ATTENTION SOLDIERS!
I have been admitted to practice as an Attorney in the Pension Office at Washington, D. C. All officers, soldiers, or warriors who were injured in the late war, can obtain pensions to which they may be entitled, by calling on or addressing me at Tionesta, Pa. Also, claims for arrears of pay and bounty will receive prompt attention.
Having been over four years a soldier in the late war, and having for a number of years engaged in the prosecution of soldiers' claims, my experience will assure the collection of claims in the shortest possible time. J. B. AGNEW, —Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 8 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m., F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.
—Christmas three weeks from next Sunday.
—Mrs. J. W. Jamieson, is paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.
J. Roberts.
—Jimmy Canfield, son of S. S. Can-field, cut his left foot quite severely with an ax one day last week.
—The next meeting of the Y. P. L.
S. will be at the residence of Mr. Eli Holeman. All members should attend.
—We have heard less complaint about our borough schools thus far than for many years previous, which speaks well for the teachers.
—From 15 to 25 hunters are said to be encamped on Salmon Creek at present, but we have heard of nothing like that number of deer being slain there as yet.
—The streets present an awfully muddy appearance, and if one should fall into them it would be worse than getting into the Dismal Swamp—out of sight in a minute.
—Mr. J. H. McPherson, who represents Finglay's Insurance Agency, of Franklin, Pa., and is a pleasing gentleman generally, dropped in on us a few minutes on Monday.
—Miss Nettie Kemble, of Tidioute, who is the "lightning" manipulator in the Western Union office, at that place, spent the Sabbath in Tionesta with her cousin, Miss Sue Evans.
—A woman's suffrage paper made its appearance in Corry last week, edited by two young women. The Bellefonte Watchman cruelly says that before long it will be a suffering woman's paper.
—Our thanks are due General Harry White for a set of the Congressional Record embracing the proceedings of that body from the year 1879 to 1881 inclusive. A valuable acquisition to the printer's library.
—"Pink-eye," the disease which is now spreading in all directions throughout the country and disabling horse-flesh as did the epizooty, has not struck this place that we have heard of. But there's no tellin' how soon it may.
—Col. Reisinger, of the Meadville Republican, we understand is an applicant for the Meadville postoffice.
If the citizens of that city want an efficient, faithful and deserving man, they will be a unit for the Colonel's appointment.
—Baldwin's Official Railway Guide for November is sparkling and brim full, as usual, of interesting matter to the traveling public. No more profitable investment can be made than the purchase of the Guide when getting on the cars for a journey.
—Zach. Shriver is putting down a well on West Hickory for Shamburg & Holdings, and has contracted to drill three or four more as soon as this one is finished. They drill from 150 to 300 feet, and get heavy oil, worth from $5.00 to $7.00 per barrel.
—Small pox is becoming alarmingly prevalent in different sections of the country. It is a cold weather disease, and with the increasing cold people may look for an increase of the disease. Hence great care should be exercised to prevent it from spreading.
—Wilson, the "Buckeye Blacksmith," is still engaged with his fishing job on the Cornwell well, at Root & Watson's, but says he will have the long lost bit out before he returns to Tionesta. His reputation is at stake, and he proposes to sustain it at all hazards.
—Robert Graham dropped dead while splitting some wood at his home near Fork Run, Kingsley township, on Thursday forenoon last. The cause is supposed to have been heart disease. Mr. Graham, (or Grimes as he was better known here) was noted as a great joker, and his many witty and laughable remarks often provoked much merriment among his acquaintances, and made him a jolly companion up to the time of his sudden death. He was aged about 80 years.

Several deer were obliged to yield up the ghost during the latter part of last week in this vicinity.
Four or five were killed in the woods on the west side of the river, and several more were shot at but escaped the fatal bullet. They are fine eating this time of year, so they say.
—Most of the men who took trips down the river on lumber have returned and report the safe arrival in Pittsburgh of all the lumber started from here last week. Lumber and timber are said to find ready sale at good figures, which will fill the hearts of the boys with joy, and their pockets with ducats.
—The Teachers' Institute for this county, which convenes on December 26, promises to be something extra.
Sept. Hillard will have some of the best talent of the land here to give lectures and instructions. No teacher should miss this institute now that they will be allowed their time while in attendance. Col. Sanford, one of the most noted lecturers of the country, will be present.
—Mr. Frank Riker, who went to seek his fortune in the "gold diggings" of Colorado, something over a year ago, writes to a friend in this place that he is doing well where he is located at Buckhorn Ranch, near Leadville, and instructed the gentleman to set up the cigars to all his old friends here at his expense. We are glad to know Frank is succeeding, and hope he may return some day with his fortune made.
—Nos. 23 and 24 of Saalfeld's 10c.
Libraries have arrived with their usual supply of choice music. The former contains the following: Absent; My Star of Home; Desiderio; Gobble Duet, from "The Mascotte"; Garfield's Funeral March. The contents of the latter are: Guardian Angel; Gently Rest; I Built a Bridge of Fancies; Monastery Bells. Published by R. A. Saalfeld, 839 Broadway, N. Y., for only 10 cents.
—Thanks to the Printers of Franklin for an invitation to their "second annual dinner" on Thanksgiving. It would have given us pleasure to have been there, but as this is only the second dinner they have had in two years, it would hardly be doing the graceful thing to go down and devour their vitals on this occasion which only happens once a year. Brother Smiley of the Citizen served the viands this year, and from what we can learn a royal feast was enjoyed. Next year we'll try and be there, if we have a chance.
—Henry Smith, of Beaver Valley, Hickory twp., died suddenly on Wednesday morning of last week. He got up in the morning between 6 and 7 to build a fire, and was shortly afterwards found dead. It was thought best to hold an inquest which was done by Coroner Church, of Hickory.
A post mortem examination was made by Dr. Coburn when it was found that the cause of his death was paralysis, in accordance with which the jury returned a verdict. Mr. Smith's age was about 64 years, and he was well and favorably known to many of our older citizens.
—Our sister town, Tidioute, is just now experiencing a business boom that bids fair to awake it from its long sleep and restore it to some of its old-time activity. The citizens are taking hold of things in the right way, and are bound to make business boom. They have organized a company for the manufacture of chairs and all kinds of furniture, wooden utensils, &c., which organization is composed of the most prominent business men of the place. The factory building is being pushed forward rapidly and all the machinery has been ordered and will be placed in position as soon as possible. Besides this enterprise a board of trade will be organized forthwith, and taken all together the future of the town looks bright. This shows what a little enterprise on the part of the citizens will do for a town, and we hope it will stimulate some of our own citizens up to a realization of the fact that in order to help our town along they must wake up; and when there is a slight prospect for the erection of manufacturing establishments in our midst they must encourage the same, and not raise on the price of real estate, town lots, &c.
Tionesta has double advantages over Tidioute for a furniture factory, and we hope she will improve them before it is too late.

From the Silver Cliff, Colorado, Daily Republican, of Nov. 17, we clip the following item which is of interest to many of our readers: "After a painful illness the death of Mrs. Lena M. Cromer, wife of L. F. Cromer, occurred last Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, at her late residence on Ohio street, aged 22 years, 3 months and 17 days. The deceased was born in Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, and came to this city to reside only a few short months ago. About two weeks since she was taken suddenly ill, the result being a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels, which caused her untimely death. She bore her struggles with great fortitude and passed into that dreamless sleep perfectly reconciled.
Her husband, to whom she was very much attached, has the deep sympathy of all around here. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the Methodist church, presided over by the Rev. J. H. Merritt. A large circle of friends followed the remains to the grave."
Thanksgiving Day.
Thanksgiving in Tionesta was a pleasant day indeed, and was observed in a manner appropriate to the occasion. All the stores were closed and business generally was suspended.
Union services were held at the Presbyterian church, which were well attended, impressive and appropriate.
The streets were quiet and orderly, and altogether the day was one long to be remembered for the quiet and happy manner in which it was observed.
AT WEST HICKORY.
Thanksgiving day was very pleasantly passed at Hickory by some of our young gentlemen. The Misses Siggins entertained Messrs. Haslet, Raisig and Hoskins of this place, and A. D. Colegrove, of Corry, Pa.
AT EAST HICKORY.
"Across the Rhine," at the residence of Hon. N. P. Wheeler, at Stowtown, the school children to the number of about sixty, were entertained by Mrs.
Wheeler and Miss Sue Evans, their former teacher. They spent a very pleasant afternoon, and the memories of their happy school days were once more recalled.
Our reporters in other parts must have gorged themselves with turkey, which so upset them that they were unable to send in their reports. However, we suppose all enjoyed the day lugely, not forgetting to give thanks to the Great Ruler of the universe, "the bountiful giver of all."

twp., Forest county.
BARNES—WHITEHILL—Nov. 27, 1881, both of Bobs Creek, Forest Co. Pa.

RIDDLE—BROWN—At the bride's home, in Corry, Pa., on Wednesday, Nov. 16, 1881, Mr. Edwin M. Riddle, formerly of Tionesta, now of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss E. S. Brown, daughter of Col. Brown, Rev. W. N. Sloan, Presbyterian minister, officiating.
We received notice of our friend's marriage too late for last week's issue of our paper. Ed. is always pleasant, but we thought him unusually so when he was here; and now the secret is out at last! We can imagine how "sweeter far than all, is loves first young dream," when the dreamer is actually on his last journey of courtship to his lady love. And so this accounts for it all. Well, Ed, we do congratulate you heartily, and do fervently trust that life has for you and your worthy bride many golden blessings in store. We congratulate St.
Joseph, too, upon the accession of a worthy young man as one of her permanent citizens. Mr. Riddle was born and reared here, and bears, and deserves an excellent reputation as a prompt and reliable young man and estimable christian gentleman. His abilities are of rare order, and we expect to learn of his success in any calling in life which he may choose in his western home. At one time he was a law student in the office of Miles W. Tate Esq., and no doubt the law will yet be his life profession. But whatever Mr. Riddle undertakes, he will bring to its performance a clear head and an honest purpose, qualities which will no doubt be appreciated by the good people of St. Joseph, and which will not fail to bring him all the success in life which his many friends here fondly anticipate.
