-Rev. Hicks will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

-Presbyterian Sabbath School at 3 p. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 8. m.

-Did you have a sleigh ride?

-The common salutation : "How's rour scab ?"

-The Y. P. L. S. will meet at the residence of Mr. J. L. Craig.

-Mr. Geo. W. Warden of East

Hickory, was in town Sunday. --Misses Fanny and June Siggins, of West Hickory, spent the Sabbath with Tionesta friends.

-February 14, Valentine day; February 22, Ash Wodnesday and four teams to haul. The other mate-Washington's birthday.

-Mr. Ben. W. May departed last Thursday for a weeks' visit to the sunny south, at Louisville, Ky.

-Miss Alwilda Adams spent the Sabbath at home from East Hickory, where she is teaching school.

-Mrs. G. D. Ackerly, of Meadville, is paying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arner, a visit at Nebraska, this county.

-The annual report of the Trustees of the State insane hospital at Warren has reached us, for which we are duly thankful.

-Mr. Frank Moll, of Russells burg, Pa., brother of Mrs. J. Muenzenberger, is paying the family a visit this week.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bates of Ti tusville, visited a fews days in town during the week the guests of Mr. H. H. May's family.

-State Treasurer Butler has our report of the condition of the finances morrow (Thursday) evening, on "Lonof the Commonwealth.

-Sheriff Clark reports the birth of three lambs from one ewe at his farm way, has a ghost story. It runs about on Monday morning. That's a pretty thusiy : In 1865, when the Railroad lively increase, and would indicate that the sheep raising was fully as lucrative a business as the Sheriff"a.

-Attention is directed to the card of the National Hotel, Tidioute, Pa. This is one of the best botels in this section, and the proprietor, Mr. W. D. Bucklin, is a gental landlord who makes his guests feel at ease when stopping at his house. His table always contains the best in the market.

-Mr. Paul Blute returned last Friday from a trip to Canada, where he had been on a five weeks' visit to his parents, whom he had not seen for ten years. He reports good sleighing there while he stayed ; but then, they have Vennor there, and they make him "come to time" on the weather business.

-We learn that Abraham Bean, of Brookston, this county, died, and wes buried at his old home in East Hickory, on Monday of this week. We are without particulars but understand he died of consumption. He was well known to many of our older citizens, having lived in this county many years.

---Several loads of material for the Miller Extract works at Salmon creek, were taken up from this place last week. One load consisted of an immense copper kettle, which it required rial was also copper. The works are nearly completed and will be in operation before many weeks.

-The monthly oil report of the Derrick for January shows a considerable decrease in operations as compared with the December report, and a decline of over two thousand barrels in production. This is what the trade needs to make the supply proportionate with the demand, and to insure better prices. On the whole the outlook is very favorable indeed.

-Mr. Henry Dean, of Whig Hill, was in town last weak, and called to fix up his subscription again. Henry's father was a subscriber to the REPUB-LICAN from the start, and among his last requests was one that the paper should always form part of the literature of the household. Like his father Henry is one of the Republicans that can be counted on everytime.

-Rev. L. M. Gilliland, of Tidioute, will lecture under the auspices of the thanks for his annual and detailed Look Up Legion of East Hickory, todon." Should the sleighing be good week's issue, and celebrated the event this would be an excellent opportunity Pa., visited her brothers, Ed. and for the young people of this place to enjoy a ride, hear a splendid lecture face doubly cheerful. This excellent and assist and encourage a most worthy publication is devoted to the interests cause. Rev. Gilliland is a lecturer of of out-door sports, hunting, fishing, considerable note.

-Tionesta not to be behind in any was building a man was murdered and robbed about a mile below town and left lying near the track in his shanty. There is no ghost story about this ; it is truth as many of our citizens know. Well, near the spot, within the past three weeks, a man, or something resembling a man, has been seen repeatedly, always about the same place. The ghost appears and disappears, but never leaves any tracks. Now, we are po believer in ghosts,-never were, and don't want to be-but when a story comes to us supported by such men as Capt. Knox, (who has for many years held the responsible office of Justice of the Peace, and in whose word everybody has implicit confidence), and Mr. S. S. Canfield, (who is not a Justice of the Peace, but whose magnificent physique and fine proportions would at once recommend him as a proper person to fill an Alderman's chair), besides a host of other reliable men, why its calculated to make one's hair raise and cause the cold chills to meander up and down your spinal columu. At all events the matter has created quite a commotion in superstitious circles, and unless something is soon done to put au end to his ghostship, Derickson & Co. will have to move their mill, or get a new gang of men to run it.

-One night last week just as Law yer Tate was about retiring he chanced to look out of the window and noticed what seemed to be a small blaze in the rear of Lawyer Davis' residence in the north ward. He watched the progress of the flame for a moment and was soon convinced that it was a fire, and that it was growing. Hastily dressing he hurried to the place and found that a corner of the wood-house, near the main building, was on fire and already under way. Failing to extinguish the fire by throwing on snow, he awoke Mr. Davis, who brought out a bucket of water, and with the application of a few pails full the two gentlemen had soon drowned out the flames. Had the discovery not been made in time it is a serious question whether Mr. D.'s handsome residence could have been saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from some wood ashes that had been put there by the domestic who supposed they were dead. Too much care cannot be exercised in such cases.

-The Forest & Stream entered apon its eighteenth volume with last with a bran new dress of type throughout, which makes its hitherto cheerful boating, &c., and withal is a most lovely companion to the lovers of the on all matters pertaining thereto, and in our estimation takes the lead of all publications of its kind. No sportsman should be without it. Send for sample copy to Forest & Stream Publishing Co., 39 and 40 Park Row,

Oil News.

From the Derrick : It is reported that Tack Bros.' well, warrant 2,252, following observations on a recent Millstone township, Elk county, has ueen abandoned at a depth of 2,600 rectors and the superintendent :- . feet. Work was begun on this well last August, when the rig was built. visit by two of the directors, A. B. The latter part of September they had Kelly and G. W. Robinson, and the reached a depth of 500 feet. Since Superintendent, J. E. Hillard, When that time they have been delayed with Mr. Hillard first came the boys kept fishing jobs, and the various difficul- very quiet, but they happened to think ties encountered in drilling a well so that he had no right to lay hands on far from the base of supplies. Be- them like he used to, so they begun tween 2,400 and 2,500 feet a barren to get a little noisy to show him that sand was drilled through. No sand they was not afraid. The Directors of an oil bearing character was struck, did not seem to like it very well. By and the result adds one more to the the way, they scowled and looked at list of failures in Elk county.

SHEFFIELD.

The sand found in Horton & Magee's No. 5, 408, which struck the of them to see if that would do any rock Friday, was dark colored, and good ; but it did not keep them quiet resembled the Bradford sand more as long as ho was at it, so he let them than did the sand found in the first go. When it was time to dismiss venture.

407, last week, to Roess Bros., of Oil acted as it they did not know what City. We understand the consideration was $150 an acre.

McKinney & Co.'s well on the Williamson farm, is below the gas sand, and the tools fast in the hole. They found a regular formation, and the gas sand, with a large flow of gas, at the proper level. This is considered a good sign of striking oil, although the dry holes on the east found a gas sand, and some of the producing wells on the west failed to find it.

Here we are again. We see by the papers that P. A. Black is drawn for the jury. That is pretty rough on a newly married man to call him off so soon.

The cars have arrived at Brookston, stopping just back of the saw mill, which is far as they can get until the Tionesta is bridged. Now who says Brookston is in the woods? The railroad company received their passenger coach and got it on the track Thursday, and will commence running regular Monday.

We had a little show here last Tuesday night-No, we didn't-yes, we did. A fellow calling himself "Prof. Wilson" (we understand from Titusville) engaged the hall for that evening and left. Tuesday came and at Sheffield, because be could not be brought up for half fare, he "took so small they couldn't see him. So the gentlemen in charge, not to be stuck, called upon Will Cole, who was in the audience, who finally came forth and sang two of his inimitable songs, got the audience in protty good humor with everybody but "Prof. Wilson," after which wound up with a dance. Would like to have the "Professor" call again with his magic lantern. Our friend of the Port Jervis Gazette, we see, is out again with a general batch of news in which he says the small pox is at Meadville. In that he is mistaken, as we are reliably that he is mistaken, as we are reliably the County of Forest, to commence on the informed that there is not a case Fourth Monday of Feb. being the 27th day of Feb. 1882 Notice is therefore there.
