

The Forest Republican.

J. E. WENK, - - - EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 30, 1881.

The election in Pennsylvania next year is for a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, a Justice of the Supreme Court, 25 State Senators for four years, 201 members of Assembly for two years, 27 members of Congress, and important local officers in every county in the State. The fight for Governor and other State officers, and for members of the Senate and House, will be hotly contested. The twenty-five State Senators to be elected will have a vote for United States Senator in January, 1885.

In 1878 the Greenback party in Pennsylvania polled over eighty-one thousand votes for Governor; in 1879 it polled over twenty-seven thousand votes for Treasurer; in 1880 its Electoral ticket had over twenty thousand votes; in 1881 its vote is nearly fifteen thousand. Of this vote of 15,000, round numbers, 4,019, over a fourth, comes from the counties of Crawford, Venango, Warren, Mercer, Clarion and Forest, where the financial heresy seems to have taken the deepest root. In the older and more populous counties Greenbackism is as dead as a door nail, and it will soon be dead in the outlying districts.—Venango Spectator.

The Guiteau trial drags along very slowly. The defense is still calling witnesses, and is likely to continue to do so for days and perhaps weeks to come. All the witnesses for the defense are called with the one point in view, that is, to prove the assassin insane. There is a feeling of uneasiness growing in the minds of the people that the murderer may escape, the gallows by the insanity dodge, and everybody begins to feel a sort of regret that some of the shots which have been fired at the villain did not hit the fatal spot, and put him out of the way, thus saving a great deal of time, money and anxiety. Yesterday's Derrick says: "In the Guiteau trial yesterday, the criminal was permitted to interrupt and interlard the proceedings without a single check from the Judge. Judge Cox is evidently unfit for the position in which he is placed, by the force of circumstances, and is gathering about him, by his singular conduct, an amount of unpopularity which it will be difficult for him to overcome in future years. There is no more dignity maintained in that court than is exhibited in any of the lower courts where cases of a trivial character are tried. It is surprising that the beast Guitau is permitted to air his egotism and display his legal acquirements, or the want of them, before a gaping crowd. It is hard to bear, but like many another unpleasant predicament, will have to be endured."

TRUTHFUL TOMMY.

Under the above caption the Clarion Jacksonian takes the editor of the Clarion County National to task for some slight inaccuracies that appeared in his paper about the wonderful growth of the G. B. party. Following are the paragraphs from the National with the Jacksonian's corrections:

The Associated Press, as usual, fails to give the vote cast on Tuesday, the 8th, for the National party, the only party that polled an increased vote of from 100 to 800 per cent.—Clarion County National.

The vote cast for Weaver in Pennsylvania last year, aggregated just 20,668. The vote of Jackson this year foots up 14,948—a falling off of 5,722 votes, or about 25 per cent.—Clarion Jacksonian.

The Nationals doubled their vote in Philadelphia.—National.

In 1880 Weaver received 237 votes, in Philadelphia. This year Jackson's vote in Philadelphia is 254, a gain of 17 in a total vote of 113,266.—Jacksonian.

The Nationals gained heavily in Elk county.—National.

The Greenback vote in Elk county in 1880 was 88. This year it is 93—a gain of 5. Very "heavy" indeed.—Jacksonian.

In Clearfield county the Nationals polled over 1,200 votes.—National.

The official returns of Clearfield county show that Jackson received 231 votes—65 less than Weaver received in 1880.—Jacksonian.

In Indiana county there was a considerable gain on the National ticket.—National.

The Greenback vote in Indiana county in 1880 was 1,488. This year it is 1,204—a loss of 284.—Jacksonian.

THE population of the United States, according to Superintendent of Census Walker's calculations, is 50,155,683, being an increase since 1870 of about 30 per cent.

CONGRESS meets next Monday. The contest for the Speaker is growing very warm, all of the principal candidates being already in Washington working up their cases.
