OHIO ELECTION.

The indications are that the Republicans elected their Governor by majorities ranging from 10,000 to 12,000, at the elections yesterday ; and have also elected a good working majority of the Legislature. The chairman of the Democratic State Committee concedes the Governor to the Republicans by 8,000 majority.

Republicans, Take Heed.

The time has come when the Re publicans of the different election districts of Forest county, should perfect a thorough organization and make all necessarry arrangements for polling the full party vote at the coming election. Up to within a week the campaign has been comparatively quiet, the minds of the people having been directed to the great tragedy which culminated in the death and burial of our noble and beloved President Garfield. There was no room in the hearts and minds of the people for the consideration of political questions while the chief executive of the nation was prostrate, struggling for life, and with great solicitude they waited and watched, hoping and praying that his life would be spared to his country, and his family. But, "now, . while cherishing his memory and mourning his loss, the duties imposed by the privileges of citizenship, could be intelligently and patriotically performed by every elector. The principles of the Republican party, so ably advocated by the lamented Garfield which, it was fondly hoped, would be the foundation whereon he would be able to unite all sections of the country in the bonds of a common brotherhood, forgetful of the angry strife and terrible, bitter experience of the past-should receive the earnest, honest support of all good citizens, and will only be secure when fully recognized by all prrties as the Republicans voted for Henry B. Anbasis of government policy and proper administration. The quarrels of factions or the clashings of individual interests should not influence the action. or swerve from the path of duty any Republican. Norishould the uncertainty which seemingly prevails in the political situation of the hour, the result of impending change in the personnel of the Cabinet, cause any uncasiness, or delay the work of organizing the party and the making of an in speaking of the result says: "Mr. earnest, complete canvass at this time. The same devotion to principle and duty, on the part of every Republican, which has so often carried the party in triumph through great trials, will now secure harmony and victory, and the hopes and wishes of the masses will be realized in the recognition of the principle that the will of the people ing of a ludicrous nature coming from must be regarded in party management. The man whom the Republicans of supremacy acoidentally obtained. the State have selected as their 'standard bearer in this campaign, General Silas M. Baily, is one who won his title by brave and efficient services for the Union. His competincy for the position of State Treasurer is unquestioned, while no word of personal detraction has ever been uttered against his character. He is endersed by all as an upright christian gentleman. As for our county ticket, no better could be selected, and the peculiar fitness of every man on the ticket for the position to which he aspires is apparent to all. Every one of the nominees is preservation; but to do it she needs in every respect worthy and entitled Peruna. to the support of the whole party. They are all known to be men of the sick, if you can. Republican County Committee.

Pursuant to notification by the Chairman, the Republican County Committee met at the Lawrence House on Friday afternoon last, where the gentleman were assigned the best room in the House in which to hold their meeting. Chairman Brockway called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock, and stated the object of the meeting which was to place a candidate on the ticket for Jury Commissioner, effect a general organization for the ensuing campaign, and arrange for a thorough and active canvass. A ballot was then taken and the choice of the convention fell upon Robert J. Hillard of Barnett township, for Jury Commissioner. This done the selection of a Vigilance Committee was the next thing in order. There were from two to four appointed in each township, and these committeemen are to co-operate with the member of the County Committee from their respective districts, which member is to act as chairman of the sub or vigilance committee. By this way a thorough canvas can be had in all the townships, and the full Republican vote be gotten out. Chairman Brockway was instructed to notify each member of the Vigilance committee of his appointment by letter. After a full interchange of views by all the gentlemen present, and the arrangement of such other preliminaries as were deemed necessary the committee adjourned, having spent a most profitable time together. It was, to say the least, one of the pleasantest gatherings of the kind that we have mium at the Centennial and Paris Exattended for a long time. Every gen. position. tleman present was in a happy mood, and expressed himself as ready and willing to use all honorable means toward the election of our most excellent ticket in November by a handsome majority.

United States Senate.

The U.S. Senate convened in extra session on Monday last and proceeded at once to elect a President pro. tem. The Democrats supported Thos. F. Bayard, of Delaware, and the thony, of Rhode Island. The vote stood, Bayard 34, Anthony 32. Senator Edmunds moved that the new Senators-elect, Messrs. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, and Miller and Lapham of New York, be sworn in; but the motion was lost, the Democrats voting solidly against it, thus depriving three Republican Senators from participating in the organization, and election of a President pro. tem. The Derrick, Bayard, on assuming the chair, made a few remarks on the sorrow of the ty, on nation at President Garfield's death and expressed the hope that party aspenities might be forgotten in the Senate in view of the melanchely cause of their being in session at all, which may strike some people as bea gentleman just elevated to an im-

WOLFE had better come off at once. The example set by the New York Republicans completely knocks the wind out of his sails. This is no time to breed faction fights in the Republican organization, and the position taken by the Independents, who fought the caucus nomince at Harrisburg last winter, in refusing to follow Wolfe in his new bolt, shows how utterly uncalled for it is in his independent candidacy.
