

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

TERMS:—Congress $20; State Senator, $10; Assembly $10; District Attorney $3. These terms are strictly cash in advance—and no deviation.

CONGRESS.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—Please announce the name of Hon. A. Cook, of Forest County, as a candidate for Congress in the 25th District, subject to the usages of the Republican party. MANY FRIENDS.

ASSEMBLY.

We are authorized to announce that E. L. DAVIS will be a candidate for election to the office of Assembly, subject to the usages of the Republican party.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce T. J. VANGHISEN ESQ., of Tionesta, as a candidate for District Attorney, subject to Republican usages.

TWO-THIRDS of the States will elect Governors this year.

GUITEAU is improving in flesh and general appearance and has lost his loquaciousness. He alludes to his death only by saying, "I suppose I have got to go."

DIVORCE lawyers should hasten to Utah. There may be a thriving business there as soon as the full force of the Congressional enactment dawns upon the polygamous mind.

THE U. S. Senate in executive session on Wednesday last confirmed the nomination of Samuel Blatchford, of New York, to be an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

THE Mormon bishops say that they will not be governed by any other law but that of the Bible, and have resolved to die in defense of polygamy. Let them die, then, for their country's good.

THE Democratic State Committee met at Harrisburg on Wednesday last and decided to hold their State Convention in that city on June 28, about six weeks later than the Republican convention.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., has 120 cases of smallpox in a population of 4,000. Students of Lehigh University and the young ladies of Bishop Thorpe's school are leaving for their homes rapidly.

CHAIRMAN BOBERT says his circular requesting the Democrats to make an attempt to capture the election boards at the spring election was a success, and that large gains were made. The scales will fall in November.

THE Democrats claim that New York and Indiana were bought up at the last Presidential election for a million and a half dollars. The Democracy must have sold out very cheap. Hardly fifty cents a head.

THE Philadelphia Press is collecting a dime fund for the wife and baby of Sergeant Mason, helping it along with such pleasant words as: "Sergeant Mason shouldn't have done it, but the poor little baby couldn't help it."

"When it comes to Betty and the Baby, there are few if any anti-Masons in this country." The dimes are flowing in rapidly.

THE Republicans of Armstrong county have instructed their delegates to the State Convention to vote for General Beaver for Governor, Senator W. T. Davies for Lieutenant Governor, Hon. John M. Geer for Secretary of Internal Affairs, Major A. M. Brown for Supreme Judge, and Hon. S. B. Dick for Congressman-at-Large. A most excellent ticket throughout.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR acts with great deliberation in making appointments. He has now under consideration the filling of several highly honorable and lucrative positions recently made vacant. A large number of names are before him from which to make appointments to those places, but he seems to be in no haste in making the appointments. It will seem to the people that the President acts wisely and most judiciously in this business. The public service is not suffering. He can afford to deliberate slowly, as that is practical haste in such matters. Evidently the President is disposed to become acquainted with the men he appoints to office. He does little, if anything, hastily, and cannot be accused of doing anything by halves. The people are all the better satisfied with this action, and this, we infer, is about what the President wants to assure himself of.

In view of the fact that the Democratic party has achieved no victories in the last twenty-one years, it has been suggested to the Times by an astute political observer that that party under its present name be disbanded, it having forfeited its right to live by reason of its having "expired by limitation." We second the motion. All in favor of the motion say "Aye." Carried unanimously.—Reading Times.

THE Congressman that have an eye to the next elections vote are busy sending seeds from Washington to their agricultural friends. Forest county is just now being flooded with these seeds, besides tons of literature in the shape of agricultural reports, all bearing the signature of the Hon. James Mosgrove. Of course our Greenback and Democratic friends will not offer the same objections this year that they did two years ago.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Two Democrats, two Republicans and one Greenbacker sign the minority report in favor of Mormon Cannon retaining his seat in Congress. Dishonors are easy between the political parties in this instance."

NO! Correct. The minority report in favor of Mormon Cannon is signed by three Bourbon Democrats, and one Greenback Democrat from the State of Texas, four Democrats in all. Judge Ranny, of Mass., voted in the committee of elections in favor of seating Cannon, but refused to sign the minority report because it did not express his views. He submitted a written opinion to the committee, the gist of which was that polygamy was not a legal disqualification. If the Edmunds bill, which has passed both the Senate and the House, is signed by the President, he expresses his determination to vote with the Republicans in refusing a seat to Cannon.—Meadville Republican.

THE Wolfe party, granting its claim that it is a party, is composed substantially of Mr. Wolfe. That is to say, if he were to drop the party it would smash to pieces of its own weight and want of coherence. Mr. Wolfe is for all practical purposes the party. When asked by a reporter of this paper to define the principles upon which the party would enter the canvass, he hesitated, and said he would have to wait until the convention met before he could tell, except in the general way that the principles in question are opposed to those held by Republicans who have won all the victories which crown the history of the party. When pressed for a statement of his views upon the question of civil service reform, a national question made to do duty in all local party quarrels, all he had to say was that the civil service should be filled as it is now, by influence, as he called it, only that the influence should be that of honest men. The coolness of this remark, seeing that he was embarrassed in the effort to answer the inquiries made of him, would have been refreshing on a warmer day. The sum of the matter is this: Mr. Wolfe is the party, but he does not know what he is going to do except to stand in the way of other Republicans, and his motive for doing so is that he is honest and they are not.—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

CHARLES FENON, a Mercer county lad, is reported to be the most expert detective in Pittsburgh.

THERE is less snow east of the Allegheny mountains at this season than has covered the same area for years.

PITTSBURGH dealers in agricultural implements report the prospects remarkably good for a very large spring business.

THERE is wheat enough in store in Lancaster county to find the population within its borders for five years. It is held for higher prices.

OUT of 8,480 persons treated at the Pennsylvania hospital for the insane since it opened in 1841, the cause of insanity could not be ascertained in 3,298 cases. In the remainder most of the causes were: Ill health, 1,577; intemperance, 828; loss of property, 287; grief, 386; religious excitement, 243; overwork, 87; mental anxiety, 510; fright, 53; uncontrolled passion, 13; metaphysical speculation, 1; engagement in a duel, 1; homesickness, 3; stock speculation, 2; mortified pride, 2; use of opium, 33; use of tobacco, 17; tight-lacing, 1; sudden acquisition of wealth, 1.

This deed is done. Polygamy is doomed. President Arthur has affixed his signature to the anti-polygamy bill and it is the law of the land. The provisions of the act are sufficiently comprehensive and explicit and it only remains for the government to do its whole duty in the premises. That there may be bloodshed is probably true, but there must be no hesitation, now that the knife is provided, to apply it to the eradication of this cancer, this foul sore, this vile excrescence upon our fair fame as a nation. When this is done, the people of our generation will have ample reason to congratulate themselves on having rid their beloved country of two poisonous tumors which were eating out the very life of the nation. In the short space of a quarter of a century, our glorious young republic has wiped out the twin barbarisms of slavery and polygamy and grows stronger, better and purer each day.—Derriek.
