LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Hickling.

—Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

—Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m., F. M. Sabbath School at 11 a. m.

The maidens long for sleighing And sweetly sigh for snow! The young men feel their pockets And gently whisper "No!"—Derrick.

—A happy New Year to all! —How about that "new leaf;" has it been soiled yet?

—Mr. E. H. Hoover, of Iowa, is visiting his brother J. C. this week.

—Miss Sarah Carr has returned from Canada where she has been attending school.

—Miss Cora E. Wallace, of East Brady, Pa., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Derickson.

—Col. J. T. Dale came down from the oily north to spend the holidays with his parents and friends.

—Miss Kate Cobb is paying her cousins Misses Ella and Kitty McVean a visit, at St. Marys, Pa.

—Mr. Fred. Auer, of Indiana, youngest brother of Mrs. Judge Reck, is paying the family a visit at present.

—Samuel Walker is happy again. He was around last week "squaring up" with his creditors, and begins the new year with a clean balance sheet.

—The young people and some older had a most delightful hop at the Lawrence House Hall on Wednesday evening of last week, which all enjoyed hugely, so they say.

—A four-year's subscription from our old friend and patron, Mr. Horace Wilkins, of Cleveland, came just in time to make a most acceptable holiday present.

—The weather of the past few days has been such as to give some little encouragement to those who are waiting for snow and ice, but we guess it is only a scare.

—Our sincere sympathy is with Mr. and Mrs. M. Silk, of Warren, Pa., whose daughter Nettie, a bright and interesting child of about seven years, died last Thursday.

—This being the Week of Prayer, union services are held nightly in the Presbyterian church, and are well attended. A general and cordial invitation is extended to all.

—One of the boilers at Lawrence & Dale's mill on Lamentation, exploded one day last week, but no one was hurt, and no very great damage was done. Fortunate blow-up, that.

—Mother Shipton's prophecy that that the World would come to an end in 1881 came true—but it was the Petroleum World of Titusville, which ceased to exist on the last day of the year.

—The handsomest Almanac for the New Year comes from the Allegheny Evening Mail office. It is beautifully illustrated and embellished, and contains a fund of entertaining matter. Many thanks.

—Three good news letters were received last night, intended for this week's paper, but they were too late, sorry to say. Most of the matter contained in them is good enough to keep till next week, however.

—Judge Cook has bought the interest of McClure & Co. in the Thom's Run timber tract for $13,000 and now owns the entire tract. This is a valuable piece of timber land, having been sold in 1873 for $100,000.—Clarion Jacksonian.

—A host of our friends and patrons—too numerous to mention—took occasion last week while attending court and institute to call on the REPUBLICAN and square up for the old year and begin the new with a clean page. To all such we return many thanks.

—Watch-meetings were held in various places and various ways Saturday night. Some watched in church, and some watched collectively at their neighbors' houses; some watched single-handed, and others watched in pairs. Doubtless half the town was on the watch.

—Mr. E. B. Randall, father of Ex-Sheriff Randall, is paying his son a visit. His home is in Canada and this is the first time he has seen Chas. for fifteen years. Mr. R., like his boy, is an agreeable gentleman, and one with whom it is a pleasure to meet.

—Fresh oysters on Thursday—also choice Turkey Prunes at Wm. Smearbaugh & Co. 2t.

—Reck & Hasselback, of Farmington township, will shortly remove their mill to a tract belonging to Williams & Co., near Marienville, Forest county, with whom they have made a contract to cut about forty millions of lumber.—Clarion Jacksonian.

—Mr. Solomon Zents of Pittsburgh, is paying a visit to Forest county. Mr. Z. is an old-time resident of our county, and has many relatives and friends still living here, who are glad to see him once more. Although it is several years since his last visit to Tionesta, he doesn't seem to have grown a day older.

—Robinson & Bonner have just received an immense stock of Overcoats which they offer at astonishingly low prices. Call and examine before going elsewhere. 2t

—The Philadelphia News suggests that the simplest way to spite your neighbor is to go and drown yourself in his well. We tried to act on the suggestion, but found to our sorrow that our neighbor had an artesian well—merely a pipe driven in the ground, and we could only get our head in.—Derrick. Goodness gracious! what a small pipe that must have been.

—Frederick Kauffman, well known to our citizens, died at the residence of Henry Kiser, on Dutch Hill, yesterday morning. He was aged about 70 years, and of late years was in rather feeble health. Fred., as he was familiarly known, was always a hardworking, industrious man. He was for several years tax-collector of this borough, in which position he discharged his duties well, being considered the best collector the town ever had. Peace to his ashes.

—An accident occurred at Hall's timber job near Balltown this county, on the 19th ult., by which a Mr. Shaw, whose home is near Lineville, Clarion county, had one of his legs broken below the knee. It happened while he was felling a tree in some manner, the exact particulars we could not learn. Some of the charitably disposed people of Kingsley township and vicinity raised a subscription for the unfortunate man, and he was comfortably cared for.

—Somebody put out some poisoned meat for fox bait in the woods near Tubbs run—at least that's what it is supposed to have been—and Web Clark's dog "Snyuer" got a piece of it. It is needless to say that Snyder turned up his toes in a very short time after eating it, and now Web is looking for the scaldawg who scattered the poison. This is a dangerous business, and a violation of law as well as of common sense and decency, and should be stopped at once, as not only dogs but other and more valuable animals are endangered by it.

—Mr. Sebastian Blum, one of the early settlers of Dutch Hill, died on Saturday evening, December 31, 1881, aged 68 years. Mr. Blum had been in delicate health for many years, and although his death was not unexpected it caused some surprise and universal sorrow among his neighbors, by whom he was held in high esteem. He was a christian man, having united with the church in early childhood he lived up to the faith and died therein. He leaves a wife, three sons, two daughters, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

—Geo. G. Suckles, the man who owns more than half of all the land embraced in the limits of Tionesta borough, was married in New York a few days ago to Mrs. Mary Sheridan Sawyer. Mr. Suckles is 82 years of age and his bride is 48. He is estimated to be worth twelve millions of dollars, and as his new helpmate is said to be a tidy, economical housekeeper it is reasonable to suppose that the happy couple can manage to get along the rest of their days. Mr. Suckles has our best wishes for a long and happy future. May his generosity so overcome him in his new and happy state that he will send us a warrant deed for one of his town lots in Tionesta borough. Nothing short of this will we accept.

—Employ no more quack doctors and quack medicines; rely wholly on Peruna.

—Grandin & Barry Bros., undaunted by their late dry well, have started the erection of another rig about one-half mile southwest of Balltown proper. Drilling will commence as soon as the rig is finished. The well recently finished was a purely wildcat well, being outside of all other operations, so that it is not considered to have any particular bearing on former developments in that section. Notwithstanding this however, some oil was found, but not considered enough to pay for testing. The present venture will doubtless show up good. Mr. Keeler, has been to Bradford lately and got some fishing tools with which to give the Cornwell well at Root & Watson's another and last trial. If he don't succeed in extracting the long lost bit this time, he thinks it will not be worth while to try further. Hope he'll make the rifle.

—The Commonwealth wants to know of us whether the people of Forest county are growing foolish or weak-minded or whether they are beginning to more fully realize that the old parties are controlled by a graceless set of scoundrels? For our part we think it is neither. We don't believe the people are growing foolish, neither do we believe the Republicans of Forest county are "a graceless set of scoundrels," but on the contrary think they are fully as honorable and upright as the self-appointed leaders of the Greenback party. If there is anybody growing foolish or making an ass of himself it is the fellow that wrote the Commonwealth's article, according to our way of thinking; and it a halt is called it should be called by the G. B. party, upon the idiots who write such articles, imagining that their effusions are going to make converts to the G. B. ranks.

—The new county officials were inaugurated on Monday without any particular ceremony. Prothonotary Shawkey, Sheriff Clark, Commissioners Ledebur, Henderson and Zuendell, Auditors Warden, Scott and Swalley, and Jury Commissioner Greenwalt, all took the oath. Mr. Hillard, the Republican Jury Commissioner-elect, was not present. The new officers entered immediately upon the duties of their respective posts and all went along without a jar. The new Board of Commissioners organized by retaining Mr. Brennan as clerk at the former salary, and Mr. Tate as counsel at a salary of $75 per annum. Monday being a legal holiday the Auditors could not proceed with the annual settlement, but they organized and got ready for business on Tuesday morning, and will probably finish to-day or to-morrow. A happy New Year and prosperous future to the new as well as the retired officials, is our best wish.

—The Teachers Institute held in this place last week was a most decided success. We can say without the least disparagement to those held in former years that the one just closed eclipsed them all. The evening entertainments could not well have been improved upon, as was shown by the large and appreciative audiences that congregated night after night. The lectures of Col. Sanford were rich and most heartily appreciated by the audiences on both Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The recitations by Miss Laura Keller were greeted with storms of applause and it seemed as though the audience could not and would not be satisfied, but persisted in recalling her to the platform repeatedly. As an elocutionist we doubt whether the young lady has a superior in the State. And this is not all; she is young and good looking, and with her modest and pleasing manners on the stage she at once captivated her auditors and holds them in her embrace, as it were, to the last. Supt. Hillard made a decided hit when he secured the services of Miss Keller. Prof. Dixon was as popular with the teachers as ever. His presence at an institute insures a good and profitable time, and he is always heartily welcomed by the teachers of Forest county. Supt. Schenck, of Cameron county, was well received by all. He has given a greater portion of his life to educational matters and his whole heart seems to be in the work. His county is to be congratulated upon having so able a man at the head of her educational interests. We repeat, the Institute was a grand success as a whole, and our efficient Superintendent has reason to feel proud of this his first effort in that direction. He deserves and is receiving great praise for his achievements.

—To the members of the Presbyterian and Methodist Sabbath Schools, who so thoughtfully remembered us at the Santa Claus entertainment by those beautiful reminders of pleasant and instructive associations, we extend our heartfelt thanks, hoping that the work in which we are engaged may produce a bountiful harvest in which there will be neither chaff nor tares. T. F. RITCHEY, Supt., Pres. S. S. J. H. DINGMAN, Supt., M. E. S. S.

Martha E. Winegard vs. August Winegard; Divorce decreed at cost of respondent.

Obituary. The following obituary notice of the father of our townsman, Miles W. Tate Esq., we take from the Clearfield Journal:

William Tate was born March 23, 1808, and died December 17, 1881, aged 73 years, 8 months and 24 days. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church in the year 1839. He was perhaps with one exception the oldest member in Clearfield. Until disabled by personal affliction he was always in his place in the Sanctuary and faithfully discharged every duty incumbent upon him, Strong in the faith of the Christian he passed into the dreamless sleep and doubtless awoke in the realms of the blessed. He was a man of blameless life and quiet habits, going in and out among his fellow men without ostentation, and careful only to be just in his dealings and charitable to the needy. Those who have shared the generous hospitality of his comfortable home, will long remember the uniform courtesy, that made his kind attention to every want doubly agreeable. In all his relations of husband, father and citizen he enjoyed the esteem of his neighbors and has departed, leaving behind him a spotless record as a legacy to his children. As one who knew and appreciated his unobtrusive worth I rear this monument to his memory. W. H. D.
