LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station. SOUTH. Train 13... 7:21 am Train 14... 10:43 am —Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.; F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.

—The days and nights are now equal.

—Trouble with the stove pipe is about to commence.

—Mrs. Anna McLain, of Oil City, is paying Mr. Jackson's family a visit.

—Our borough schools closed on Monday in honor of the President's funeral.

—Potatoes are potatoes just now, and are selling for $1.00 per bushel in this place.

—A. H. Siggins Esq., came home from Franklin last Friday, for a few days recreation.

—Quite a number of our citizens, old and young, are afflicted with the whooping cough.

—Hon. Wm. D. Brown, our popular President Judge, honored us with a pleasant call yesterday.

—Miss Nettie Orwick, of Wallaceville, Venango county, is visiting at the residence of Mr. Wolcott.

—Mrs. M. Henry who has been seriously ill with dropsy for some time, is still in a critical condition.

—Supt. Hillard, of our county, was one of the Judges of the Educational Exhibit at the Franklin Fair last week.

—Mrs. J. D. W. Rock, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Bradford for the past two weeks, returned Monday.

—Wilbur Grove returned home from Bradford last Saturday, having been called hither by the serious illness of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Henry.

—Court is in session this week, and the usual number of jurors, constables, witnesses, attorneys, &c., in attendance make rather a lively week of it.

—Mr. H. A. Adams has taken the contract of manufacturing lumber for Mr. Powers, near Hydeltown, Pa. He will not move his family, we believe.

—Mr. Jas. B. Siggins, after a three month's vacation pleasantly spent with friends in this section, has returned to his medical studies at Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Yesterday's rain was hailed with joy by everybody. It will do an immense good to the recently sown rye and wheat, which was suffering badly from the drouth.

—Haslett & Son's are raising the roof of their store building, thus adding another story. The improvement will add materially to its good looks and capacity.

—The leaves on the trees 'round about us on the hills are beginning to assume their most beautiful tinted colors, and when Jack Frost appears, then all will be beautiful.

—Some extra advertising this week crowds out considerable local matter. But then there isn't much local news to chronicle anyway, and what there is, is rather tame, so to speak, as it were.

—Harry L. Hastings, of the New Bethlehem, Clarion county, Vindicator, has associated with him David H. Woods, in the publication of that paper. We wish the new firm abundant success.

—The Commonwealth last week did manage to squeeze a mere mention of the President's death in among its multiplicity of political blatherdash; but not a rule was turned to show the least sign of mourning or sorrow.

—Harvey Foreman has about completed Prothonotary Shawkey's new domicile in the North ward, and it will be ready to occupy in a short time. When once comfortably settled therein Mr. S. will have a pleasant abode.

—W. Y. Siggins has placed us under obligations for another invoice of fruit from his farm. The basket contained a lot of grapes, equal to any of the imported varieties; a quantity of apples, one of which measured 1 1/2 inches, and supply of overgrown onions of a superior variety. Many thanks.

—The Salmon Creek Lumber Co. have purchased the stock of groceries, crockery ware, &c., of M. Einstein and will move the same to their place of business on Salmon Creek.

—Persons who are in the habit of selling cider by the drink in this State should know that they are liable to pay the tax required of other dealers in intoxicating liquors. Home made wine or cider may be sold by the gallon or quart but not by the glass, to be drunk on the premises.

—Baldwin's Official Railway Guide for September is on our table, and it doesn't take a back seat for any of 'em. Cheek full of the rarest information for travelers and business men, it is indispensable to either class. Only 10c. per copy. Ask for it when traveling.

—S. S. Canfield has now got the boss yoke of oxen, at least he claims the prize until some one shows up better in the county; they tip the beam at 3,300 pounds, and were purchased of James Rafferty, near Newmansville. Shel. is putting in logs for Derickson & Co., on Bates road.

—Mr. T. H. Wilson has been superseded as Superintendent of the Buffalo, Pittsburgh & Western Railroad by Mr. Oliver Watson Jr. Mr. Watson was formerly the Auditor of the road, and is highly spoken of as a gentleman of excellent abilities. We wish the new as well as the retiring Superintendent success.

—We issue a supplement this week, which we enclose only to those who have not had the advantage of daily papers, and had no means of getting a full account of the death of the President and the incidents connected therewith. The supplement is very complete, and we hope it will be properly appreciated by its recipients.

—Mr. Einstein has closed out his mercantile business in Tionesta, and will shortly give his entire attention to his Sheffield store. By close attention to his own business and letting other people's alone, Mr. Einstein has accumulated a snug little fortune in Tionesta, and we hope it will do him much good wherever he may cast his lot in the future.

—Mr. J. Y. Miller, of Boston, senior member of the Miller Extract Co., is here to arrange for the building of their factory on Salmon Creek. The work of putting up the buildings—three in number—has already begun and will be pushed forward as rapidly as circumstances will permit. Mr. Miller thinks the buildings ought to be completed by the first or middle of January, weather permitting.

—An exchange hits the nail square on the head when it says: Whenever you hear of a farmer signing his name to what purports to be a paper giving him the exclusive agency of some sort of a machine, and which turns out afterwards to be a note of hand for three or four hundred dollars, and which costs him a hundred to a hundred and fifty dollars to settle, we invariably find him a man who can't afford to take a newspaper.

—Yesterday we were honored with a call from Senator Lee of Franklin, who was attending court here this week. He is one of the pleasantest gentlemen it has been our pleasure to meet in a long time, and we don't wonder that his district honored itself by making him its representative in the State Senate. While he is classed among the Independent Republicans he is never found among the "kickers," and although a staunch supporter of Senator Davies in the recent State Convention, he is square on the ticket this fall.

—An exchange knows what it is talking about when it says: A doctor will sit down and write a prescription; time, five seconds, paper and ink, one-fourth of a cent; and the patient pays one, two, three, five or ten dollars as the case may be. A lawyer writes ten to twenty words of advice, and gets from ten to twenty dollars from his client. An editor writes a half column puff for a man, pays a man from fifty cents to a dollar for putting it in type, prints it on several dollars' worth of paper, sends it to several thousand people, and then surprises the puffed man if he makes any charge.

—Robinson & Bonner have just received a large invoice of men's, boys' and children's clothing which they are selling at extremely low prices. The public are cordially invited to call and examine.

—Intelligence just received from the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., announces the discovery of a new comet located in the constellation of Virgo. It is a striking coincidence that this new and bright comet appeared at the same hour President Garfield was breathing his last. It was first seen by E. E. Barnard in Nashville, Tenn., who has made claim through Prof. Swift for the Warner prize of $200 in gold. This makes the fifth comet seen since May first, and of this number four have appeared from the same spot in the heavens.

Memorial Services.

Monday, the day set for the burial of our dear President, was beautifully observed in our place. The business houses were all closed from one 'till six o'clock, bells were tolled, and all was hushed and quiet. Although an unusual number of people were in town in attendance upon court, the day throughout was almost as quiet as a Sunday, and altogether the day was one of humiliation and mourning.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH.

The tolling of the Court House bell on Monday afternoon, announced the hour of prayer at the M. E. Church, where our citizens soon congregated to observe the memorial rites indicated in the proclamation of President Arthur.

The meeting was called to order by T. F. Ritchey, Esq., and organized by the selection of Silas J. Wolcott and Giles G. Butterfield, Esq's, as Chairman. Mr. Butterfield in a few remarks, spoke of the solemn event that had called the citizens together. The choir then sang the anthem, "O Death where is thy Sting?" Following this an earnest and pathetic prayer was offered by Miles W. Tate, Esq.

Among the many beautiful and touching selections rendered by the Choir, was one which Mr. Dingman, the leader, stated to have been the President's favorite, entitled, "Life's Harvest."

Addressees were called for by the Chairmen, when the following named gentlemen responded: T. F. Ritchey and Miles W. Tate Esq's, Prof. Hillard and Mr. George Kepler. A solemn feeling pervaded the entire assembly, and the sentiments of the speakers found a ready echo in the hearts present, without distinction of creed or party. Every one seemed to feel the loss of our beloved Garfield to be a personal and private one, and a great grief sat on the hushed and subdued audience while they listened to the eloquent music and the touching words that told anew to the ear the sorrow that already lay within the hearts of all who listened.

The mourning draperies, gracefully and beautifully arranged by the hands of Miss Kate Cobb, Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. Derickson, were fitting and appropriate auxiliaries to the deep woe which marked the solemn occasion; and that will be long remembered even by our children as an impressive tribute to one of the grandest historic characters of our Republic.

Base Ball.

The following from "up the creek" will explain itself: SALMON CREEK, Sept. 26, '81. EDITOR:—Wish to have published the score between the Buck Mills base ball club and the Hopkins Bitters club of Salmon Creek. Game played at Buck Mills on Saturday afternoon; score stood: Buck Mills.....43 Hopkins Bitters.....22 JNO. NOBLE, Capt. H. B. Club.

Attention Voters.

We give below a list of the Tax Collectors in the different townships, and would impress upon all voters the necessity of paying their County and State taxes at least thirty days before election if they wish to vote this fall. Republicans see to it at once, and don't lose your vote by neglecting to pay your taxes. Those who cannot find the collector, or have not the opportunity to see him can pay to the County Treasurer. Always take a receipt. Following are the Collectors: Barnett—Philo Williams. Green—Wm. Bluma. Howe—Wm. Black. Hickory—R. L. Whitten. Harmony—T. W. Allender. Jenks—Aaron Brockway. Kingsley—Geo. W. Osgood. Tionesta—Philip Emert. Tionesta bere.—John Muenzenberger.

The Franklin Fair.

The Fair of the Venango Agricultural Society, held at Franklin last week, was a decided success all round. The exhibits of farm products was not as large as might have been wished, which was owing to the great drouth—big pumpkins and such, which are always looked for on such occasions, as a consequence were minus this year. The attendance, however, was very large—much larger than last year—and everybody seemed well pleased. One of the greatest attractions on the ground, but which was not connected with the fair, was the Bench Show of Dogs, gotten up and managed by the Sportsman's Club of Franklin. Over two hundred canines of high and low birth were incarcerated in a large tent, and the small sum of 10c. was charged for a look at them. The display was first-class, and many were of the opinion that the dog show was the most complete exhibition on the ground. Dogs ranging in value from $25 to $5,000; the five thousand dollar red Irish setter was the great attraction. The Club is made up of some of the wealthiest and most prominent gentlemen of the Nursery, and to say that they did themselves proud in getting up this show is putting it very mild. The exhibit of live stock was not large but very good what there was of it.

One of the attractions was the bicycle race on Thursday afternoon. The prize for fancy riding was awarded to Chad Parker of Oil City. W. H. Lane of Titusville, carried off the prize for fast riding, making a mile in four minutes. It was an exciting contest.

It is thought there were 10,000 people on the ground on Friday, and in all this crowd not the least evidence of disorder was discernable; not a drunk man in the crowd, and everybody was in the happiest mood. This was one of the most praiseworthy features of the whole affair.

Altogether the Fair was fully up to what we expected to see, and in many particulars far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. The managers have reason to feel proud of their success. We have to thank many of our old friends for their efforts to make our visit pleasant and profitable, not forgetting the kind hospitalities of Frank Smiley of the Citizen, and his excellent lady.

The educational exhibit was grand, but as our friend "Quillis" was there and took especial note of this department we allow him to tell of it in his own language as follows:

The great feature of the Franklin Fair was the Educational Exhibit; about half of the main building was devoted to this feature of the Fair, the work on exhibition including school-work of all kinds, done by the pupils and teachers of the city, borough and county schools of Venango Co., the scholar's work coming from the primary as well as the intermediate and advanced classes, being the results of examinations during the present and past school year. While material for criticism might be found, yet there is so much more to be praised that one criticizes mentally and commends audibly; while there is slight evidence of some cramming and maybe a little "padding" for the occasion, yet there is decided evidence of effort, aspiration and friendly emulation. Deputy State Supt. Hock paid a glowing tribute to Venango, and one of which her Supt., teachers and scholars may justly feel proud when he said he had never seen, in the State, a better exhibit of school work. The parade on Friday of school children was a grand affair.

By the Derick's report we see that by actual count 3,200 children, pupils of Venango schools, were in review. One gets something like a true conception of the magnitude of the school work from such a scene. When Dr. Higbee stepped upon the platform he was greeted by a real tornado of applause, delivered a la Chautauqua. The speeches were short, appropriate and pointed; Dr. Higbee, Dept. Houck, and Judge Trunking being the speakers. Dr. Egbert crowned himself with a wreath better than that woven from laurels when he announced through Supt. Prather that each of the school children would be treated to a stick of hot candy from his manufactory, he having a manufactory on the ground presided over by two very good natured workmen; the treat was at the Dr.'s expense. And now, as an outcome of the exhibit, an Inter-County Exhibit is talked of for next year. Couldn't Forest contribute at least the widows' mite? "QUILLIS."

Court Minutes.

Court called at 2:30 p.m., Monday, and constables returns were taken, after which it adjourned to Tuesday at 8 a. m., at which time Court opened with all the Judges present.
