HELEN HYDE'S GOOD DEED.

"Yes," said the doctor, solemnly, "she shows every indication of going into a decline. Rest, relaxation, change of air and scene—that's what she ought to have."

fashion, and sat all the long bright afternoons under the maples, staring at the sea. "Who is that old gentleman?" she asked at last.

turning red and white, for Helen Hyde, now spending her second summer at the farmhouse, sat by quietly sewing in the window recess.

FACTS AND COMMENTS. The White House cellar has been converted into a curiosity shop, with a miscellaneous collection of traps sent on from all parts of the country for the benefit of President Garfield.

FOR THE LADIES. Algerine Oddities. In going about Algiers, what strikes one most is the endless variety in the costumes of the inhabitants—Jews, Arabs, Kabyles, Mozabites, Negroes, etc., all dressing differently, and in bright, beautiful colors.

Compensation. For every leaf of green, A golden leaf; For every falling flower, A ripened sheaf.
