tall its readers which one of the following quotations from its columns it and explain. - Commonwealth, Feb. 9,

The National banks are leading a movement to reduce the tariff, and inconsistent with this act are repealed, consequently the revenues. The object is to reduce the surplus after paying the current expenses of the Gov-ernment. But he who thinks the this act shall entail no expense to the banks do this for a desire to relieve counties or cities, the people from taxation, is mistaken. The secret is, that by the present revemes, the bonds are being paid at the rate of over $100,000,000 each year. When the bonds are paid the banks will cease to exist. Hence this movement is a struggle for existence. Commonwealth, Dec. 15, 1881.

The consistency shown in the above clipplings is sublime indeed, but it's about the size of the average Greenback editor. The trouble is that there are too many statesmen and financiers on the editorial staff of the Commonwealth, and their ideas of how to run a government don't always sometimes agree. You see one statesman will sit down and dash off a column or so on the bloated boudholder, national bank monopolies, thieving officials, &c., &c., &c., which, if left to go out alone, would doubtless stop the wheels of government instanter; but along comes another statesman and financier, who dots down a half column or such a matter and knocks the stuffing all out of the first statesman's arguments, and their ideas don't harmonize worth a cent, causing sensible people to smile and become disgusted. Too many cooks spoil the broth. The assertion in December that the "bonds were being paid at the rate of over $100,000,000 each year," and in February, two months later, the national debt is increasing, don't "libe" very

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

We publish below an act passed last winter governing primary elections in this State. Hereafter nominations will be subject to the provisions of this law, and officers of elections elections. It will be well for the Republicans of this county to preserve this act for future reference.

AN ACT

To regulate the holding of, and to prevent frauds in, the primary elections of the several political parties in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

If the public debt has been decreased so much within the last year how in thunder does it come that the box, by false counting, by making statement of the Secretary of the false returns or by, any act or thing Pressury for February 1st, 1831, shows whatsoever, the person so offending the public debt to be $1,840,598,811. shall be deemed guilty of a misde-98, and for February 1st, 1882 $1,998, meanor, and upon conviction shall be 539 349.41, an increase of $157,939, fined not exceeding five hundred dol-537,34 within one year? Someone rise lars or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court.

All acts or parts of aets of assembly

Approved the 29th day of June, HENRY M. HOYT. A. D. 1881.

DEMOCRATIC organs are so much interested in the discussion of possible candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor as to lose sight entirely of the fact that it will become the duty of the party they represent also to make such a nomination. Doubtless the Democracy recognize that it is of little consequence who leads their party in the contest, as his fate will be that of all his predecessors in the same line for twenty years, namely, inglorious defeat. There is something in this, and we therefore do not wonder at this indifference of the Democratic organs as to who is to be their candidate for Governor.

TILDEN is determined to a be candidate a second time. Henry Clay was twice a candidate for President, as was General Harrison, the latter having been elected at the second nomination. Mr. Clay is the only man who was twice defeated before the people for the Presidency. If Tilden is renominated he will meet a fate like that of Mr. Clay.

REDUCTION of the public debt continues to be made as regular as clock work. The purpose is to secure a liquidation monthly this year of $12,-

The time has never been and never will be when the people of this or any other country can buy a gold dollar for seventywill be sworn the same as at general five cents. Neither can you, dear reader, purchase an organ worth three or four hundred dollars for $60. This is all nonsense. Still we have no objection to other people doing their business just as they see fit. We are selling a good, honest made Piono at from $185 to $575, and a good, honest Organ (not all stops) for from $48 to $475. All our goods are made upon honor, and we send to any part of the world on test trial, and if no pleasee Secrion 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful and it is hereby Pianos and Organs to every part of the world, and our instruments give the most universal satisfaction.
