Shields as teacher.

Green township has purchased furniture for two more houses; this completes the furnishing of school houses in Green for the present.

Jenks will furnish at least two of her school houses with patent seats during the winter.

Jenks will open her school room for the winter. S. F. Rohrer will teach at the Centre, and Miss Hindman, of Corsica, the Mercillott school. Jenks deserves credit for paying good wages to her teachers: $33.00 for each school.

T. J. Miller, after a blackberry vacation, has returned to his role at Greenwood.

A pettipan is in circulation for another highway in Barnett.

Some of the houses in the Shields Block have had a new covering put on; it improves the appearance and makes it more comfortable for the contents. Of course, Tom Osborn did the job.

Dr. Thompson, of Corsica, was in town the other evening enjoying a "fish" with the "boys." The enjoyment was measured by the hundreds; the fish could be counted by smaller numerals.

J. B. Pearsall has purchased a fine horse.

The bog cholera has had its day,— and most of our bacon, too.

Diphtheria still exists out by Black's Corners.

The Tylersburg R. R. don't disturb us much; we are waiting for that one by way of Brookville.

We are glad to hear that our absent friend, F. W. Woodcock, is getting along finely while at Edinboro; that he has received honorable mention we are glad to report here.

School has closed and Miller has gone.

'Squire Hotchkiss said the words for a couple on last Sabbath. 'Squire, you'll have to do that over again.

Mrs. Woodcock is away on a visit to friends in Media.

Fagnodus scored another festival on Friday evening last; the net proceeds footed up $15.

Capt. Clark has just cut the boss piece of buckwheat.

Drought, droughter, droughtest!
R. O. Carson has been feeding his stock hay for some time.

Death of General Burnside.

The following brief sketch is taken from the Venango Citizen:

Gen. Ambrose Everett Burnside, U. S. Senator from Rhode Island, died suddenly at his home in Bristol on Tuesday morning. His death was caused by neuralgia of the heart. His record is familiar to all. He was born in Liberty, Indiana, on May 23, 1824; graduated from West Point in 1847 and entered the regular army; he resigned in 1853, and commenced the manufacture of fire-arms, but the business was not successful, and he accepted the position of treasurer of the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

When the war broke out he was made Colonel of the First Rhode Island regiment, and was promoted for gallant services, until he became in 1862, commander of the army of the Potomac, a position he held for a brief time, and was then assigned to the command of the department of the Ohio, and redeemed East Tennessee from rebel rule, defeating Stonewall Jackson.

He commanded the Ninth Corps in Grant's advance upon Richmond until the close of the war, and then settled in Rhode Island. In 1866 he was elected Governor of the State and twice re-elected. He then entered business and continued therein until he was elected U. S. Senator in 1875.

He was re-elected last winter. In 1870 he went to Europe and was admitted within the German and French lines, and endeavored to mediate between the belligerents but without success. He was in comparatively good health a few hours before his death. He was an able, upright statesman, and although he was not brilliantly successful as a soldier he had the confidence of the country.

--Peterson's Magazine for October is unusually good, even for that incomparable lady's book. The steel engraving, "Don't Be Scared," is one of exceptional beauty; and so is the colored, steel fashion plate, with its five, charming-looking, exquisitelydressed ladies. There are two colored patterns, with designs for fans, a line of decoration that is now all the rage.

We cannot too often refer to this magazine as altogether the cheapest and best of its kind. The terms are but two dollars a year. Specimens will be sent, gratis, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address, for this purpose, or for subscribing, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

--There is no doubt but that the October number of Ballou's Magazine will attract that careful attention which it deserves; for there is no publication in the country that merits such a generous patronage, owing to the freshness of its articles, the vigor and value of its stories, the excellence of its poetry, or the beauty of its illustrations. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum, postpaid.

Speak to your neighbors about it, and get up some clubs this fall. Now is the time to start clubs for the new volume.

--A complete line of men's heavy and fine boots from $2.00 per pair up; also a fine assortment of Ladies' and Misses shoes at all prices, now opening at Robinson & Bonner's. 2t
