

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess—S. J. Wolcott.
Onwardmen—North ward, T. J. Van Glasen, T. B. Cobb, Jno. A. Hart; South ward, G. W. Robinson, S. H. Haslet, Ed Hilman.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—JAS. MOSBROVE.
Assembly—E. L. DAVIS.
President Judge—W. D. BROWN.
Associate Judges—JOHN RECK, C. A.
HILL.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE

No. 349.
L. O. of O. F.
MEETS every Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Lodge Room in Partridge's Hall.

E. L. DAVIS.
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Collections made in this and adjoining counties, Tionesta, Pa.

MILES W. TATE.
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Elm Street, Tionesta, Pa.

T. F. RITCHEY.
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Tionesta, Forest County Pa.

J. B. AGNEW.
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
TIONESTA, PA.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!
I have been admitted to practice as an Attorney in the Pension Office at Washington, D. C. All officers, soldiers, or allottees, who were injured in the late war, can obtain pensions to which they may be entitled, by calling on or addressing me at Tionesta, Pa. Also, claims for arrearages of pay and bounty will receive prompt attention.

LAWRENCE HOUSE,
TIONESTA, PENN'A. WM. SMER-BAUGH, Proprietor. This house is centrally located. Everything new and well furnished. Superior accommodations and strict attention given to guests.
Vegetables and Fruits of all kinds served in their season. Sample room for Commercial Agents.

CENTRAL HOUSE,
BONNERA AGNEW BLOCK. T. C.
JACKSON, Proprietor. This is a new house, and has just been fitted up for the accommodation of the public. A portion of the patronage of the public is solicited.
46-47

W. C. COBURN, M. D.,
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.
Has had over fifteen years experience in the practice of his profession, having graduated legally and honorably May 16, 1865.
Office and Residence in Forest House, opposite the Court House, Tionesta, Pa.
Aug. 25-1880

J. W. MORROW, M. D.,
PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.
Late of Armstrong county, having located in Tionesta is prepared to attend all professional calls promptly and at all hours.
For the present will have his office opposite the Lawrence House. may-18 81.

DR. E. L. STEADMAN, SURGEON DENTIST.
Dental room in Acomb building, up stairs, opposite the Lawrence House, Tionesta, Pa. All work warranted, and at reasonable prices.

MAY, PARK & CO.,
BANKERS!
Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts. Tionesta.
Bank of Discount and Deposit.
Interest allowed on Time Deposits.
Collections made on all the Principal points of the U. S.
Collections solicited. 18-19.

PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY,
TIONESTA, PA.
M. CARPENTER, Proprietor.

CHARLES RAISIG,
PRACTICAL
CARRIAGE AND WAGON MAKER.
In rear of Blum's Blacksmith shop,
TIONESTA, PA.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH directions, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.; F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.

—Now for Thanksgiving.
—The battle is over and the smoke is clearing away.

—Mr. John Grove, of Oil City, is paying Tionesta friends a visit.

—Miss Ella Porter of Titusville, is paying her friend, Miss May Kelly, a visit.

—We will give more complete election returns from other States next week.

—Miss Anna Deice is visiting friends in Coombsburg, this county, at present.

—A man by the name of e. s. wolfe got 3 votes in Forest county for the office of State Treasurer.

—The election returns came in so slowly that we are thrown a day late with our paper this week.

—Miss Alice Holsman has returned home after an extended visit to friends and relatives in Vibland, N. J.

—Daniel Walters has finished a neat and substantial barn on his premises at the mouth of Council Run.

—Mrs. Thomas is building a barn on one of her river lots near Mr.
Craig's residence in the north ward.

—President Arthur has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 24th, as the day of Thanksgiving.

—The first snow of the season, about two inches of it, fell last Thursday. It was hardly enough to last over night.

—Miss Sue Evans entertained a number of her young friends at Mr.
Partridge's residence last Thursday evening. A pleasant time is reported.

—County Auditor elect, Geo. W.
Warden, of Hickory township, was in town to-day. He bears the honors with ease, and will make a splendid Auditor.

—Dr. Morrow arrived in town with his family and part of his household goods on Monday afternoon. They will occupy the Henage house, recently vacated by Rev. Hill.

—W. A. and J. P. Grove and Frank Hunter came down from Bradford last Saturday evening. Ab. and Park came home to exercise the suffrage act, Frank not being quite old enough.

—The postoffice department has just ruled that postage stamps with any fraction of them missing will no longer be accepted as prepayment of postage on the matter to which they are attached.

—We learn with regret that Jas.
Butler, son-in-law of Judge Chas.
Hill, is suffering with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. At last accounts he was no better, and his pain was excruciating.

—Buck Mills are in full blast once more, under the efficient supervision of Messrs. Richards & Normile. The new water wheels work well, and they expect to run out a good deal of lumber before the "freeze-up."

—Will the honest voters of the Republican party cast their ballots to re-elect such a person [Ledebar] to the responsible position of County Commissioner.—Commonwealth. Yes, we guess so! See election returns elsewhere.

—It gives us pleasure to state that Mrs. H. O. Davis and daughter Carrie are rapidly improving, and with proper care will soon be returned to their usual health. None of the other members of the family are threatened with the fever.

—Thanksgiving is not far off, and the Franklin Press says the dainty turkey treats the crisp, frosted autumn grass as gently as a leaf falls, seeming to beg pardon of the very ground it steps on. In about a month that turkey will be lying on its brown back as peaceful as the washed potatoes and boiled onions.

—Rev. Hill writes to his many Forest friends through our paper this week that he and his family have reached their destination in Kansas safely, and gives an interesting account of his long journey. May peace and prosperity attend him in his new home.

—The Y. P. L. S. met at the residence of Mr. T. B. Cobb on Saturday evening last. The attendance was small but the performance of the evening did credit to the members. The next meeting will be at the residence of President Clark next Saturday evening.

—John Brecht, of Hickory tp., has killed 101 rattlesnakes within five years, but he now declares that unless the Greenback party gives him a bounty on them he will not kill another one. John ought certainly to have a bounty as well as the medal for being the boss snake-slayer.

—The Warren Ledger has changed its make-up from a folio to a quarto, is set in new type and presents a most beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one paper, and although opposed to it politically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was among his many Tionesta friends this week. Ed. has traveled over a good deal of western territory since his last visit to Tionesta, and is now located in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is extensively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-handed, but will take with him as a life partner, one of Corry's fairest and most accomplished daughters. That success and happiness may attend you is the wish of your numerous friends here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went into a store the other day and sat down for an hour or so, when a clerk asked if there was anything she could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and he sat there half an hour longer, when the proprietor went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes another case of mysterious disappearance. Last Sunday evening a week ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tionesta creek, in company with another employee, to get some apples. The breast of a dam has been used for crossing on all summer, it having been nearly dry owing to the low water; on the evening in question a slash broke on one of the dams above which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with twelve to sixteen inches of water. The two men started back when they were overtaken by a man with a rig and Reese's companion got in the buggy and rode across, he (Reese) saying he would walk. This is the last that has been seen or heard of him, and it is supposed that he, having undertaken to cross on the dam and not knowing that the water had risen, was washed off and drowned. The creek has since been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made, but all in vain. The missing man was unmarried and his parents live at Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the company, and all his extra clothes are still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes an-
other case of mysterious disappear-
ance. Last Sunday evening a week
ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the
employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber
Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tio-
nesta creek, in company with another
employee, to get some apples. The
breast of a dam has been used for
crossing on all summer, it having
been nearly dry owing to the low
water; on the evening in question a
slash broke on one of the dams above
which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with
twelve to sixteen inches of water. The
two men started back when they were
overtaken by a man with a rig and
Reese's companion got in the buggy
and rode across, he (Reese) saying he
would walk. This is the last that has
been seen or heard of him, and it is
supposed that he, having undertaken
to cross on the dam and not knowing
that the water had risen, was washed
off and drowned. The creek has since
been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made,
but all in vain. The missing man was
unmarried and his parents live at
Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the
company, and all his extra clothes are
still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes an-
other case of mysterious disappear-
ance. Last Sunday evening a week
ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the
employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber
Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tio-
nesta creek, in company with another
employee, to get some apples. The
breast of a dam has been used for
crossing on all summer, it having
been nearly dry owing to the low
water; on the evening in question a
slash broke on one of the dams above
which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with
twelve to sixteen inches of water. The
two men started back when they were
overtaken by a man with a rig and
Reese's companion got in the buggy
and rode across, he (Reese) saying he
would walk. This is the last that has
been seen or heard of him, and it is
supposed that he, having undertaken
to cross on the dam and not knowing
that the water had risen, was washed
off and drowned. The creek has since
been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made,
but all in vain. The missing man was
unmarried and his parents live at
Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the
company, and all his extra clothes are
still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes an-
other case of mysterious disappear-
ance. Last Sunday evening a week
ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the
employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber
Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tio-
nesta creek, in company with another
employee, to get some apples. The
breast of a dam has been used for
crossing on all summer, it having
been nearly dry owing to the low
water; on the evening in question a
slash broke on one of the dams above
which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with
twelve to sixteen inches of water. The
two men started back when they were
overtaken by a man with a rig and
Reese's companion got in the buggy
and rode across, he (Reese) saying he
would walk. This is the last that has
been seen or heard of him, and it is
supposed that he, having undertaken
to cross on the dam and not knowing
that the water had risen, was washed
off and drowned. The creek has since
been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made,
but all in vain. The missing man was
unmarried and his parents live at
Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the
company, and all his extra clothes are
still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes an-
other case of mysterious disappear-
ance. Last Sunday evening a week
ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the
employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber
Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tio-
nesta creek, in company with another
employee, to get some apples. The
breast of a dam has been used for
crossing on all summer, it having
been nearly dry owing to the low
water; on the evening in question a
slash broke on one of the dams above
which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with
twelve to sixteen inches of water. The
two men started back when they were
overtaken by a man with a rig and
Reese's companion got in the buggy
and rode across, he (Reese) saying he
would walk. This is the last that has
been seen or heard of him, and it is
supposed that he, having undertaken
to cross on the dam and not knowing
that the water had risen, was washed
off and drowned. The creek has since
been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made,
but all in vain. The missing man was
unmarried and his parents live at
Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the
company, and all his extra clothes are
still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—Kingsley township furnishes an-
other case of mysterious disappear-
ance. Last Sunday evening a week
ago Tobias Reese, who has been in the
employ of the Salmon Creek Lumber
Co. for some weeks, crossed the Tio-
nesta creek, in company with another
employee, to get some apples. The
breast of a dam has been used for
crossing on all summer, it having
been nearly dry owing to the low
water; on the evening in question a
slash broke on one of the dams above
which allowed the water to raise sufficiently to cover the foot passage with
twelve to sixteen inches of water. The
two men started back when they were
overtaken by a man with a rig and
Reese's companion got in the buggy
and rode across, he (Reese) saying he
would walk. This is the last that has
been seen or heard of him, and it is
supposed that he, having undertaken
to cross on the dam and not knowing
that the water had risen, was washed
off and drowned. The creek has since
been dragged for a considerable distance, and a thorough search made,
but all in vain. The missing man was
unmarried and his parents live at
Summit City, Venango Co. He had
not drawn all of his wages from the
company, and all his extra clothes are
still in their hands.

—The Warren Ledger has changed
its make-up from a folio to a quarto,
is set in new type and presents a most
beautiful appearance. The Ledger is
and always has been a number one
paper, and although opposed to it po-
litically, we are glad to note this evidence of its financial success.

—Edwin M. Riddle Esq., was
among his many Tionesta friends this
week. Ed. has traveled over a good
deal of western territory since his last
visit to Tionesta, and is now located
in St. Joseph, Mo., where he is exten-
sively engaged in the telephone business, and we are heartily pleased to
state that he is succeeding most admirably. It is whispered about that
Ed. will not return to the west single-
handed, but will take with him as a
life partner, one of Corry's fairest and
most accomplished daughters. That
success and happiness may attend you
is the wish of your numerous friends
here, Ed.

—A nervous looking man went
into a store the other day and sat
down for an hour or so, when a clerk
asked if there was anything she could
do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and
he sat there half an hour longer, when
the proprietor went to him and asked
if he wanted to be shown anything.

—The Festival gotten up by a few of the ladies of the M. E. Church last Wednesday evening was a decided success in every way, and was heartily enjoyed by all present. The refreshments were abundant and excellent, and the many new features of amusement which were introduced went far toward making the evening pleasant.
The net receipts of the entertainment, we understand, were $34.22, which sum will be forwarded to Rev. Hill, Kenesa, whose salary as late minister of this charge has not all been paid.

—We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the double-column "ad" of those enterprising merchants, Messrs. Holeman & Hopkins. They are occupying their elegant new building, the main room of which is already nearly packed to the ceiling with the grandest and most volucinous stock of goods. Their flour and feed department is also crowded. We would like to give a more extended notice of this mammoth establishment, but our time is too limited this week; but we will say more shortly, in the meantime give them a call and see for yourselves.

—Owing to being a day late with this issue and the pressure of other matter on our columns, we are unable to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved one of the most enjoyable parties of the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the evening. If we were equal to the emergency we would say in what manner the ladies were dressed, but, oh! we can not. Suffice to say that the most brilliant toilets were the rule. The large parlors of the house were brightly illumined and cleared for dancing, which was carried on as long as desired. Numerous presents were displayed and the donors showed a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling, one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom equalled. Those who were present from a distance were Misses Fanny, Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the surrounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was
said, and the guests departed, feeling,
one and all, that the natal anniversary
had been enjoyed in a manner seldom
equalled. Those who were present
from a distance were Misses Fanny,
Jennie and June Siggins, and Messrs.
Orion Siggins and Geo. W. Warden,
of Hickory; Misses Grace Davis and
Florence Sill, of Warren; Miss Ella
Porter, of Titusville; Miss Lillian
Benedict, of Pleasantville; Mr. John
Grove, of Oil City; Mr. D. S. Wake-
night of Millerstown, the able representative of the Oil City Derrick in
the lower oil regions.

—Owing to being a day late with
this issue and the pressure of other
matter on our columns, we are unable
to give the brilliant affair of last evening the notice it deserves. The festal
occasion was the eighteenth birthday
of Miss Maude Ann Davis, daughter
of the Hon. E. L. Davis, and proved
one of the most enjoyable parties of
the season. Representatives from
Warren, Titusville, Millerstown,
Pleasantville, Hickory, and the sur-
rounding towns were present and contributed much to the pleasure of the
evening. If we were equal to the
emergency we would say in what
manner the ladies were dressed, but,
oh! we can not. Suffice to say that
the most brilliant toilets were the
rule. The large parlors of the house
were brightly illumined and cleared
for dancing, which was carried on as
long as desired. Numerous presents
were displayed and the donors showed
a proper appreciation of the event.
In the early morning "farewell" was said, and the guests